JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we declare this truth from Your Word, "He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths." May we be open to Your instruction that we might journey the course You have prepared for us.

We are determined to leave yesterday in the past and look forward to our bright future. Help us, in the remaining days of this session, to follow a course of promise, wisdom and successful resolutions. May the decisions we make today help bring solutions that offer hope, encouragement, and rekindled growth in the coming days, months and years.

Give us the needed courage to challenge the status quo; equip us to overcome the mountains that stand in our way; and as we acknowledge You in all our ways, make our paths straight.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all.

To You be the glory, both now and forever, in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Elise Dye, Erin Dye, Ellen Dye, Shelby Hobbs, Haden Hobbs, Hunter Thomas, Jefferson Thomas and Kendra Wilson.

The Journal of the fifty-fourth day was approved as corrected.

The Journal of the fifty-fifth day was approved as printed.

The Journal of the fifty-sixth day was approved as printed.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, You have said, "There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way of destruction." Help us do what is right in Your sight, rather than what just seems right.

You've given us the strength to do it. We say "Yes" to You and Your plans.

We understand that "without good counsel, plans go awry, but in the multitude of counselors they are established." May we receive sound counsel from wise advisors and may we take that counsel to heart.

Show us what is good and proper in every situation. May Your peace, love, and mercy prevail in our lives, our families, our state, and our nation.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all.

To You be the glory, both now and forever. In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ryan Kerans, Rachel Croon, Constance Noah, Jessi Stewart, Cara Stewart and Allissa Schoenberger.

The Journal of the fifty-seventh day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Committee on Budget, Chairman Bearden reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Budget, to which was referred HS HCS HB 121 (Fiscal Note), begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

Committee on Administration and Accounts, Chairman Miller reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Administration and Accounts, to which was referred HR 1847, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1847

WHEREAS, Section 21.155, RSMo, provides that the House of Representatives may, by resolution, continue in employment such number of efficient employees after any adjournment of a regular session or sine die adjournment of the General Assembly as may be necessary for operation of the House; and

WHEREAS, the House of Representatives will have need for secretarial, administrative, and research, budget, and support staff after the adjournment of the House on May 16, 2003; and

WHEREAS, employees of the House of Representatives are designated and funded in House Bill No. 12, including those employees who may be needed for veto, special, or extraordinary sessions of the House:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, may employ for the period between May 16, 2003, and January 7, 2004, such employees as are necessary to perform the duties of the House, not to exceed that amount authorized pursuant to appropriation. Such employees shall include necessary secretarial, administrative, and research, budget, and support staff personnel appointed by the Speaker whose terms of employment are established by the Committee on Administration and Accounts.

Committee on Agriculture, Chairman Myers reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Agriculture, to which was referred HCR 3, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, a permanent electronic identification device to track all red meat-producing livestock from farm to table would be a great protective device for anti-bioterrorism; and

WHEREAS, such devices would be useful to the producers of red meat-producing livestock in controlling diseases as a method of tracing such livestock back to the farm; and

WHEREAS, such devices would be beneficial in providing producers with livestock carcass information, including the rate of gain; and

WHEREAS, such devices would be most useful in generating information on the concept of "farm to table" to protect American consumers:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-second General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby encourage the Animal and Plant Inspection Service of the United States Department of Agriculture to develop and promulgate a permanent electronic identification program to be used on all red meat-producing livestock that would gather information and help protect the United States' consumer in the event of a bioterrorist threat; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the United States Department of Agriculture.

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Agriculture, to which was referred HCR 5, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 5

WHEREAS, the Missouri Department of Agriculture has expressed a strong need for a biosafety level 3 lab to be housed on the veterinary school campus at the University of Missouri-Columbia;

WHEREAS, a biosafety level 3 lab would bridge gaps within the University and the University and the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Conservation, and the Department of Health and Senior Services in protecting the environment from agents that are a potential threat to plants and animals, but not to humans; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Farm Bureau, the Missouri Veterinary Medical Association, the Governor's Chronic Wasting Disease Task Force, and the Missouri Livestock and Poultry Health Council have all expressed support of the establishment of a biosafety level 3 lab in the State of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the establishment of a biosafety level 3 lab is of critical importance to the Department of Conservation because of the threat chronic wasting disease poses for Missouri deer and elk herds. Since there currently is no biosafety level 3 lab in the state, the 6,000 samples taken during the most recent deer season in Missouri are being sent to other laboratories across the country, which will most likely result in delays of several months in receiving test results; and

WHEREAS, the establishment of a biosafety level 3 lab in the State of Missouri will provide the necessary infrastructure to assist infectious disease specialists and researchers who work with highly infectious pathogens to do so in a safe and controlled environment:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-second General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby encourage and recommend the establishment of a biosafety level 3 lab on the veterinary school campus of the University of Missouri-Columbia; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for University of Missouri-Columbia Veterinary School, the Director of the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Conservation, and the Director of the Department of Health and Senior Services.

Committee on Judiciary, Chairman Byrd reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Judiciary, to which was referred SB 521, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that the House Committee Substitute Do Pass.

HOUSE RESOLUTION

HR 1847, (4-23-03) - Miller

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FIFTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God, You who can bring constancy even out of chaos, speak words of steadiness and order into this noble hall this morning. The people of this great state count on these women and these men to labor through an overabundance of bills and issues today.

Time seems short; the mountain of work is substantial and not insignificant. So we stake our claim first to Your caring and stimulating presence, and then we will do the best we can. We are all in Your heart; this day may the minds and the hands in this Chamber build and toil only for good. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Blake Werner, Ryan Kerans, Victoria Strang, Tyler Whelan, Rebecca Gee, Bobby Schindel, Peter Erickson, Joseph Winstein-Hibbs, Emily Mallette, Alex Trampe, Aspen Sinclair Gates, Melani Ford, Krystal Lewis, Travis Leeper, Jordan Walker, J.R. Anthony, Shavion Reed, Caleb Elam, Andrea James, Liza Hill, Foster Honeck, Kenneth Riper, Lauren Schweiss, Leah Schweiss, Arooj Ajaz, Daniel Burcham, Zakeriah Miles, Caleb Thompson, Brittany Brunetta, Allyson Chipley, Jelynn Louis, Joanna Majcherczyk, Allison Guerra, Michelle Beehner, Akash Sookvn, Ashley Yount, Jimmy Lyons, Nick Vaughn, Kayla Lunbeck, Brittany Fonda, Somona Stewart, Rachel Carlson, Logan Willoughby and Benjamin Morrison.

The Journal of the fifty-eighth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SIXTIETH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 28, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God, You strengthen us when the going is difficult. One very major item, the budget, and many other important issues hang over these representatives' heads. Hear them as they pray for wisdom and counsel, skills to communicate well, ways to heal conflict and hurt, and for the energy to continue on their many paths toward unified goals for our state.

They begin this session early today, God. They are not afraid of the work. Give them Your divine grace to finish well what needs to be done. We pray with faith in You, in ourselves, and in each other. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Katie Churchill Lentz and Jonathan Odom.

The Journal of the fifty-ninth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Further amend said bill, Page 12, Section 444.778, Line 50, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"490.750. 1. An environmental audit privilege as provided in sections 490.750 to 490.765 is hereby created to protect the confidentiality of communications relating to voluntary internal environmental audits.

2. Except as provided in section 490.755, an environmental audit and an environmental audit report, as defined in section 490.753, shall be privileged and shall not be admissible as evidence in any legal action in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding, nor shall such information be required to be disclosed in response to a regulatory inspection or inquiry.

490.753. As used in sections 490.750 to 490.765, the following terms mean:

(1) "Environmental audit", a voluntary internal evaluation of one or more facilities, processes or activities regulated under the environmental laws of the United States, this state or a political subdivision thereof, or of management systems related to such facility, process or activity, that is designed to determine compliance with such laws. An environmental audit may be conducted by the owner or operator, by the owner's or operator's employees or by independent contractors;

(2) "Environmental audit report", a set of documents prepared as a result of an environmental audit, including all information and documents generated and collected by the auditor which may be based upon and may include, but shall not be limited to field notes and records of observations, samples, analytical results, findings, opinions, suggestions, conclusions, drafts, memoranda, drawings, photographs, computer-generated or electronically recorded information, maps, charts, graphs and surveys, interviews, discussions, correspondence and communications related to the environmental audit; provided that such supporting information is collected or developed for the primary purpose and in the course of an environmental audit. An environmental audit report, when completed, may have three components:

(a) An audit report prepared by the auditor, which may include the scope of the audit, the information gained in the audit, conclusions and recommendations, together with exhibits and appendices;

(b) Memoranda and documents analyzing portions or all of the audit report and discussing potential implementation issues; and

(c) An implementation plan that addresses correcting past noncompliance, improving current compliance or preventing future noncompliance;

(3) "Waive" or "waiver", disseminating the environmental audit or environmental audit report in whole or in part to someone other than the owner or operator of the facility and its employees, agents, affiliates and successors in interest, the auditor and its employees, agents, subcontractors and successors in interest, current or prospective lending institutions of the owner or operator where disclosure is required as a condition of lending, and a prospective purchaser where disclosure is made under a confidentiality agreement. Waiver does not occur when:

(a) The facility owner or operator or the auditor is compelled by an administrative body or court of competent jurisdiction to disclose all or part of the environmental audit or environmental audit report;

(b) Dissemination of the environmental audit or environmental audit report, in whole or in part, is done to prevent noncompliance or improve compliance with federal, state or local environmental laws.

490.755. 1. The privilege described in subsection 2 of section 490.750 does not apply to the extent that it is waived by the owner or operator of a facility at which an environmental audit was conducted and such owner or operator prepared or caused to be prepared the environmental audit report as a result of the audit.

2. In any proceeding before a court or administrative body, after in camera review consistent with rules of procedure, the court or administrative body may require disclosure of material for which the privilege described in subsection 2 of section 490.750 is asserted, if the court or administrative body determines that:

(1) The privilege is asserted for a fraudulent purpose;

(2) The material is not subject to the privilege; or

(3) Even if subject to the privilege, the material reasonably tends to show noncompliance with the environmental laws of the United States, the state of Missouri or a political subdivision thereof, and the party asserting the privilege did not exercise ordinary care to initiate and pursue compliance upon discovery of noncompliance. Such a determination shall not constitute a final judgment regarding compliance.

3. A party asserting the environmental audit privilege described in subsection 2 of section 490.750 has the burden of demonstrating the applicability of the privilege, including if there is evidence of noncompliance with applicable environmental laws, proof that the party exercised ordinary care to initiate and pursue compliance upon discovery of noncompliance; provided, however, that a party seeking disclosure pursuant to subdivision (1) of subsection 2 of this section has the burden of proving that the privilege is asserted for a fraudulent purpose and, in a criminal proceeding, the state has the burden of proving the conditions for disclosure set forth in subdivision (2) of subsection 2 of this section.

490.757. 1. The state, having probable cause to believe a criminal offense has been committed under the environmental laws of the state of Missouri based upon information obtained from a source independent of an environmental audit report, may obtain an environmental audit report for which a privilege is asserted pursuant to subsection 2 of section 490.750 pursuant to discovery as allowed by the Missouri supreme court rules. The state shall immediately place the report under seal and shall not review or disclose the contents of the report until ordered by a court or until the privilege is waived. The burden shall be on the state to show the information came from a source independent of an environmental audit report.

2. Within thirty days of the state obtaining an environmental audit report, the owner or operator who prepared or caused to be prepared the report may file with the appropriate court a petition requesting an in camera review in accordance with subsection 4 of this section on whether the environmental audit report or portions thereof are privileged or subject to disclosure pursuant to sections 490.750 to 490.765.

3. In a civil or administrative proceeding, the existence of an environmental audit report is subject to disclosure to the inquiring litigant. The party in possession of such report may assert the privilege in any response made. The party in possession is not required to provide the inquiring party with a copy of such report. The inquiring party may file, with the appropriate court or administrative body, a petition requesting an in camera review in accordance with subsection 4 of this section on whether the environmental audit report or portions thereof are privileged or subject to disclosure pursuant to sections 490.750 to 490.765. Failure by the inquiring party to file such petition shall forfeit the party's argument that the report is not privileged.

4. Upon filing of a petition for in camera review, the court or administrative body shall issue an order scheduling an in camera review within forty-five days of the filing of the petition to determine whether the environmental audit report or portions thereof are privileged or subject to disclosure pursuant to sections 490.750 to 490.765. In the case of a criminal proceeding, such order shall allow the prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney or attorney general to remove the seal from the report to review the report and shall place appropriate limitations on the distribution and review of the report to protect against unnecessary disclosure. The prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney or attorney general may consult with law enforcement agencies regarding the contents of the report as necessary to prepare for the in camera review. The information used in preparation for the in camera review shall not be used in any investigation or in any legal proceeding and shall otherwise be kept confidential, unless and until such information is found by the court or administrative body to be subject to disclosure.

5. In the case of a civil or administrative proceeding, the court or administrative body shall issue such order as is appropriate regarding whether the information in the report is subject to disclosure. The court or administrative body may place appropriate limitations on the distribution and review of the report to protect against unnecessary disclosure.

6. In any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding, failure to comply with the review, disclosure or use prohibitions of this section shall be the basis for suppression of any evidence arising or derived from the unauthorized review, disclosure or use. The party failing to comply with this section shall have the burden of proving that proffered evidence did not arise and was not derived from the unauthorized activity.

7. The parties may at any time stipulate to entry of an order directing that specific information contained in an environmental audit report is or is not subject to the privilege provided in subsection 2 of section 490.750.

8. Upon making a disclosure determination pursuant to subsection 2 of section 490.755, the court or administrative body may compel the disclosure only of those portions of an environmental audit report relevant to issues in dispute in the proceeding.

9. If the order requiring disclosure is made by an administrative body, the aggrieved party may seek an immediate appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction. Such appeal shall be filed within ten days after receipt of the order requiring disclosure and shall serve as an immediate stay of the order requiring disclosure.

10. Any public entity, public employee, or public official who divulges all or any part of the information contained in an environmental audit report in violation of the provisions of this section or knowingly divulges or disseminates all or any part of the information contained in an environmental audit report that was provided to such public entity, public employee or public official in violation of the provisions of this section is guilty of a class

A misdemeanor.

11. Any disclosure or dissemination described in this section shall not abrogate the privilege afforded by section 490.750, provided the environmental audit report otherwise meets the requirements of sections 490.750 to 490.765.

490.759. The privilege described in subsection 2 of section 490.750 shall not extend to:

(1) Documents, communications, data, reports, or other information required to be collected, developed, maintained, reported or otherwise made available to a regulatory agency pursuant to the environmental laws, ordinances, regulations, permits or orders of the United States, this state, or a political subdivision thereof. This subsection shall not exclude from the privilege any observations, findings, opinions, suggestions or conclusions derived from the above by the state auditor;

(2) Information obtained by observation, sampling or monitoring by any regulatory agency; or

(3) Information obtained from a source independent of the environmental audit or the environmental audit report.

490.762. 1. For the purposes of this section, a disclosure of information by a person or entity to any division or agency within the department of natural resources regarding any information related to an environmental law is voluntary if all of the following are true:

(1) The disclosure is made promptly after knowledge of the information disclosed is obtained by the person or entity;

(2) The disclosure arises out of an environmental audit;

(3) The person or entity making the disclosure initiates an appropriate effort to achieve compliance, pursues compliance with due diligence and corrects the noncompliance within two years after the completion of the environmental audit. Where such evidence shows the noncompliance is the failure to obtain a permit, appropriate efforts to correct the noncompliance may be demonstrated by the submittal of a complete permit application within a reasonable time; and

(4) The person or entity making the disclosure cooperates with the appropriate division or agency in the department of natural resources regarding investigation of the issues identified in the disclosure.

2. For the purposes of subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section, upon application to the department of natural resources, the time period within which the noncompliance is required to be corrected may be extended by the department if it is not practicable to correct the noncompliance within the two-year period. A request for a de novo review of the decision of the department of natural resources may be made to the appropriate court.

3. If a person or entity is required to make a disclosure to a division or program within the department of natural resources under a specific permit condition or under an order issued by the division or program, the disclosure is not voluntary with respect to that division or program.

4. If any person or entity makes a voluntary disclosure of an environmental violation to a division or program within the department of natural resources, the department shall not seek any administrative or civil penalties associated with the issues disclosed from the person or entity nor shall the department seek any criminal penalties for negligent acts associated with the issues disclosed. The person or entity shall provide information supporting its claim that the disclosure is voluntary at the time that the disclosure is made to the division or program; in so doing, the person or entity creates a rebuttable presumption that the disclosure is voluntary.

5. To rebut the presumption that a disclosure is voluntary, the appropriate division or program shall show to the satisfaction of the respective commission in the department of natural resources, or to the department if the program is not under a commission, that the disclosure was not voluntary based upon the factors set forth in subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of subsection 1 of this section. A decision by the commission regarding the voluntary nature of a disclosure is final agency action. The division or program shall not include any administrative penalty or seek a civil penalty or a criminal conviction for negligent acts on any underlying environmental violation that is alleged absent a finding by the respective commission that the division or program has rebutted the presumption of voluntariness of the disclosure. The burden to rebut the presumption of voluntariness is on the division or program. A commission decision, or a department decision for a program not under a commission, regarding voluntariness may be appealed to a court of competent jurisdiction by the person or entity making the initial disclosure. Such an appeal shall be filed within ten days after receipt of the order regarding voluntariness and shall serve as an immediate stay of the order regarding voluntariness.

6. The prohibition against administrative, civil, or criminal penalties pursuant to this section does not apply if a person or entity has been found by a court or administrative body to have committed serious violations that constitute a pattern of continuous or repeated violations of environmental laws, rules, regulations, permit conditions, settlement agreements or orders on consent and that were due to separate and distinct events giving rise to the violations, within the three-year period prior to the date of the disclosure. Such a pattern of continuous or repeated violations may also be demonstrated by multiple settlement agreements related to substantially the same alleged violations concerning serious instances of noncompliance with environmental laws that occurred within the three-year period immediately prior to the date of the voluntary disclosure.

7. Except as specifically provided in this section, this section does not affect any authority the department of natural resources has to require any action associated with the information disclosed in any voluntary disclosure of an environmental violation.

490.765. Nothing in sections 490.750 to 490.765 shall limit, forfeit or abrogate the scope or nature of any statutory or common law privilege, including the critical self-analysis or self-evaluative privilege, the work product doctrine, and the attorney-client privilege."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-FIRST DAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we declare this truth from Your Word, "You have been a refuge for us, a tower of strength in the day of adversity." Time and time again You have lead us down a path of understanding and wisdom. You have been our strength and refuge in tough times. We pray for that to continue.

We are grateful that You hear us when we pray. May our petition for resolution to the budget issues of this day remain before You night and day until completion.

We recognize the magnitude of the responsibilities before us and the needs of so many. Help us, in wisdom and practicality, to do our part in helping to meet those needs. May we be unified in that thought.

Now may the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Your sight this day and forever.

To You be the glory, both now and forever, in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 3

WHEREAS, Missouri law requires parental consent of at least one parent in order for a minor to obtain an abortion, unless excused by a court; and

WHEREAS, Illinois law contains no such parental consent requirement; and

WHEREAS, as a result, Missouri resident minors may cross the state border to Illinois to access abortion providers in order to avoid state law; and

WHEREAS, Illinois abortion providers advertise in Missouri phone books that "no parental consent (is required) in Illinois", and by so doing, actively encourage the breaking of Missouri law and violation of parental rights over the welfare of their daughters:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-second General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby implore the General Assembly of the State of Illinois either to enact a law to require parental consent prior to allowing a minor to obtain an abortion or, if no such law is enacted, that the State of Illinois recognize Missouri law requiring parental consent prior to allowing a minor to obtain an abortion; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution to the Governor of Illinois, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House for the State of Illinois.

WHEREAS, in order to continue to provide improved services to patients in this state, improving patient information regarding elective surgical procedures and their risks and complications is needed; and

WHEREAS, the lack of information regarding surgery, surgical risks, and post surgical complications contributes to patient dissatisfaction, over-utilization of the health care system, malpractice claims, and the rising cost of healthcare; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Health and Senior Services, in conjunction with the Department of Insurance and any teaching hospital under the control of public universities in the state shall evaluate the establishment of the "Comprehensive Patient Education and Healthcare Cost Improvement Pilot Program" which will develop and incorporate effective patient education programs into the preoperative consultation and informed consent process; and

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 14.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 14

WHEREAS, the people of the state of Missouri view with growing concern the proliferation and buildup of nuclear, chemical and biological weapons of mass destruction and missile delivery systems for these weapons in the hands of hostile, or potentially hostile, and unstable foreign regimes; and

WHEREAS, the tragedy of September 11, 2002 shows that America is vulnerable to attack by foreign enemies; and

WHEREAS, North Korea has clearly established its intention to proceed with the further development of its offensive ballistic missiles and nuclear armaments, either as instruments of blackmail and extortion or for operational deployment, thereby contravening all previous nonproliferation agreements and understandings, with the effect of threatening the security of South Korea, Japan and the United States; and

WHEREAS, the people of the state of Missouri wish to affirm their support of the Government of the United States to take all action necessary to protect the people of America and future generations, including from attacks by missiles capable of causing mass destruction and loss of American lives:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Second General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby support the President of the United States to continue to take all actions necessary, directing the considerable scientific and technological capability of the great Union, to protect all fifty states and their people, our allies and our armed forces abroad from the threat of missile attack; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the President of the United States and Congress be urged to consider that a nationwide, effective missile defense system will require the deployment of a robust, multi-layered architecture consisting of integrated land-based, sea-based and space-based capabilities to deter evolving future threats from missiles as weapons of mass destruction and to meet and destroy them when necessary; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the President of the United States and Congress be urged to consider planning and funding a missile defense system beyond 2005 that would consolidate technological advancement and expansion from the limited applications currently planned; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States, President of the United States Senate, Speaker of the United States House of Representatives and the members of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 16.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 16

WHEREAS, public education is the primary responsibility of the state after paying state debts, as provided pursuant to Article III, Section 36 of the Missouri Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the adequacy and equity of funding available to public schools has again become a serious concern across the state, highlighted by the wide range of available operating funding for Missouri school districts, which ranges from $4,500 to over $13,700 per pupil; and

WHEREAS, the cost to fully fund state school aid continues to increase significantly each year and requires funds which create hardships for other sectors of society needing access to state funds; and

WHEREAS, public education is labor intensive with roughly three-fourths of operating cost supporting salaries and benefits of staff, and most of those salaries being paid to certificated teachers; and

WHEREAS, the fiscal situation facing the state and the resulting budget problems limits the ability to fund all services including education, it is necessary to review the state's commitment to all present and future aspects of education funding; and

WHEREAS, the fiscal situation and problems facing this state are serious and likely to continue for the foreseeable future and because any major alternation rendered to the state's education funding formula will require some amount of increased appropriation in order to meet the required legal standards of equity and adequacy, the need to explore opportunities to increase general revenue resources that can be used for the funding of education is critical:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Second General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, that a joint interim committee on education be created to be composed of seven members of the Senate, to be appointed by the President Pro Tem and seven members of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said committee conduct an in-depth study concerning all issues relating to equity and adequacy of distribution of state school aid, teachers' salaries, funding for school buildings, and overall funding levels for schools and any other education-related issues the committee deems relevant; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said committee prepare a report, together with its recommendations for any legislative action it deems necessary for submission to the General Assembly prior to the commencement of the Second Regular Session of the Ninety-second General Assembly; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said committee may solicit any input and information necessary to fulfill its obligations from the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, the State Board of Education, the Department of Higher Education, the Coordinating Board for Higher Education, the State Tax Commission, all school districts and other political subdivisions of this state, teachers and teacher groups, business and other commercial interests and any other interested persons; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that House Research, the Committee on Legislative Research, and Senate Research shall provide such legal, research, clerical, technical and bill drafting services as the committee may require in the performance of its duties; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the actual and necessary expenses of the committee, its members and any staff personnel assigned to the committee incurred in attending meetings of the committee or any subcommittee thereof shall be paid from the Joint Contingent Fund.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted HCA 1 to SCS SB 4 and has taken up and passed SCS SB 4, as amended.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted HCS SCS SB 7 and has taken up and passed HCS SCS SB 7.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-SECOND DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, You have said, "Blessed be the Lord who daily bears our burden." Help us to cast the whole of our cares upon You, for You have great care for us.

We have sometimes been calloused by the heat of duty, the weariness of work, the pressure to succeed. Grant us the grace to proceed and succeed in spite of these things.

Dear God, deliver us from the temptation of smallness or hardness of heart and fill our lives this morning with Your will and Your Word.

Grant us eyes to see where we once could not, ears to hear where we once would not, and words to speak where we once did not. All to Your glory, honor, and praise.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all.

To You be the glory, both now and forever. In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

"204.600. Any common sewer district organized and existing pursuant to sections 204.250 to 204.270, and any sewer district organized and existing pursuant to chapter 249, RSMo, may be converted to a reorganized common sewer district pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700. In addition, a reorganized common sewer district may be established as provided for in sections 204.600 to 204.700. Once established, a reorganized common sewer district shall have all powers and authority of and applicable to a common sewer district organized and existing pursuant to sections 204.250 to 204.270 and applicable to a sewer district established pursuant to chapter 249, RSMo, which are not inconsistent or in conflict with sections 204.600 to 204.700.

204.605. 1. Proceedings for the new formation of a reorganized common sewer district pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700 shall be substantially as follows: a petition in duplicate describing the proposed boundaries of the reorganized district sought to be formed, accompanied by a plat of the proposed district, shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein the proposed district is situated or with the clerk of the circuit court of the county having the largest acreage proposed to be included in the proposed district, in the event that the proposed district embraces lands in more than one county. Such petition, in addition to such boundary description, shall set forth an estimate of the number of customers of the proposed district, the necessity for the formation of the district, the probable cost of acquiring or constructing sanitary sewer improvements with the district, if appropriate, an approximation of the assessed valuation of taxable property within the district, whether the board of trustees shall be elected or appointed by the county commission, and such other information as may be useful to the court in determining whether or not the petition should be granted and a decree of incorporation entered. Such petition shall be accompanied by a cash deposit of fifty dollars as an advancement of the costs of the proceeding, and the petition shall be signed by not less than fifty voters or property owners within the proposed district and shall pray for the incorporation of the territory therein described into a reorganized common sewer district. The petition shall be verified by at least one of the signers thereof.

2. Upon the filing of the petition, the same shall be presented to the circuit court, and such court shall fix a date for a hearing on such petition, as herein provided for. Thereupon the clerk of the court shall give notice of the filing of the petition in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the proceedings are pending, and if the district extends into any other county or counties, such notice shall also be published in some newspaper of general circulation in such other county or counties. The notice shall contain a description of the proposed boundary lines of the district and the general purposes of the petition, and shall set forth the date fixed for the hearing on the petition, which shall not be less than fifteen nor more than twenty-one days after the date of the last publication of the notice and shall be on some regular judicial day of the court wherein the petition is pending. Such notice shall be signed by the clerk of the circuit court and shall be published in three successive issues of a weekly newspaper or in a daily paper once a week for three consecutive weeks.

3. The court, for good cause shown, may continue the case or the hearing thereon from time to time until final disposition thereof.

4. Exceptions to the formation of a district, or to the boundaries outlined in the petition for the incorporation thereof, may be made by any voter or property owner within the proposed district; provided, such exceptions are filed not less than five days prior to the date set for the hearing on the petition. Such exceptions shall specify the grounds upon which the exceptions are being made. If any such exceptions be filed, the court shall take them into consideration in passing upon the petition and shall also consider the evidence in support of the petition and in support of the exceptions made. Should the court find that the petition should be granted but that changes should be made in the boundary lines, it shall make such changes in the boundary lines as set forth in the petition as the court may deem proper, and thereupon enter its decree of incorporation, with such boundaries as changed.

5. Should the court find that it would not be to the public interest to form such a district, the petition shall be dismissed at the costs of the petitioners. If, however, the court should find in favor of the formation of such district, the court shall enter its decree of incorporation, setting forth the boundaries of the proposed district as determined by the court under the hearing. The decree shall further contain an appointment of five voters from the district, to constitute the first board of trustees of the district. The court shall designate such trustees to staggered terms from one to five years such that one director is appointed or elected each year. The trustees thus appointed by the court shall serve for the terms thus designated and until their successors shall have been appointed or elected as provided in section 204.625. The decree shall further designate the name of the district by which it shall be officially known.

6. The decree of incorporation shall not become final and conclusive until it shall have been submitted to the voters residing within the boundaries described in such decree and until it shall have been assented to by a majority of the voters as provided in subsection 9 of this section or by two-thirds of the voters of the district voting on the proposition. The decree shall provide for the submission of the question and shall fix the date thereof. The returns shall be certified by the judges and clerks of election to the circuit court having jurisdiction in the case and the court shall thereupon enter its order canvassing the returns and declaring the result of such election.

7. If a majority of the voters of the district voting on such proposition approve of the proposition, then the court shall, in such order declaring the result of the election, enter a further order declaring the decree of incorporation to be final and conclusive. In the event, however, that the court should find that the question had not been assented to by the majority required above, the court shall enter a further order declaring such decree of incorporation to be void and of no effect. No appeal shall lie from any such decree of incorporation nor from any of the aforesaid orders. In the event that the court declares the decree of incorporation to be final, as herein provided for, the clerk of the circuit court shall file certified copies of such decree of incorporation and of such final order with the secretary of state, and with the recorder of deeds of the county or counties in which the district is situated and with the clerk of the county commission of the county or counties in which the district is situated.

8. The costs incurred in the formation of the district shall be taxed to the district, if the district be incorporated otherwise against the petitioners.

9. If petitioners seeking formation of a reorganized common sewer district specify in their petition that the district to be organized shall be organized without authority to issue general obligation bonds, then the decree relating to the formation of the district shall recite that the district shall not have authority to issue general obligation bonds and the vote required for such a decree of incorporation to become final and conclusive shall be a simple majority of the voters of the district voting on such proposition.

10. Once a reorganized sewer district is established, the boundaries of any reorganized sewer district may be extended or enlarged from time to time upon the filing, with the clerk of the circuit court having jurisdiction, a petition by either:

(1) The board of trustees of the reorganized sewer district and five or more voters within the territory proposed to be added to the district; or

(2) A majority of the landowners within the territory which is proposed to be added to the reorganized sewer district.

If the petition is filed by a majority of the landowners within the territory proposed to be added to the reorganized sewer district, the publication of notice shall not be required, provided notice is posted in three public places within the territory proposed to be added to the reorganized sewer district at least seven days before the date of the hearing and provided that there is sworn testimony by at least five landowners in the territory proposed to be added to the reorganized sewer district, or a majority of the landowners, if the total landowners in the area are fewer than ten. Otherwise the procedures for notice shall substantially follow those set out in this section, for formation. Territory proposed to be added to the reorganized sewer district may either be contiguous or reasonably close to the boundaries of the existing district. Upon the entry of a final judgment declaring the court's decree of territory proposed to be added to the reorganized sewer district to be final and conclusive, the court shall modify or rearrange the boundary lines of the reorganized sewer district as may be necessary or advisable. The costs incurred in the enlargement or extension of the district shall be taxed to the district, if the district be enlarged or extended, otherwise against the petitioners; provided, however, that no costs shall be taxed to the trustees of the district.

11. Should any property owner or property owners who own real estate that is not within another sewer district organized pursuant to this chapter, chapters 247 and 249, RSMo, or pursuant to the state constitution, but that is contiguous or reasonably close to the existing boundaries of the reorganized sewer district, desire to have such real estate incorporated in the district, the property owner shall first petition the board of trustees thereof for its approval. If such approval be granted, the secretary of the board shall endorse a certificate of the fact of approval by the board upon the petition. The petition so endorsed shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court in which the reorganized sewer district is incorporated. It shall then be the duty of the court to amend the boundaries of such district by a decree incorporating the real estate in the same. A certified copy of this amended decree including the real estate in the district shall then be filed in the office of the recorder and in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the real estate is located, and in the office of the secretary of state. The costs of this proceeding shall be borne by the petitioning property owner.

12. The board of trustees of any reorganized common sewer district may petition the circuit court of the county containing the majority of the acreage in the district for an amended decree of incorporation to allow that district to engage in the construction, maintenance and operation of water supply and distribution facilities which serve ten or more separate properties which are located wholly within the district and are not served by another political subdivision or are not located within the certificated area of a water corporation as defined in chapter 386, RSMo, or within a public water supply district as defined in chapter 247, RSMo, and the operation and maintenance of all such existing water supply facilities. The petition shall be filed by the board of trustees and all proceedings shall be in substantially the same manner as in action for initial formation of a reorganized common sewer district except that no vote of the residents of the district shall be required. All applicable provisions of this chapter shall apply to the construction, operation and maintenance of water supply facilities in the same manner as they apply to like functions relating to sewer treatment facilities.

204.610. 1. Any existing common sewer district organized and existing pursuant to sections 204.250 to 204.270 and any sewer district organized and existing pursuant to chapter 249, RSMo, may establish itself as a reorganized common sewer district pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700 by petitioning the circuit court of the county in which it was established to approve its reorganization pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700 if the governing body of the district has by resolution determined that it is in the best interest of the district to reorganize pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700. Such petition shall also specify whether the board of trustees shall be appointed by the governing body of the county, or elected by the voters of the district. Such petition shall be accompanied by a cash deposit of fifty dollars as an advancement of the costs of the proceeding, and the petition shall be signed by the trustees of the district and shall pray for the conversion of the district into a reorganized common sewer district.

2. Upon the filing of the petition, the same shall be presented to the circuit court, and such court shall fix a date for a hearing on such petition, as herein provided for. Thereupon the clerk of the court shall give notice of the filing of the petition in a newspaper of general circulation within the existing district or closest to the existing district if there is no newspaper of general circulation within the existing district and if the existing district extends into any other county or counties, such notice shall also be published in some newspaper of general circulation in such other county or counties. The notice shall contain a description of the boundary lines of the existing district and the general purposes of the petition, and shall set forth the date fixed for the hearing on the petition, which shall not be less than fifteen nor more than twenty-one days after the date of the last publication of the notice and shall be on some regular judicial day of the court wherein the petition is pending. Such notice shall be signed by the clerk of the circuit court and shall be published in three successive issues of a weekly newspaper or in a daily paper once a week for three consecutive weeks.

3. The court, for good cause shown, may continue the case or the hearing thereon from time to time until final disposition thereof.

4. Exceptions to the conversion of an existing district to a reorganized common sewer district, may be made by any voter or property owner within the proposed district; provided, such exceptions are filed not less than five days prior to the date set for the hearing on the petition. Such exceptions shall specify the grounds upon which the exceptions are being made. If any such exceptions be filed, the court shall take them into consideration in passing upon the petition and shall also consider the evidence in support of the petition and in support of the exceptions made. Should the court find that it would not be in the public interest to form such a district, the petition shall be dismissed at the costs of the petitioners. If the court finds that the conversion of the district to a reorganized common sewer district pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700 is in the best interests of the persons served by the existing district, then the court shall order the district's decree of incorporation amended to permit reorganization pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700 and the existing board of trustees for such district shall continue to serve the reorganized common sewer district until such time as new trustees shall be appointed or elected as provided for in the court's decree. If their original terms of office are not so designated, the court shall designate such trustees to staggered terms from one to five years such that one trustee is appointed or elected each year. The trustees thus appointed by the court shall serve for the terms thus designated and until their successors shall have been appointed or elected as provided in section 204.625. The decree shall further designate the name of the district by which it shall be officially known.

204.615. The bonded indebtedness or security interest of any creditor of any common sewer district originally organized and existing pursuant to sections 204.250 to 204.270 and any sewer district originally organized and existing pursuant to chapter 249, RSMo, which convert to a reorganized common sewer district shall not be impaired or affected by such conversion and all covenants and obligations of such indebtedness shall remain in full force and effect payable pursuant to the terms and conditions which existed without conversion.

204.620. 1. When a decree or amended decree of incorporation is issued as provided for in sections 204.600 to 204.700, a reorganized common sewer district shall be considered in law and equity a body corporate and politic and political subdivision of this state, known by the name specified in the court's decree, and by that name and style may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, acquire and hold real estate and personal property necessary for corporate purposes, and adopt a common seal. A reorganized common sewer district also shall have exclusive jurisdiction and authority to provide wastewater collection and treatment services within the boundaries of the district with respect to any wastewater service provider authorized to provide sewer services pursuant to the laws of this state.

2. All courts in this state shall take judicial notice of the existence of any district organized pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700.

204.625. 1. There shall be five trustees, appointed or elected as provided for in the circuit court decree or amended decree of incorporation for a reorganized common sewer district, who shall reside within the boundaries of the district. Each trustee shall be a voter of the district and shall have resided in said district one whole year immediately prior to his/her election or appointment. A trustee shall be at least twenty-five years of age and shall not be delinquent in the payment of taxes at the time of his or her election or appointment. Regardless of whether or not the trustees are elected or appointed, in the event the district extends into any county bordering the county in which the greater portion of the district lies, the presiding commissioner or other chief executive officer of the adjoining county shall be an additional member of the board of trustees, or the governing body of such bordering county may appoint a citizen from such county to serve as an additional member of the board of trustees. Said additional trustee shall meet the qualifications set forth above for a trustee.

2. The trustees shall receive no compensation for their services, but may be compensated for their reasonable expenses normally incurred in the performance of their duties. The board of trustees may employ and fix the compensation of such staff as may be necessary to discharge the business and purposes of the district, including clerks, attorneys, administrative assistants, and any other necessary personnel. The board of trustees may employ and fix the duties and compensation of an administrator for the district. The administrator shall be the chief executive officer of the district subject to the supervision and direction of the board of trustees. The administrator of the district may, with the approval of the board of trustees, retain consulting engineers for the district under such terms and conditions as may be necessary to discharge the business and purposes of the district.

3. Except as provided in subsection 1 of this section, the term of office of a trustee shall be five years. The remaining trustees shall appoint a person qualified pursuant to this section to fill any vacancy on the board. The initial trustees appointed by the circuit court shall serve until the immediately following first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or until the immediately following first Tuesday after the first Monday in April, depending upon the resolution of the trustees. In the event that the trustees are elected, said elections shall be conducted by the appropriate election authority pursuant to chapter 115, RSMo. Otherwise, trustees shall be appointed by the county commission in accordance with the qualifications set forth in subsection 1 of this section.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if there is only one candidate for the post of trustee, then no election shall be held, and the candidate shall assume the responsibilities of office at the same time and in the same manner as if elected. If there is no candidate for the post of trustee, then no election shall be held for that post and it shall be considered vacant, to be filled pursuant to the provisions of subsection 3 of this section.

204.630. The board of trustees of a reorganized common sewer district shall have no power to levy or collect any taxes for the payment of any general obligation bond indebtedness incurred by the reorganized common sewer district unless and until the voters of the reorganized common sewer district shall have authorized the incurring of indebtedness at an election. All expenses and indebtedness incurred by the reorganized common sewer district may be paid out of funds which may be received by the reorganized common sewer district from the sale of bonds authorized by the voters of the reorganized common sewer district.

204.635. 1. The total amount of any general obligation bonds issued by the reorganized common sewer district shall not exceed ten percent of the assessed valuation of all taxable tangible property, as shown by the last completed property assessment for state or local purposes, within the reorganized common sewer district.

2. Such bonds shall be signed by the president of the board of trustees and attested by the signature of the secretary of the board of trustees with the seal of the district affixed thereto, if there be a seal. The interest coupons may be executed by affixing thereon the facsimile signature of the secretary of the district. The bonds may be sold under the same conditions as are provided for the sale of county road bonds.

3. All general obligation bonds issued pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700 shall be registered in the office of the state auditor as provided by law for the registration of bonds of cities and in the office of the secretary of the board of trustees of the district in a book kept for that purpose for registry, shall show the number, date, amount, date of sale, name of the purchaser, and the amount for which the bond was sold. The moneys of the reorganized common sewer district shall be deposited by the treasurer of the reorganized common sewer district in such bank or banks as shall be designated by order of the board of trustees and the secretary of the reorganized common sewer district shall charge the treasurer therewith and the moneys shall be drawn from the treasury upon checks or warrants issued by the reorganized common sewer district for the purposes for which the bonds were issued.

204.640. 1. The board of trustees of any reorganized common sewer district shall have power to pass all necessary rules and regulations for the proper management and conduct of the business of the board of trustees, and of the district, and for carrying into effect the objects for which the reorganized common sewer district is formed.

2. The board of trustees of a reorganized common sewer district, subject to compliance with the exercise of lawful authority granted to or rules adopted by the clean water commission pursuant to section 644.026, RSMo, may exercise primary authority to adopt, modify, and repeal, and to administer and enforce rules and regulations with respect to:

(1) The establishment, construction, reconstruction, improvement, repair, operation, and maintenance of its sewer systems and treatment facilities;

(2) Industrial users discharging into its sewer systems or treatment facilities;

(3) The establishment, operation, administration, and enforcement of a publicly owned treatment works pretreatment program consistent with state and federal pretreatment standards, including inspection, monitoring, sampling, permitting, and reporting programs and activities.

The board of trustees may, in addition to any pretreatment standards imposed pursuant to this section, require of any user of its treatment facilities such other pretreatment of industrial wastes as it deems necessary to adequately treat such wastes.

3. The rules and regulations adopted by the board of trustees pursuant to subsection 2 of this section shall be applicable, and enforceable by civil, administrative or other actions within any territory served by its sewer systems or treatment facilities and against any municipality, subdistrict, district, or industrial user who shall directly or indirectly discharge sewage or permit discharge of sewage into the district's sewer system or treatment facilities.

4. The authority granted to the board by this section is in addition to and not in derogation of any other authority granted pursuant to the constitution and laws of Missouri, any federal water pollution control act, or the rules of any agency of federal or state government.

5. The term "industrial user", as used in this section shall mean any nondomestic source of discharge or indirect discharge into the district's wastewater system which is regulated pursuant to section 307(b), (c), or (d) of the Clean Water Act, or any source listed in division A, B, D, E, or I of the Standard Industrial Classification

Manual, or any solid waste disposal operation such as, but not limited to, landfills, recycling facilities, solid or hazardous waste handling or disposal facilities, and facilities which store or treat aqueous wastes as generated by facilities not located on site and which dispose of these wastes by discharging them into the district's wastewater system.

204.645. 1. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees of a reorganized common sewer district to make the necessary surveys, and to lay out and define the general plan for the construction and acquisition of land, rights-of-way and necessary sewers and treatment facilities and of any extensions, expansions, or improvements thereof within the district.

2. The board of trustees of a reorganized common sewer district may enter into agreements with each municipality, subdistrict, private district, or any industrial user which discharges sewage into trunk sewers, streams, or the treatment facilities of the reorganized common sewer district concerning the locations and the manner in which sewage may be discharged into the district system or streams within the district and concerning the permissible content of acid wastes, alkaline wastes, poisonous wastes, oils, grit, or other wastes which might be hazardous or detrimental to the system. If no agreement is obtained with regard to any such matter the trustees shall refer the dispute to the clean water commission and the determination of the commission shall be binding upon the district, municipality, subdistrict, or private district. Each municipality, subdistrict, or private district shall control the discharge of wastes into its collection sewers to the extent necessary to comply with the agreement or the determination of the clean water commission. The board of trustees of a reorganized common sewer district or the governing body of any municipality, subdistrict, private district, or industrial user discharging sewage into the stream or the system may petition the circuit court which decreed the incorporation of the district for an order enforcing compliance with any provision of such an agreement or determination, and that circuit court shall have jurisdiction in all cases or questions arising out of the organization or operations of the district, or from the acts of the board of trustees.

3. The board of trustees may contract with each participating community for the payment of its proportionate share of treatment costs.

4. However, if such an area is located within the boundaries of an existing common sewer district or reorganized common sewer district organized and existing pursuant to this chapter, a sewer district organized and existing pursuant to chapter 249, RSMo, or a public water supply district organized pursuant to chapter 247, RSMo, the board of trustees must give written notice to said district before such a contract is entered into, and the district must consent to said contract.

5. The board of trustees may refuse to receive any wastes into the sewage system which do not meet relevant state or federal water pollution, solid waste, or pretreatment standards.

6. The board of trustees shall have all of the powers necessary and convenient to provide for the operation, maintenance, administration, and regulation, including the adoption of rules and regulations, of any individual home sewage or business treatment systems within the jurisdiction of the common sewer district. The board of trustees shall have the authority to declare the violation of any of its rules and regulations to be a misdemeanor punishable as provided by law, or to declare violation of any of its rules and regulations punishable by imposition of a civil fine not to exceed one thousand dollars per day payable to the common sewer district, in addition to any other civil remedy which may be available at law or in equity.

7. The board of trustees shall have all of the powers necessary and convenient to provide for the operation and maintenance of its treatment facilities and the administration, regulation, and enforcement of its pretreatment program, including the adoption of rules and regulations, to carry out its powers with respect to all municipalities, subdistricts, districts, and industrial users which discharge into the collection system of the district's sewer system or treatment facilities. These powers include, but are not limited to:

- (1) The promulgation of any rule, regulation, or ordinance;
- (2) The issuance, modification, or revocation of any order;
- (3) The issuance, modification, or revocation of any permit;
- (4) The levying of a civil administrative fine upon any industrial user in violation of the district's rules, regulations, and ordinances, or any permit or order issued thereunder, in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation per day;
- (5) Commencing an action through counsel for appropriate legal or equitable relief in the circuit court which decreed the district's incorporation against any industrial user in violation of the district's rules, regulations, and ordinances or any permit or order issued thereunder; and

(6) Petitioning the prosecutor for the county in which any criminal violation of the district's rules, regulations, ordinances, or any permit or order issued thereunder has occurred to institute criminal proceedings.

8. The board of trustees may adopt rules and regulations creating procedural remedies for all persons affected by any order or permit issued, modified, or revoked or any fine or penalty levied by the board including but not limited to the grant of reasonable time periods for such persons to respond, to show cause, and to request reconsideration of fines or penalties levied.

9. Any person who knowingly makes any false statements, representations, or certifications in any application, record, report, plan, or other document filed or required to be maintained pursuant to the district's rules, regulations, ordinances, or wastewater permit, or who falsifies, tampers with, or knowingly renders inaccurate any monitoring device or method required under the district's rules, regulations, or ordinances shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars per violation per day. In the event of a second violation, the person shall be fined not to exceed three thousand dollars per violation per day. Third or subsequent violations of this subsection are punishable as a class D felony.

10. Whenever any reference is made in this section to any action that may be taken by the board of trustees, such reference includes such action by its executive officer pursuant to powers and duties delegated to such executive officer by the board of trustees.

204.650. 1. The board of trustees may acquire by purchase, gift, or condemnation or may lease or rent any real or personal property and when condemnation is used shall follow the procedure that is provided by chapter 523, RSMo. All the powers may be exercised both within or without the district as may be necessary for the exercise of its powers or the accomplishment of its purposes. The board of trustees shall also have the same authority to enter upon private lands to survey land or other property before exercise of the above condemnation powers as is granted pursuant to section 388.210, RSMo, to railroad corporations.

2. The board of trustees of the reorganized common sewer district, if it is necessary to cross, follow, or traverse public streets, roads, or alleys, or grounds held or used as public parks or places, shall have the right to do so upon the following conditions: The board of trustees shall file with the county commission or mayor of the municipality having immediate jurisdiction over the street, road, alley, or public park or place, a map showing the location and extent of the proposed occupancy for sewerage purposes and a plan of the proposed facilities, which plan shall be so made and arranged as not to interfere with the ordinary and lawful use of the street, road, alley, public park, or place, except during a reasonable time for the construction of the necessary works.

3. The entire expense of the works and restoration of the ground occupied to its former condition, as near as may be, shall be borne by the reorganized common sewer district.

204.655. 1. The board of trustees for the reorganized common sewer district shall let contracts for all work to be done, excepting in case of repairs or emergencies requiring prompt attention, in the construction of sewers and sewage treatment plants, the expense of which will exceed twenty-five thousand dollars, to the lowest responsible bidder therefor, upon not less than twenty days' notice of the letting, given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the district. The board shall have the power and authority to reject any and all bids and readvertise the work.

2. The board of trustees shall also have the power to enter into agreements with persons, firms for providing professional services required of the board and the board shall adopt policies for procuring the services of such professionals. The provisions of sections 8.285 to 8.291, RSMo, shall be applicable to the services of architects, engineers and land surveyors unless the board of trustees adopts a formal procedure for the procurement of such services.

204.660. The cost of any reorganized common sewer district of acquiring, constructing, improving or extending a sewerage system may be met:

(1) Through the expenditures by the common sewer district of any funds available for that purpose, including temporary or interim financing funds obtained through any federal or state loan program or from a local lending institution;

(2) From any other funds which may be obtained pursuant to any law of the state or of the United States or from any county or municipality for that purpose; or

(3) From the proceeds of revenue bonds of the common sewer district, payable solely from the revenues to be derived from the operation of such sewerage system or from any combination of all the methods of providing funds.

(4) From the proceeds of general obligation bonds of the reorganized common sewer district, payable solely from voter approved property taxes as provided for by law.

(5) From the proceeds of special obligation bonds of the reorganized common sewer district, payable solely from special fees or other revenues received by the district pledged for the purposes of payment of such bonds.

(6) From the proceeds of user fees, charges, or other imposition for facilities and services provided by the district to its customers and users or the availability of services provided to persons, users, and customers within the district or who otherwise benefit from services provided by the district.

204.665. 1. A reorganized common sewer district may issue general or special revenue bonds authorized by authority of a resolution adopted by the board of trustees of the reorganized common sewer district unless in addition thereto the decree or amended decree of incorporation shall require any such bonds to be approved by the voters of the district after election called for that purpose. The resolution shall recite that an estimate of the cost of the proposed acquisition, construction, improvement, extension or other project has been made and shall set out the estimated cost; it shall set out the amount of the bonds proposed to be issued, their purposes, their dates, denominations, rates of interest, times of payment, both of principal and of interest, places of payment, and all other details in connection with the bonds.

2. The bonds may be subject to such provision for redemption prior to maturity, with or without premium, and at such times and upon such conditions as may be provided by the board of trustees of the common sewer district.

3. The bonds shall bear interest at a rate in accordance with section 108.170, RSMo, and shall mature over a period not exceeding thirty-five years from the date thereof.

4. The bonds may be payable to bearer, may be registered or coupon bonds, and if payable to bearer may contain such registration privileges as to either principal and interest, or principal only, as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the bonds.

5. The bonds and the coupons to be attached thereto, if any, shall be signed in such manner and by such officers as may be directed by resolution. Bonds signed by an officer who shall hold the office at the time the bonds are signed shall be deemed validly and effectually signed for all purposes, regardless of whether or not any officer shall cease to hold his office prior to the delivery of the bonds and regardless of whether or not any officer shall have held or shall not have held such office on the date ascribed to the bonds.

6. The bonds shall be sold in such manner and upon such terms as the board of trustees of the reorganized common sewer district shall determine, but the bonds shall not be sold for less than ninety cents on the dollar nor shall they be sold at such a price that the interest cost upon the actual proceeds of the bonds from the date thereof to their maturity shall exceed a rate in accordance with section 108.170, RSMo. The resolution may provide that certain bonds authorized thereby shall be junior or subordinate in any or all respects to other revenue bonds authorized concurrently therewith or prior to or after such bonds.

204.670. Any user fees or charges, connection fees, or other charges levied by the reorganized common sewer district for purposes of funding its general or special operations, maintenance, or payment of bonded indebtedness or other indebtedness shall be due at such time or times as specified by the reorganized common sewer district, and shall, if not paid by the due date, become delinquent and shall bear interest from the date of delinquency until paid. In addition to and consistent with any other provision of applicable law, if such fees or charges or other amounts due become delinquent, they shall be a lien upon the land charged, upon the reorganized common sewer district filing with the recorder of deeds in the county where the land is situated a notice of delinquency. The reorganized common sewer district shall file with the recorder of deeds a similar notice of satisfaction of debt when the delinquent amounts, plus interest and any recording fees or attorneys' fees, have been paid in full. The lien hereby created may be enforced by foreclosure by power of sale hereby vested in the reorganized common district if the reorganized common sewer district adopts written rules for the exercise of power of sale consistent with the provisions of sections 443.290 to 443.325, RSMo, which are recorded in the land records of the office of the recorder of deeds in each county in which the district is located; otherwise such lien shall be enforced by suit in the circuit court having jurisdiction against the property subject to the lien for judicial foreclosure and sale by special execution; such suit may include a request for judgment against the persons responsible for payment of such delinquency as well as the person or persons owning the property to which services were provided, if different, including post-sale deficiency, and as a part of the relief, may include award of the district's reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and other expenses reasonably incurred by the district for collection.

204.675. It shall be the mandatory duty of any reorganized common sewer district which shall issue any general or special revenue bonds pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700:

(1) To fix and maintain rates and make and collect charges for the use and services of the system, for the benefit of which revenue bonds were issued, sufficient to pay the cost of maintenance and operation thereof;

(2) To pay the principal of and the interest on all revenue bonds issued by the reorganized common sewer district chargeable to the revenues of the system; and

(3) To provide funds ample to meet all valid and reasonable requirements of the resolution by which the revenue bonds have been issued.

The rates shall be from time to time revised so as fully to meet the requirements of sections 204.600 to 204.700. As long as any bond so issued or the interest thereon shall remain outstanding and unpaid, rates and charges sufficient to meet the requirements of this section shall be maintained and collected by the reorganized common sewer district which issued the bonds.

204.680. 1. Whenever any reorganized common sewer district authorizes and issues revenue bonds pursuant to sections 204.600 to 204.700, an amount sufficient for the purpose of the net revenues of the sewerage system for the benefit of which the bonds are issued shall, by operation of sections 204.600 to 204.700, be pledged to the payment of the principal of and the interest on the bonds as the same shall mature and accrue.

2. The term "net revenues" shall be construed to mean all income and revenues derived from the ownership and operation of the system less the actual and necessary expenses of operation and maintenance of the system.

3. It shall be the mandatory duty of the treasurer of the reorganized common sewer district to provide for the prompt payment of the principal and interest on any revenue bonds as they mature and accrue.

204.685. 1. The resolution of the board of trustees of the reorganized common sewer district authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds pursuant to the authority of sections 204.600 to 204.700 may provide that periodic allocations of the revenues to be derived from the operation of the system for the benefit of which the bonds are issued shall be made into such accounts, separate and apart from any other accounts of the district, as shall be deemed to be advisable to assure the proper operation and maintenance of the system and the prompt payment of the indebtedness chargeable to the revenues of the system. The accounts may include, but shall not be limited to:

- (1) An account for the purpose of providing funds for the operation and maintenance of the system;
- (2) An account to provide funds for the payment of the bonds as to principal and interest as they come due;
- (3) An account to provide an adequate reserve for depreciation, to be expended for replacements of the system;
- (4) An account for the accumulation of a reserve to assure the prompt payment of the bonds and the interest thereon whenever and to the extent that other funds are not available for the purpose;
- (5) An account to provide funds for contingent expenses in the operation of the system;
- (6) An account to provide for the accumulation of funds for the construction of extensions and improvements to the system; and
- (7) Such other accounts as may be desirable in the judgment of the board of trustees.

2. The resolution may also establish such limitations as may be expedient upon the issuance of additional bonds, payable from the revenues of the system, or upon the rights of the holders of such additional bonds. Such resolution may include other agreements with the holders of the bonds or covenants or restrictions necessary or desirable to safeguard the interests of the bondholder and to secure the payment of the bonds and the interest thereon.

204.690. For the purpose of refunding, extending and unifying the whole or any part of any valid outstanding bonded indebtedness payable from the revenues of a sewerage system, any reorganized common sewer district may issue refunding bonds not exceeding in amount the principal of the outstanding indebtedness to be refunded and the accrued interest to the date of the refunding bonds. The board of trustees of the reorganized common sewer district shall provide for the payment of interest at not to exceed the same rate and the principal of the refunding bonds in the same manner and from the same source as was provided for the payment of interest on and principal of the bonds to be refunded.

204.695. The board of trustees of the reorganized common sewer district may apply for and accept grants or funds, material or labor, from the state and federal government, or any departments thereof, in the construction of a sewerage system as provided by sections 204.600 to 204.700, and may enter into such agreements as may be required of the state or federal laws, or the rules and regulations of any federal or state department, to which the application is made, and where the assistance is granted.

204.700. It is hereby made the duty of the mayors of cities, the circuit court, the governing bodies of counties, all political subdivisions and all assessors, sheriffs, collectors, treasurers and other officials in the state of Missouri to do and perform all the acts and to render all the services necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 204.600 to 204.700.

204.705. Sections 204.705 to 204.755 shall be known and may be cited as the "Sanitary Sewer Improvement Area Act", and the following words and terms, as used in these sections, mean:

(1) "Acquire", the acquisition of property or interests in property by purchase, gift, condemnation or other lawful means and may include the acquisition of existing property and improvements already owned by the district;

(2) "Assess" or "assessment", a unit of measure to allocate the cost of an improvement among property or properties within a sanitary sewer improvement area based upon an equitable method of determining benefits to any such property resulting from an improvement;

(3) "Consultant", engineers, architects, planners, attorneys, financial advisors, accountants, investment bankers and other persons deemed competent to advise and assist the governing body of the district in planning and making improvements;

(a) To acquire property or interests in property when necessary or desirable for any purpose authorized by sections 204.705 to 204.755;

(b) To improve sanitary sewers, wastewater treatment plants, lagoons, septic tanks and systems and any and all other sanitary sewer and waste water collection and treatments systems of any type, whether located on improved or unimproved public or private property, the general object and nature of which will either preserve, maintain, improve or promote the general public health, safety and welfare, or the environment, regardless of technology used;

(8) "Sanitary sewer improvement area", an area of a district with defined limits and boundaries which is created by petition pursuant to sections 204.705 to 204.755 and which is benefited by an improvement and subject to assessments against the real property therein for the cost of the improvement;

(9) "User fee", a fee established and imposed by a district for payment of an assessment in periodic installments to pay for improvements made in a sanitary sewer improvement area which benefit the property within such area that is subject to the assessment.

204.710. As an alternative to all other methods provided by law or charter, the board of trustees of any sewer district or reorganized sewer district organized and operated pursuant to this chapter or chapter 249, RSMo, or any metropolitan sewer district organized pursuant to the constitution of this state, may make, or cause to be made, improvements which confer a benefit upon property within a sanitary sewer improvement area pursuant to sections 204.705 to 204.755. The board of trustees of such district may incur indebtedness and issue temporary notes and general or special revenue bonds pursuant to sections 204.705 to 204.755 to pay for all or part of the cost of such improvements. An improvement may be combined with one or more other improvements for the purpose of issuing a single series of general or special revenue bonds to pay all or part of the cost of said area's improvements, but separate funds or accounts shall be established within the records of the district for each improvement project as provided in sections 204.705 to 204.755. Such district shall make assessments and may impose user fees on the property deemed by the board of trustees to be benefited by each such improvement project pursuant to in addition to any other fees or charges imposed by the district for provision of services or payment of debt. The district shall use the moneys collected from such assessments and user fees to reimburse the district for all amounts paid or to be paid by it as principal of and interest on its temporary notes and general or special revenue bonds issued for such improvements.

204.715. 1. To establish a sanitary sewer improvement area, the governing body of the sewer district shall comply with the following procedure: the governing body of the district may create a sanitary sewer improvement area when a proper petition has been signed by four-sevenths of the owners of record within such proposed area. The petition, in order to become effective, shall be filed with the district. A proper petition for the creation of a sanitary sewer improvement area shall set forth the project name for the proposed improvement, the general nature of the proposed improvement, the estimated cost of such improvement, the boundaries of the proposed sanitary sewer subdistrict, the proposed method or methods of financing the project including the estimated amount of and method for imposing user fees against the real property within the district to pay for the cost of the improvements and any bonds issued therefor, a notice that the names of the signers may not be withdrawn later than seven days after the petition is filed with the district, and a notice that the final cost of such improvement and the amount of revenue bonds issued therefor shall not exceed the estimated cost of such improvement, as stated in such petition, by more than twenty-five percent.

2. Upon the filing of a proper petition with the district, the governing body may by resolution or ordinance determine the advisability of the improvement and may order that the area be established and that preliminary plans and specifications for the improvement be made. Such resolution or ordinance shall state and make findings as to the project name for the proposed improvement, the nature of the improvement, the estimated cost of such improvement, the boundaries of the sanitary sewer improvement area, the proposed method or methods of imposing assessments and, if known, proposed estimated user fees within the district, and shall also state that the final cost of such improvement within the sanitary sewer improvement area and the amount of general or special revenue bonds issued therefor shall not, without a new petition, exceed the estimated cost of such improvement by more than twenty-five percent.

3. The boundaries of the proposed area shall be described by metes and bounds, streets or other sufficiently specific description.

204.720. The portion of the cost of any improvement to be assessed or imposed against the real property in a sanitary sewer improvement area shall be apportioned against such property in accordance with the benefits accruing thereto by reason of such improvement. Subject to the provisions of the Farmland Protection Act, sections 262.800 to 262.810, RSMo, the cost may be assessed equally by lot or tract, against property within the area, or by any other reasonable assessment plan determined by the board of trustees of the district which results in imposing substantially equal burdens or share of the cost upon property similarly benefited. The board of trustees of the district may from time to time determine and establish by ordinance or resolution reasonable general classifications and formula for the methods of assessing or determining the benefits.

204.725. 1. After the board of trustees has made the findings specified in sections 204.705 to 204.755 and plans and specifications for the proposed improvements have been prepared, the board of trustees shall by ordinance or resolution order assessments to be made against each parcel of real property deemed to be benefited by an improvement based on the revised estimated cost of the improvement or, if available, the final cost thereof, and shall order a proposed assessment roll to be prepared.

2. The plans and specifications for the improvement and the proposed assessment roll shall be filed with the district and shall be open for public inspection. Such district shall thereupon, at the direction of the board of trustees, publish notice that the board of trustees will conduct a hearing to consider the proposed improvement and proposed assessments. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation at least once not more than twenty days before the hearing and shall state the project name for the improvement, the date, time and place of such hearing, the general nature of the improvement, the revised estimated cost or, if available, the final cost of the improvement, the boundaries of the sanitary sewer improvement area to be assessed, and that written or oral objections will be considered at the hearing. At the same time, the district shall mail to the owners of record of the real property made liable to pay the assessments, at their last known post office address, a notice of the hearing and a statement of the cost proposed to be assessed against the real property so owned and assessed. The failure of any owner to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceedings.

204.730. 1. At the hearing to consider the proposed improvements and assessments, the board of trustees or their designated representative shall hear and pass upon all objections to the proposed improvements and proposed assessments, if any, and may amend the proposed improvements, and the plans and specifications therefor, or assessments as to any property, and thereupon by ordinance or resolution the board of trustees shall order that the improvement be made and direct that financing for the cost thereof be obtained as provided in sections 204.705 to 204.755.

2. After the improvement has been completed in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor, the board of trustees shall compute the final costs of the improvement and apportion the costs among the property benefited by such improvement in such equitable manner as the board of trustees shall determine, charging each tract, lot or parcel of property with its proportionate share of the costs, and by resolution or ordinance, assess the final cost of the improvement, or the amount of general or special revenue bonds issued or to be issued to pay for the improvement, as special assessments against the property described in the assessment roll.

3. After the passage or adoption of the ordinance or resolution assessing the special assessments, the district shall mail a notice to each property owner within the district which sets forth a description of each tract, lot or parcel of real property to be assessed which is owned by such owner, the assessment assigned to such property, and a statement that the property owner may pay such assessment in full, together with interest accrued thereon from the effective date of such ordinance or resolution, on or before a specified date determined by the effective date of the ordinance or resolution, or may pay such assessment in the form of user fees in periodic installments as provided in subsection 4 of this section. Notice of each assessment and imposition of the assessment lien together with a legal description for each property assessed within the area shall be filed with the recorder of deeds upon the effective date of the ordinance or resolution, but failure to timely record any such notice shall not affect the validity of the assessments or liens thereunder. The district shall record written notice of release of lien whenever an assessment is paid in full; the cost of recording assessment notices and release of liens shall be included in the assessment.

4. The special assessments shall be assessed upon the property within the area and those not paid in full as provided in subsection 3 of this section shall be payable in the form of user fees payable in periodic and substantially equal installments as determined by the district for a duration prescribed by the resolution or ordinance establishing the special assessments. All assessments shall bear interest at such rate as the board of trustees determines, not to exceed the rate permitted for bonds by section 108.170, RSMo. Interest on the assessment between the effective date of the ordinance or resolution assessing the special assessments and the date the first installment of a user fee is payable shall be added to the first installment or prorated among all scheduled installments.

5. Assessments not paid in full shall be collected and paid over to the district in the form of user fees in the same manner as other district fees and charges are collected and paid, or by any other reasonable method determined by the district.

204.735. No suit to set aside the assessments made pursuant to sections 204.705 to 204.755 or to otherwise question the validity of the proceedings relating thereto shall be brought after the expiration of ninety days from the date of mailing of notice to the last known owners of record of the assessments required by sections 204.705 to 204.755.

204.740. 1. To correct omissions, errors or mistakes in the original assessment which relate to the total cost of an improvement, the board of trustees of the district may, without a notice or hearing, make supplemental or additional assessments on property within a sanitary sewer improvement area, except that such supplemental or additional assessments shall not, without a new petition as provided in sections 204.705 to 204.755, exceed twenty-five percent of the estimated cost of the improvement as set forth in the petition pursuant to the provisions of sections 204.705 to 204.755.

2. When an assessment is, for any reason whatever, set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction as to any property, or in the event the board of trustees finds that the assessment or any part thereof is excessive or determines on advice of counsel in writing that it is or may be invalid for any reason, the board of trustees may, upon notice and hearing as provided for the original assessment, make a reassessment or a new assessment as to such property.

204.745. An assessment authorized pursuant to sections 204.705 to 204.755, once determined and imposed, shall constitute a lien against such property until paid in full and shall not be affected by the existence or enforcement of any other liens or encumbrances, nor shall enforcement of an assessment lien have any effect on the validity or enforcement of any tax lien or lien established by mortgage or deed of trust. An assessment lien becomes delinquent when an assessment is not paid in full as prescribed by sections 204.705 to 204.755 or when one or more periodic installments imposed by the district for an assessment remain unpaid for a period of thirty days or more after notice of delinquency in payment is mailed to the last known owners of the property subject to assessment by regular United States mail and by certified mail, return receipt requested, at their last known address provided by such owners to the district and to the occupant of property which is subject to assessment, if different from that of the owners. In the event any such user fee remains unpaid after thirty days of the mailing of any such notice, and in addition to any other remedy the district may have by statute or duly enacted regulation for the collection of delinquent amounts owed to the district, the district shall be entitled to petition the circuit court having jurisdiction to foreclose upon the assessment lien by special execution sale of the property subject to the assessment for the unpaid assessment plus reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and other reasonable costs incurred by the district in collection. In any such suit, the district shall name all parties appearing of record to have or claim an interest in the property subject to the unpaid assessment and shall file a notice of lis pendens in connection with said action; in addition, the district may obtain a judgment against last known owners of the property for any deficiency in payment of the assessment and costs and fees made a part of the court's judgment.

204.750. After an improvement has been authorized pursuant to sections 204.705 to 204.755, the board of trustees of the district may issue temporary notes of the district to pay the costs of such improvement in an amount not to exceed the estimated cost of such improvement, and such temporary notes may be issued in anticipation of issuance of general or special revenue bonds of the district. The district may participate in any governmentally sponsored bond pooling program or other bond program. Bonds may be issued and made payable from general revenues of the area or district, or from special revenues from designated properties within an area.

204.755. A separate fund or account shall be created by the district for each improvement project and each such fund or account shall be identified by a suitable title. The proceeds from the sale of bonds and temporary notes and any other moneys appropriated thereto by the board of trustees of the district shall be credited to such funds or accounts. Such funds or accounts shall be used solely to pay the costs incurred in making each respective improvement. Upon completion of an improvement, the balance remaining in the fund or account established for such improvement, if any, may be held as contingent funds for future improvements or may be credited against the amount of the original assessment of each parcel of property, on a pro rata basis based on the amount of the original assessment, and with respect to property owners that have prepaid their assessments in accordance with sections 204.705 to 204.755, the amount of each such credit shall be refunded to the appropriate property owner, and with respect to all other property owners, the amount of each such credit shall be transferred and credited to the district bond and interest fund to be used solely to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds or temporary notes and the assessments shall be reduced accordingly by the amount of such credit.

Any public sanitary sewer district or reorganized sewer district organized and operated pursuant to this chapter or chapter 249, RSMo, and any metropolitan sewer district organized pursuant to the constitution of this state, may enter into a cooperative agreement with a city or county for the purpose of constructing sanitary sewer system improvements pursuant to the provisions of the neighborhood improvement district act, sections 67.453 to 67.475, RSMo. Any such cooperative agreement, if approved by the governing bodies of the district and city or county, may include provisions for joint administration of projects, for the issuance of temporary notes and general obligation bonds by district, city or county, separately or jointly, and for the payment of such bonds by any source of funds or user fees in addition to funds from special assessments as provided for in sections 67.453 to 67.475, RSMo, and general ad valorem taxes, so long as all terms, conditions and covenants of any applicable bond indenture are complied with and so long as said notes and bonds are issued in compliance with general applicable law."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 23, Section 643.078, Line 89, by inserting after said line the following:

"644.051. 1. It is unlawful for any person:

(1) To cause pollution of any waters of the state or to place or cause or permit to be placed any water contaminant in a location where it is reasonably certain to cause pollution of any waters of the state;

(2) To discharge any water contaminants into any waters of the state which reduce the quality of such waters below the water quality standards established by the commission;

(3) To violate any pretreatment and toxic material control regulations, or to discharge any water contaminants into any waters of the state which exceed effluent regulations or permit provisions as established by the commission or required by any federal water pollution control act;

(4) To discharge any radiological, chemical, or biological warfare agent or high-level radioactive waste into the waters of the state.

2. It shall be unlawful for any person to build, erect, alter, replace, operate, use or maintain any water contaminant or point source in this state that is subject to standards, rules or regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of sections 644.006 to 644.141 unless such person holds a permit from the commission, subject to such exceptions as the commission may prescribe by rule or regulation. However, no permit shall be required of any person for any emission into publicly owned treatment facilities or into publicly owned sewer systems tributary to publicly owned treatment works.

3. Every proposed water contaminant or point source which, when constructed or installed or established, will be subject to any federal water pollution control act or sections 644.006 to 644.141 or regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of such act shall make application to the director for a permit at least thirty days prior to the initiation of construction or installation or establishment. Every water contaminant or point source in existence when regulations or sections 644.006 to 644.141 become effective shall make application to the director for a permit within sixty days after the regulations or sections 644.006 to 644.141 become effective, whichever shall be earlier. The director shall promptly investigate each application, which investigation shall include such hearings and notice, and consideration of such comments and recommendations as required by sections 644.006 to 644.141 and any federal water pollution control act. If the director determines that the source meets or will meet the requirements of sections 644.006 to 644.141 and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the director shall issue a permit with such conditions as he or she deems necessary to ensure that the source will meet the requirements of sections 644.006 to 644.141 and any federal water pollution control act as it applies to sources in this state. If the director determines that the source does not meet or will not meet the requirements of either act and the regulations pursuant thereto, the director shall deny the permit pursuant to the applicable act and issue any notices required by sections 644.006 to 644.141 and any federal water pollution control act. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of this section to the contrary, it shall not be unlawful to emit or discharge a water contaminant that is totally confined on the owner's property and subject to clean up and remediation as soon as practical.

4. Before issuing a permit to build or enlarge a water contaminant or point source or reissuing any permit, the director shall issue such notices, conduct such hearings, and consider such factors, comments and recommendations as required by sections 644.006 to 644.141 or any federal water pollution control act. The director shall determine if any state or any provisions of any federal water pollution control act the state is required to enforce, any state or federal effluent limitations or regulations, water quality-related effluent limitations, national standards of performance, toxic and pretreatment standards, or water quality standards which apply to the source, or any such standards in the vicinity of the source, are being exceeded, and shall determine the impact on such water quality standards from the source. The director, in order to effectuate the purposes of sections 644.006 to 644.141, shall deny a permit if the source will violate any such acts, regulations, limitations or standards or will appreciably affect the water quality standards or the water quality standards are being substantially exceeded, unless the permit is issued with such conditions as to make the source comply with such requirements within an acceptable time schedule. Prior to the development or renewal of a general permit or permit by rule, for aquaculture, the director shall convene a meeting or meetings of permit holders and applicants to evaluate the impacts of permits and to discuss any terms and conditions that may be necessary to protect waters of the state. Following the discussions, the director shall finalize a draft permit that considers the comments of the meeting participants and post the draft permit on notice for public comment. The director shall concurrently post with the draft permit an explanation of the draft permit and shall identify types of facilities which are subject to the permit conditions. Affected public or applicants for new general permits, renewed general permits or permits by rule may request a hearing with respect to the new requirements in accordance with this section. If a request for a hearing is received, the commission shall hold a hearing to receive comments on issues of significant technical merit and concerns related to the responsibilities of the Missouri clean water law. The commission shall conduct such hearings in accordance with this section. After consideration of such comments, a final action on the permit shall be rendered. The time between the date of the hearing request and the hearing itself shall not be counted as time elapsed pursuant to subdivision (1) of subsection 13 of this section.

5. The director shall grant or deny the permit within sixty days after all requirements of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act concerning issuance of permits have been satisfied unless the application does not require any permit pursuant to any federal water pollution control act. The director or the commission may require the applicant to provide and maintain such facilities or to conduct such tests and monitor effluents as necessary to determine the nature, extent, quantity or degree of water contaminant discharged or released from the source, establish and maintain records and make reports regarding such determination.

6. The director shall promptly notify the applicant in writing of his or her action and if the permit is denied state the reasons therefor. The applicant may appeal to the commission from the denial of a permit or from any condition in any permit by filing notice of appeal with the commission within thirty days of the notice of denial or issuance of the permit. The commission shall set the matter for hearing not less than thirty days after the notice of appeal is filed. In no event shall a permit constitute permission to violate the law or any standard, rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto.

7. In any hearing held pursuant to this section the burden of proof is on the applicant for a permit. Any decision of the commission made pursuant to a hearing held pursuant to this section is subject to judicial review as provided in section 644.071.

8. In any event, no permit issued pursuant to this section shall be issued if properly objected to by the federal government or any agency authorized to object pursuant to any federal water pollution control act unless the application does not require any permit pursuant to any federal water pollution control act.

9. Unless a site-specific permit is requested by the applicant, aquaculture facilities shall be governed by a general permit issued pursuant to this section with a fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection 6 of section 644.052. However, any aquaculture facility which materially violates the conditions and requirements of such permit may be required to obtain a site-specific permit.

10. No manufacturing or processing plant or operating location shall be required to pay more than one operating fee. Operating permits shall be issued for a period not to exceed five years after date of issuance, except that general permits shall be issued for a five-year period, and also except that neither a construction nor an annual permit shall be required for a single residence's waste treatment facilities. Applications for renewal of an operating permit shall be filed at least one hundred eighty days prior to the expiration of the existing permit.

11. Every permit issued to municipal or any publicly owned treatment works or facility shall require the permittee to provide the clean water commission with adequate notice of any substantial new introductions of water contaminants or pollutants into such works or facility from any source for which such notice is required by sections 644.006 to 644.141 or any federal water pollution control act. Such permit shall also require the permittee to notify the clean water commission of any substantial change in volume or character of water contaminants or pollutants being introduced into its treatment works or facility by a source which was introducing water contaminants or pollutants into its works at the time of issuance of the permit. Notice must describe the quality and quantity of effluent being introduced or to be introduced into such works or facility by a source which was introducing water contaminants or pollutants into its works at the time of issuance of the permit. Notice must describe the quality and quantity of effluent being introduced or to be introduced into such works or facility and the anticipated impact of such introduction on the quality or quantity of effluent to be released from such works or facility into waters of the state.

12. The director or the commission may require the filing or posting of a bond as a condition for the issuance of permits for construction of temporary or future water treatment facilities in an amount determined by the commission to be sufficient to ensure compliance with all provisions of sections 644.006 to 644.141, and any rules or regulations of the commission and any condition as to such construction in the permit. The bond shall be signed by the applicant as principal, and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in the state of Missouri and approved by the commission. The bond shall remain in effect until the terms and conditions of the permit are met and the provisions of sections 644.006 to 644.141 and rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto are complied with.

13. (1) The department shall issue or deny applications for construction and site-specific operating permits received after January 1, 2001, within one hundred eighty days of the department's receipt of an application. For general construction and operating permit applications received after January 1, 2001, that do not require a public participation process, the department shall issue or deny the requested permits within sixty days of the department's receipt of an application.

(2) If the department fails to issue or deny with good cause a construction or operating permit application within the time frames established in subdivision (1) of this subsection, the department shall refund the full amount of the initial application fee within forty-five days of failure to meet the established time frame. If the department fails to refund the application fee within forty-five days, the refund amount shall accrue interest at a rate established pursuant to section 32.065, RSMo.

(3) Permit fee disputes may be appealed to the commission within thirty days of the date established in subdivision (2) of this subsection. If the applicant prevails in a permit fee dispute appealed to the commission, the commission may order the director to refund the applicant's permit fee plus interest and reasonable attorney's fees as provided in sections 536.085 and 536.087, RSMo. A refund of the initial application or annual fee does not waive the applicant's responsibility to pay any annual fees due each year following issuance of a permit.

(4) No later than December 31, 2001, the commission shall promulgate regulations defining shorter review time periods than the time frames established in subdivision (1) of this subsection, when appropriate, for different classes of construction and operating permits. In no case shall commission regulations adopt permit review times that exceed the time frames established in subdivision (1) of this subsection. The department's failure to comply with the commission's permit review time periods shall result in a refund of said permit fees as set forth in subdivision (2) of this subsection. On a semiannual basis, the department shall submit to the commission a report which describes the different classes of permits and reports on the number of days it took the department to issue each permit from the date of receipt of the application and show averages for each different class of permits.

(5) During the department's technical review of the application, the department may request the applicant submit supplemental or additional information necessary for adequate permit review. The department's technical review letter shall contain a sufficient description of the type of additional information needed to comply with the application requirements.

(6) Nothing in this subsection shall be interpreted to mean that inaction on a permit application shall be grounds to violate any provisions of sections 644.006 to 644.141 or any rules promulgated pursuant to sections 644.006 to 644.141.

14. The department shall respond to all requests for individual certification under Section 401 of the Federal Clean Water Act within the lesser of sixty days or the allowed response period established pursuant to applicable federal regulations without request for an extension period unless such extension is determined by the commission to be necessary to evaluate significant impacts on water quality standards and the commission establishes a timetable for completion of such evaluation in a period of no more than one hundred eighty days.

15. All permit fees generated pursuant to this chapter shall not be used for the development or expansion of total maximum daily loads studies on either the Missouri or Mississippi rivers.

In addition to those sums authorized prior to August 28, 2004, the board of fund commissioners of the state of Missouri, as authorized by section 37(e) of article III of the Constitution of the state of Missouri, may borrow on the credit of this state the sum of ten million dollars in the manner described, and for the purposes set out, in chapter 640, RSMo, and this chapter.

- and
- (4) The owner of the respective parcel of real property pays the normal and customary connection fees associated with such connection.

Senate Amendment No. 11

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 600, Page 63, Section 338.550, Line 17, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

"479.051. 1. Any city, county or township may provide by ordinance an administrative adjudication system for adjudicating parking and other non-moving municipal code violations to the extent permitted by court rules. The adoption by a city, county, or township of an administrative adjudication system does not preclude the city, county, or township from using other methods to enforce ordinances. This statute shall not affect the validity of other administrative adjudication systems authorized by state law and created prior to the effective date of this statute.

2. An ordinance establishing an administrative adjudication system shall provide for an administrative adjudication unit or alternative, which could include the municipal division of a circuit court, define the jurisdiction and role of that unit and describe the means by which the municipality shall provide suitable facilities and operating resources for operating the administrative adjudication system. The ordinance shall designate the types of municipal code violations deemed appropriate for administrative adjudication consistent with applicable state law. The administrative adjudication unit shall operate under the supervision of the circuit court.

3. The administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, shall establish and maintain a system for adjudicating parking violations and any other municipal code violations designated for administrative adjudication by ordinance. The administrative adjudication system shall include operating policies and procedures, including but not limited to, appeal criteria, documentation requirements, notification deadlines, and forms, subject to the approval of the circuit court. The administrative adjudication system shall afford parties due process of law.

4. The adjudication process may involve a one-step administrative hearing or a two-step administrative review and administrative hearing. If the city, county, or township adopts a one-step process, individuals must apply for an administrative hearing to contest a municipal code violation. If the city, county, or township adopts a two-step process, individuals must first apply for an administrative review to contest a municipal code violation and then, if dissatisfied with the results of the administrative review, may apply for an administrative hearing. Any failure to request an administrative review or hearing in accordance with the rules established by the administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, shall be considered an admission of liability.

5. The administrative reviews and hearings authorized pursuant to this section shall be designed to ensure a fair and impartial consideration of the contested code violation. The formal and technical rules of evidence shall not apply in any administrative review or hearing authorized pursuant to this section. Evidence, including hearsay, may be admitted only if it is the type of evidence commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs. The officer or person who issued the notice of municipal code violation shall not be required to participate in an administrative review or hearing. The agency that issued the municipal code violation need not produce any evidence other than the notice of municipal code violation or copy thereof and information received from an appropriate state or local agency identifying the property owner of record. Such documentation in proper form shall be prima facie evidence of the municipal code violation.

6. An administrative review shall entail an informal review process through which the individual may contest a municipal code violation by mail, in person or other means approved by the administrative adjudication unit, as provided in subsection 2 of this section. The individual's right to an administrative review shall expire if the city does not receive a documented challenge to the municipal code violation within seven calendar days of issuing the original violation or the time period prescribed by local ordinance, whichever is later. In a city, county, or township adopting the two-step administrative adjudication process, individuals who fail to exercise their right to an administrative review in accordance with the prescribed rules shall also lose their right to an administrative hearing. The administrative adjudication unit, as provided in subsection 2 of this section, shall appoint or contract with qualified individuals to conduct administrative reviews.

7. An administrative hearing shall entail a formal hearing through which the individual may contest a municipal code violation or, for a city, county, or township with a two-step appeal process, an administrative review finding in person before an administrative hearing officer. Administrative hearings shall be scheduled with reasonable promptness and any notice of an administrative hearing shall include the code violation type and nature, the administrative hearing date and location, the legal authority and jurisdiction of the administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, and the penalties for failing to appear at the hearing. The individual's right to an administrative hearing shall expire if the city does not receive a written challenge to the administrative review results within seven calendar days of notifying the individual of the results of the administrative review or, if the municipality has a one-step appeal process, fourteen calendar days of issuing the original violation.

8. The administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, shall appoint or contract with qualified administrative hearing officers to preside over administrative hearings. As impartial and independent fact finders, administrative hearing officers may:

- (1) Hear testimony and review relevant evidence;
- (2) Issue subpoenas directing witnesses to appear and give relevant testimony;
- (3) Preserve and authenticate hearing records and evidence;
- (4) Issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law, including the fine, penalty, or action with which the parties must comply; and
- (5) Impose penalties and assess costs consistent with applicable law.

An administrative hearing officer shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in the state of Missouri for at least three years and possess sufficient competence to adjudicate municipal code violations, including, but not limited to, experience in administrative law, familiarity with the rules of procedure for administrative hearings, and a working knowledge of each subject area of the municipal code violations that they will adjudicate. An administrative hearing officer's employment and compensation shall not, directly or indirectly, be linked to the amount of fines. The municipality may establish additional policies and procedures for ensuring that administrative hearing officers demonstrate the objectivity and qualifications necessary to conduct fair, impartial, and expeditious hearings.

9. An administrative adjudication unit may not impose a penalty of incarceration or a fine in excess of the amount allowed by state or local law. Any fine, other sanction, or costs imposed, or part of any fine, other sanction, or costs imposed, remaining unpaid after the exhaustion of or the failure to exhaust judicial review procedures pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, are a debt due and owing the municipality and may be collected in accordance with applicable law. Any fine, sanction, costs, or other charges assessed by the administrative adjudication unit shall be deposited into the municipal treasury in accordance with applicable state and local laws and rules for that particular municipality.

10. Any final decision by an administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, that a code violation does or does not exist shall constitute a final determination for purposes of judicial review and shall be subject to review pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo.

11. After expiration of the period in which judicial review pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, may be sought for a final determination of a municipal code violation, unless stayed by a court of competent jurisdiction, the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the administrative hearing officer may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment entered by a court of competent jurisdiction. If a defendant fails to comply with an order of the administrative hearing officer, any expenses incurred by the municipality to enforce the order, including, but not limited to, attorney, court, administrative, vehicle storage, and property demolition or foreclosure costs, after they are fixed by an administrative hearing officer or a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be a debt due the municipality and may be collected in accordance with applicable law. Upon being recorded in the manner required by state law or the uniform commercial code, a lien may be imposed on the real or personal property, or both, of the defendant in the amount of any debt due the municipality pursuant to this section. The lien may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment lien pursuant to a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 1, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

The Hebrew Scriptures, in Psalm 34, sing:

The Lord is close to the brokenhearted; and those who are crushed in spirit He saves. Many are the troubles of the just person, but out of them all the Lord delivers them.

Mighty God, our representatives try to be those just persons who have all, the well and the rich, the brokenhearted and the crushed in mind as they discern ways to distribute the meager resources of our state. Give them wisdom.

Help them examine their consciences, remember the pure motives which brought them here in the first place, note Your presence, and then act from that dynamism. As the sun sets this evening, bless them with the inner peace that comes from a day well spent in service to You, to their constituencies, and to all across Missouri. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Alayna N. Brown, Caleb P. Brown, Lane Holden, Scott Mayfield, David Weaver, Emily Knobbe and Brittany Fellows.

The Journal of the sixty-second day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER OBSERVANCE

The House of Representatives wishes to pause with the rest of the country as part of the National Day of Prayer.

Prayers given by Pastor Douglas Crader.

Prayer for the Nation
Written by Dr. Luis Palau

Our Father and our God, we thank You for the many blessings You have poured out on America and we praise You for Your mercy.

You have said: "Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people." We confess, O Lord, our national and personal sins. We repent and ask forgiveness for all actions that dishonor You.

O God, bless our President and other leaders. Provide them with wisdom and move them to honor You.

Deliver this great nation from all our enemies as we recommit ourselves to trust, serve and obey Your commands.

We pray in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, Amen.

Heavenly Father,

We thank You for this great nation that You have given us and for the grace to serve You in it.

We humbly ask for continued direction and leadership as we face the challenges that lay before us.

As Your Word says, we should "pray for all men, for kings and those in authority that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in Godliness and honesty."

Father, we pray for all our leaders because of the great burdens and responsibilities on them as they serve us, the people.

We ask for healing of division in our state and national governments and the nation as a whole; because Your Word says "a house divided against itself cannot stand." We understand that our differences in life, education, backgrounds and understanding can be a problem; but we thank You that these differences can be the sources of diverse ideas that bring answers.

We call out for Your wisdom and guidance as these men and women deal with these things. You have helped and guided us through many storms throughout our history as a nation and as a state and we know You will continue as we yield ourselves to Your counsel.

Father, I speak blessing on the men and women in this Chamber for as Your Word says they are "ministers for our good". I pray that You take care of them and their families and provide everything they need. I also take authority over any forces of darkness that would be set against them, their families and their offices.

Inscribed upon the very walls of this building are the word "righteousness exalts a nation". I pray for the courage and strength for every man, woman and child to walk in righteousness and honesty before You that we may continue to walk as a nation blessed by You and be a beacon to the world.

In Jesus mighty name we pray, Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-FOURTH DAY, MONDAY, MAY 5, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God, the minds and hearts of our representatives surely reach out in prayer for those Missourians and our neighbors from other states who lost their lives in the terrible tornados and storms last night. We pray also for their relatives and friends and all who mourn their spiritual and material losses. May those who remain discover strength to go on through the wreckage and the ashes towards new beginnings.

We pray also for those in this admirable House who begin this new week today amid much debate, perhaps even some rancor. Let Your good and decent Spirit help all of us this Monday, that good and decent results may accrue this day and throughout this week. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Anna Danielle Henley, Brady Pry and Emily Pry.

The Journal of the sixty-third day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

135.503. 1. Any investor that makes an investment of certified capital shall, in the year of investment, earn a vested credit against state premium tax liability equal to the applicable percentage of the investor's investment of certified capital. An investor shall be entitled to take up to ten percent of the vested credit in any taxable year of the investor. Any time after three years after August 28, 1996, the director, with the approval of the commissioner of administration, may reduce the applicable percentage on a prospective basis. Any such reduction in the applicable percentage by the director shall not have any effect on credits against state premium tax liability which have been claimed or will be claimed by any investor with respect to credits which have been earned and vested pursuant to an investment of certified capital prior to the effective date of any such change.

2. An insurance company claiming a state premium tax credit earned through an investment in a certified capital company shall not be required to pay any additional retaliatory tax levied pursuant to section 375.916, RSMo, as a result of claiming such credit.

3. The credit against state premium tax liability which is described in subsection 1 of this section may not exceed the state premium tax liability of the investor for any taxable year. All such credits against state premium tax liability may be carried forward indefinitely until the credits are utilized. The maximum amount of certified capital in one or more certified capital companies for which earned and vested tax credits will be allowed in any year to any one investor or its affiliates shall be limited to ten million dollars.

4. Except as provided in subsection 5 of this section, the aggregate amount of certified capital for which earned and vested credits against state premium tax liability are allowed for all persons pursuant to sections 135.500 to 135.529 shall not exceed the following amounts: for calendar year 1996, $0.00; for calendar year 1997, an amount which would entitle all Missouri certified capital company investors to take aggregate credits of five million dollars; and for any year thereafter, an additional amount to be determined by the director but not to exceed aggregate credits of ten million dollars for any year with the approval of the commissioner of administration and reported to the general assembly as provided in subsection 2 of section 33.282, RSMo, provided that the amount so determined shall not impair the ability of an investor with earned and vested credits which have been allowed in previous years to take them, pursuant to subsection 1 of this section. During any calendar year in which the limitation described in this subsection will limit the amount of certified capital for which earned and vested credits against state premium tax liability are allowed, certified capital for which credits are allowed will be allocated in order of priority based upon the date of filing of information described in subdivision (1) of subsection 5 of section 135.516. Certified capital limited in any calendar year by the application of the provisions of this subsection shall be allowed and allocated in the immediately succeeding calendar year in the order of priority set forth in this subsection. The department shall make separate allocations of certified capital for which credits are allowed under the limitations described in this subsection and under the limitations described in subsection 5 of this section.

5. In addition to the maximum amount pursuant to subsection 4 of this section, the aggregate amount of certified capital for which earned and vested credits against state premium tax liability are allowed for persons pursuant to sections 135.500 to 135.529 shall be the following: for calendar year 1999 and for any year thereafter, an amount to be determined by the director which would entitle all Missouri certified capital company investors to take aggregate credits not to exceed four million dollars for any year with the approval of the commissioner of administration and reported to the general assembly as provided in subsection 2 of section 33.282, RSMo, provided that the amount so determined shall not impair the ability of an investor with earned and vested credits which have been allowed in previous years or pursuant to the provisions of subsection 4 of this section to take them, pursuant to subsection 1 of this section. For purposes of any requirement regarding the schedule of qualified investments for certified capital for which earned and vested credits against state premium tax liability are allowed pursuant to this subsection only, the definition of a “qualified Missouri business” as set forth in subdivision [(13)] (14) of subsection 2 of section 135.500 means a Missouri business that is located in a distressed community as defined in section 135.530, and meets all of the requirements of subdivision [(13)] (14) of subsection 2 of section 135.500[, except that its gross sales during its most recent complete fiscal year shall not have exceeded five million dollars]. During any calendar year in which the limitation described in this subsection limits the amount of additional certified capital for which earned and vested credits against state premium tax liability are allowed, additional certified capital for which credits are allowed shall be allocated in order of priority based upon the date of filing of information described in subdivision (1) of subsection 5 of section 135.516 with respect to such additional certified capital. The department shall make separate allocations of certified capital for which credits are allowed under the limitations described in this subsection and under the limitations described in subsection 4 of this section. No limitation applicable to any certified capital company with respect to certified capital for which credits are allowed pursuant to subsection 4 of this section shall limit the amount of certified capital for which credits are allowed pursuant to this subsection. No limitation applicable to any certified capital company with respect to certified capital for which credits are allowed pursuant to this subsection shall limit the amount of certified capital for which credits are allowed pursuant to subsection 4 of this section.

6. The department shall advise any Missouri certified capital company, in writing, within fifteen days after receiving the filing described in subdivision (1) of subsection 5 of section 135.516 whether the limitations of subsection 3 of this section then in effect will be applicable with respect to the investments and credits described in such filing with the department.

135.516. 1. To continue to be certified, a Missouri certified capital company shall make qualified investments according to the following schedule:

(1) Within two years after the date on which a Missouri certified capital company is designated as a Missouri certified capital company at least twenty-five percent of its certified capital shall be, or have been, placed in qualified investments;

(2) Within three years after the date on which a Missouri certified capital company is designated as a Missouri certified capital company at least forty percent of its certified capital shall be, or have been, placed in qualified investments;

(3) Within four years after the date on which a Missouri certified capital company is designated as a Missouri certified capital company, at least fifty percent of its total certified capital shall be, or have been, placed in qualified investments. A Missouri certified capital company may not make an investment in an affiliate of the certified capital company. For the purposes of this subsection, if a legal entity is not an affiliate before a certified capital company initially invests in the entity, it will not be an affiliate if a certified capital company provides additional investment in such entity subsequent to its initial investment;

(4) A certified capital company, at least fifteen working days prior to making what it determines to be an initial qualified investment in a specific qualified Missouri business, shall certify to the department that the company in which it or a qualified investing entity proposes to invest [meets the definition of] is a qualified Missouri business [pursuant to subdivision (14) of subsection 2 of section 135.500]. The certified capital company shall state the amount of capital it or a qualified investing entity intends to invest and the name of the business in which it or a qualified investing entity intends to invest. The certified capital company shall also provide to the department an explanation of its determination that the business meets the definition of a qualified Missouri business. If the department determines that the business does not meet the definition of a qualified Missouri business, it shall, within the fifteen-working-day period prior to the making of the proposed investment, notify the certified capital company of its determination and an explanation thereof. If the department fails to notify the certified capital company with respect to the proposed investment within the fifteen-working-day period prior to the making of the proposed investment, the company in which the certified capital company or a qualified investing entity proposes to invest shall be deemed to be a qualified Missouri business. If a certified capital company fails to notify the department prior to making an initial investment in a business, the department may subsequently determine that the business in which the certified capital company or a qualified investing entity invested was not a qualified Missouri business even though the business, at the time of the investment, met the requirements of subdivision [(14)] (15) of subsection 2 of section 135.500;

(5) All certified capital which is not required to be placed in qualified investments or which has been placed in qualified investments and can be received by the company, may be held or invested in such manner as the Missouri certified capital company, in its discretion, deems appropriate. The proceeds of all certified capital which is received by a certified capital company after it was originally placed in qualified investments may be placed again in qualified investments and shall count toward any requirement in sections 135.500 to 135.529 with respect to placing certified capital in qualified investments.

2. A certified capital company may make qualified distributions at any time. In order to make distributions, other than qualified distributions, a certified capital company must have [placed] made cumulative qualified investments, including those made through a qualified investing entity, in an amount cumulatively equal to at least one hundred percent of its certified capital [in qualified investments]. Cumulative distributions to equity holders, other than qualified distributions, in excess of the certified capital company's original certified capital and any additional capital contributions to the certified capital company shall be subject to audit by a nationally recognized certified public accounting firm acceptable to the department, at the expense of the certified capital company. The audit shall determine whether aggregate cumulative distributions to all investors and equity holders, other than qualified distributions, when combined with all tax credits utilized by investors pursuant to sections 135.500 to 135.529, have resulted in an annual internal rate of return of fifteen percent computed on the sum of total original certified capital of the certified capital company and any additional capital contributions to the certified capital company. Twenty-five percent of distributions made, other than qualified distributions, in excess of the amount required to produce a fifteen percent annual internal rate of return, as determined by the audit, shall be payable by the certified capital company to the Missouri development finance board. Distributions or payments to debt holders of a certified capital company, however, may be made without restriction with respect to debt owed to them by a certified capital company. A debt holder that is also an investor or equity holder of a certified capital company may receive distributions or payments with respect to such debt without restriction.

3. No qualified investment may be made at a cost to a Missouri certified capital company greater than fifteen percent of the total certified capital under management of the Missouri certified capital company at the time of investment.

4. Documents and other materials submitted by Missouri certified capital companies or by businesses for purposes of the continuance of certification may be deemed "closed records" pursuant to the provisions of section 620.014, RSMo.

5. Each Missouri certified capital company shall report the following to the department:

(1) As soon as practicable after the receipt of certified capital, the name of each investor from which the certified capital was received, the amount of each investor's investment of certified capital and tax credits computed without regard to any limitations under subsection 3 of section 135.503, and the date on which the certified capital was received;

(2) On a quarterly basis, the amount of the Missouri certified capital company's certified capital at the end of the quarter, whether or not the Missouri certified capital company has invested, together with any investments made by a qualified investing entity that are deemed to have been made by the certified capital company, more than fifteen percent of the total certified capital under management in any one company, and all qualified investments that the Missouri certified capital company has made or has been deemed to have been made through a qualified investing entity;

(3) Each Missouri certified capital company shall provide annual audited financial statements to the department which include an opinion of an independent certified public accountant to the department within ninety days of the close of the fiscal year. At the same time, the certified capital company shall also provide audited financial statements for any qualified investing entity that has made qualified investments on its behalf, unless the financial results of such qualified investing entity are included in the consolidated financial statements of the certified capital company. The audit shall address the methods of operation and conduct of the business of the Missouri certified capital company to determine if the Missouri certified capital company is complying with the statutes and program rules and that the funds received by the Missouri certified capital company have been invested as required within the time limits provided by sections 135.500 to 135.529.

135.520. 1. The division of finance of the department of economic development shall conduct an annual review of each Missouri certified capital company and any qualified investing entities designated by it to determine if the Missouri certified capital company is abiding by the requirements of certifications, to advise the Missouri certified capital company as to the certification status of its qualified investments and to ensure that no investment has been made in violation of sections 135.500 to 135.529. The cost of the annual review shall be paid by each Missouri certified capital company according to a reasonable fee schedule adopted by the department. The division of finance shall report its findings to the department as soon as practicable following completion of the audit.

2. Any material violation of sections 135.500 to 135.529 shall be grounds for decertification under this section. If the department determines that a company is not in compliance with any requirements for continuing in certification, it shall, by written notice, inform the officers of the company and the board of directors, managers, trustees or general partners that they may be decertified in one hundred twenty days from the date of mailing of the notice, unless they correct the deficiencies and are again in compliance with the requirements for certification.

3. At the end of the one hundred twenty-day grace period, if the Missouri certified capital company is still not in compliance, the department may send a notice of decertification to the company and to the directors of the department of revenue and department of insurance. Decertification of a Missouri certified capital company prior to the certified capital company meeting all requirements of subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 1 of section 135.516 shall cause the recapture of all premium tax credits previously claimed by an investor and the forfeiture of all future credits to be claimed by an investor with respect to its investment in the certified capital company. Decertification of a Missouri certified capital company after it has met all requirements of subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 1 of section 135.516 shall cause the forfeiture of premium tax credits for the taxable year of the investor in which the decertification arose and for future taxable years with no recapture of tax credits obtained by an investor with respect to the investor's tax years which ended before the decertification occurred. Once a certified capital company has [invested] made cumulative qualified investments, including those made through a qualified investing entity and deemed to have been made by the certified capital company, in an amount equal to at least one hundred percent of its certified capital [in qualified Missouri businesses], all future premium tax credits to be claimed by investors with respect to said certified capital company pursuant to sections 135.500 to 135.529 shall be nonforfeitable. Once a certified capital company has [invested] made cumulative qualified investments, including those made through a qualified investing entity and deemed to have been made by the certified capital company, in an amount equal to at least one hundred percent of its certified capital [in qualified Missouri businesses] and has met all other requirements under sections 135.500 to 135.529, it shall no longer be subject to regulation by the department except with respect to the payment of distributions to the Missouri development finance board.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

“247.170. 1. Whenever any city owning a waterworks or water supply system extends its corporate limits to include any part of the area in a public water supply district, and the city and the board of directors of the district are unable to agree upon a service, lease or sale agreement, or are unable to proceed under section 247.160, then upon the expiration of ninety days after the effective date of the extension of the city limits, that part of the area of the district included within the corporate limits of the city may be detached and excluded from the district in the following manner:

(1) A petition to detach and exclude that part of the public water supply district lying within the corporate limits of the city as such limits have been extended, signed by not less than [twenty-five voters within the water supply district,] one fourth of the registered voters from each subdistrict within the water supply district, or fifty registered voters from each subdistrict, whichever is less, shall be filed in the circuit court of the county in which the district was originally organized.

(2) The court, being satisfied as to the sufficiency of the petition, shall call a special election of the voters of the district at which election the proposal to detach and exclude the part of the district lying within the corporate limits of the city shall be submitted to the voters in the entire district for a vote thereon. The election shall be conducted within the district by the election authority.

(3) The ballot shall briefly state the question to be voted on.

(4) In order to approve the detachment and exclusion of any part of the area in a public water supply district, the proposal shall require the approval of not less than a majority of the voters voting thereon.

(5) The election authorities shall thereafter promptly certify the result to the circuit court. The court, acting as a court of equity, shall thereupon without delay enter a decree detaching and excluding the area in question located within the corporate limits of the city from the public water supply district; except that before the decree detaching and excluding the area becomes final or effective, the city shall show to the court that it has assumed and agreed to pay in lump sum or in installments not less than that proportion of the sum of all existing liquidated general obligations and of all unpaid revenue bonds and interest thereon to date, of the water supply district as the assessed valuation of the real and tangible personal property within the area sought to be detached and excluded bears to the assessed valuation of all of the real and tangible personal property within the entire area of the district, according to the official county assessment of property as of December thirty-first of the calendar year next preceding the date of the election, and in addition thereto that the city has assumed and agreed to assume or pay in a lump sum all contractual obligations of the water district that are greater than twenty-five thousand dollars for debt that pertains to infrastructure, fixed assets or obligations for the purchase of water, and to pay the court costs.

(6) The decree shall thereupon vest in the city the absolute title, free and clear of all liens or encumbrances of every kind and character, to all tangible real and personal property of the public water supply district located within the part of the district situated within the corporate limits of the city with full power in the city to use and dispose of the tangible real and personal property as it deems best in the public interest.

(7) If the proposal fails to receive the approval of the voters the question may be again presented by another petition and again voted on, but not sooner than six months.

(8) Any and all sums paid out by the city under this section, other than the costs of the election, shall be administered by the circuit court for the benefit of the holders of the then existing and outstanding bonds of the district, and the remainder of such sums, if any, shall be delivered to the district to be expended in the operation, maintenance and improvement of its water distribution system.

2. Upon the effective date of any final order detaching and excluding any part of the area of any public water supply district, or leasing, selling or conveying any of the water mains, plant or equipment therein, the circuit court may, in the public interest, change the boundaries of the public water supply district and again divide or redive the district into subdistricts for the election of directors in conformity with the provisions of section 247.040, without further petition being filed with the court so to do.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

The school improvement plan established pursuant to this section shall ensure open enrollment and program access to all students in the district, and, consistent with the Missouri and United States Constitutions, shall give first priority to residents of the city for admission to magnet schools. The school board shall take all practicable and constitutionally permissible steps to ensure that all magnet schools operate at full capacity. Students who change residence within the district shall be allowed to continue to attend the school in which they were initially enrolled for the remainder of their education at grade levels served by that school, and transportation shall be provided by the district to allow such students to continue to attend such school of initial enrollment.

10. The special administrative board shall ensure that vocational education instruction is provided within the district.

11. The special administrative board shall establish an accountability officer whose duty shall be to ensure that academically deficient schools within the district are raised to acceptable condition within two years.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-FIFTH DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 6, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, You have said, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." Help us to honor You this day that we might receive Your knowledge and instruction.

Lord God, the events of the past few days cause us to turn our eyes and hearts toward home and family.

We take a moment to particularly ask Your grace and mercy to cover Representative Ronnie Miller, his family and neighbors as well as all who are devastated by the loss of family and homes.

May there be speedy relief given for disaster victims as well as comfort for grieving hearts. We remember Your Word, which says, "You are a very present help in time of trouble." May Your presence help them to overcome this traumatic experience.

Omniscient Father, only with You is true wisdom. Help us to know Your ways. Have mercy on us to make right decisions today.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all.

To You be the glory, both now and forever. In the name of Your son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Paden John, Bradley Minor, Becky Wolverton, Rachel Backes, Jackie Akins, Andrew Huhmann, Don Bracht and Daniel Laurent.

The Journal of the sixty-fourth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

A contributor that receives tax credits for a contribution provided in this section may not be a member, owner, investor or lender of an eligible new generation cooperative or eligible new generation processing entity that receives financial assistance from the authority either at the time the contribution is made or for a period of two years thereafter.

If the producer member meets all criteria prescribed by this section and is approved by the authority, the authority shall issue a tax credit certificate in the appropriate amount. Tax credits issued pursuant to this section [shall initially be claimed in the taxable year in which the producer member contributes capital to an eligible new generation cooperative or eligible new generation processing entity. Any amount of credit that exceeds the tax due for a producer member's taxable year] may be carried back to any of the producer member's three prior taxable years and carried forward to any of the producer member's five subsequent taxable years regardless of the type of tax liability to which such credits are applied as authorized pursuant to subsection 3 of this section. Tax credits issued pursuant to this section may be assigned, transferred, sold or otherwise conveyed and the new owner of the tax credit shall have the same rights in the credit as the producer member. AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 246, Page 9, Section 386.374, Line 22, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"386.756. 1. Except by an affiliate, a utility may not engage in HVAC services, unless otherwise provided in subsection 7 or subsection 8 of this section.

2. No affiliate or utility contractor may use any vehicles, service tools, instruments, employees, or any other utility assets, the cost of which are recoverable in the regulated rates for utility service, to engage in HVAC services unless the utility is compensated for the use of such assets at cost to the utility.

3. A utility may not use or allow any affiliate or utility contractor to use the name of such utility to engage in HVAC services unless the utility, affiliate or utility contractor discloses, in plain view and in bold type on the same page as the name is used on all advertisements or in plain audible language during all solicitations of such services, a disclaimer that states the services provided are not regulated by the public service commission.

4. A utility may not engage in or assist any affiliate or utility contractor in engaging in HVAC services in a manner which subsidizes the activities of such utility, affiliate or utility contractor to the extent of changing the rates or charges for the utility's regulated services above or below the rates or charges that would be in effect if the utility were not engaged in or assisting any affiliate or utility contractor in engaging in such activities.

5. Any affiliates or utility contractors engaged in HVAC services shall maintain accounts, books and records separate and distinct from the utility.

6. The provisions of this section shall apply to any affiliate or utility contractor engaged in HVAC services that is owned, controlled or under common control with a utility providing regulated utility service in this state or any other state.

7. A utility engaging in HVAC services in this state five years prior to August 28, 1998, may continue providing, to existing as well as new customers, the same type of services as those provided by the utility five years prior to August 28, 1998. The provisions of this section only apply to the area of service which the utility was actually supplying service to on a regular basis prior to August 28, 1993. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any subsequently expanded areas of service made by a utility through either existing affiliates or subsidiaries or through affiliates or subsidiaries purchased after August 28, 1993, unless such services were being provided in the expanded area prior to August 28, 1993.

8. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to prohibit a utility from providing emergency service, providing any service required by law or providing a program pursuant to an existing tariff, rule or order of the public service commission.

9. A utility that violates any provision of this section is guilty of a civil offense and may be subject to a civil penalty of up to twelve thousand five hundred dollars for each violation. The attorney general may enforce the provisions of this section pursuant to any powers granted to him or her pursuant to any relevant provisions provided by Missouri statutes or the Missouri Constitution.

10. Any utility claiming an exemption as provided in subsection 7 of this section shall comply with all applicable state and local laws, ordinances or regulations relating to the installation or maintenance of HVAC systems including all permit requirements. A continuing pattern of failure to comply with said requirements shall provide the basis for a finding by any court of competent jurisdiction or the public service commission that the utility has waived its claim of exemption pursuant to subsection 7 of this section.

11. A utility which sells gas fired appliances shall perform all installation, maintenance and service of said appliances with its own employees."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-SIXTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MAY 7, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we declare this truth from Your Word, "But only with God are perfect wisdom and might; You alone have true counsel and understanding." Release the wisdom reserved for this hour for all those in authority; civil, spiritual and at every level of government.

Father, we acknowledge that You hold the master plan for this year's session, so we ask You to reveal it to us. Help us to see as You see that we might work together for the betterment of this state. May there be a joint effort towards this end.

You've prepared and equipped us for such a time as this. Guide us through these remaining hours with Your wisdom and keen foresight. Help us to overcome any area of personal confusion, pride, or weariness with clarity of purpose and thought.

Now may the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Your sight this day and forever.

To You be the glory, both now and forever, in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 8, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Caring God, the rains may come, the hail may fall, the winds may blow, but this legislative session is inevitably coming to its conclusion. As difficult as it may be amid the words and work of this day's drove of legislation, help these men and women hold in mind and heart those for whom they labor.

The people of Missouri count on the energy, the wisdom, and the integrity of these representatives. We pray that they may continue to attend to their own good common sense and their consciences. Politics is a good and necessary factor in this room, but people are the ones helped and harmed.

Let all here bear in mind their own constituents, all the people of this state, and the principles of straightforward democracy in their many judgments which effect us all. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixty-sixth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Devine, Director of the Truman Presidential Museum and Library, and all of his staff for the important role they have played in helping to make this historic event such a tremendous success; and

ESCORT COMMITTEE

The Speaker appointed the following committee to escort His Excellency Governor Bob Holden to the dais: Representatives Cooper (120), Brown, Deeken, Cunningham (145), Salva, LeVota, Dougherty and Jones.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Honorable Bob Holden, Governor of the State of Missouri. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the assembly.

TRUMAN'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

Madam Speaker, Members of the House, and President Truman:

I want to thank the Harry S Truman Presidential Museum and Library and especially its Director, Michael Devine, and Representatives Ray Salva and Russ Carnahan for planning this event.

It is a great privilege to have this opportunity to honor on his birthday a great president and a great Missourian – Harry Truman.

You know that in his later years, birthday celebrations were not Truman's favorite subject. When they planned a big Diamond Jubilee Celebration in honor of this 75th birthday at the Waldorf Astoria, he was asked what he thought about it and he said: "I'm against it." That would not be surprising for anyone who knew the energetic but unpretentious man.

One has the impression that the hoopla associated with such an event as well as the physical limitations that came with aging were an annoying distraction. Truman once said: "It is remarkable indeed how times flies and makes you an old man whether you want to be or not."

It is that level of honesty and humanity that makes Harry Truman a hero to so many. For those of us in Missouri, it is an appropriate time to remember Harry Truman. As leaders of our state, we face many of the challenges he faced.

Even though he faced tough economic times, he did not shy away from responsibility or leadership. He offered the American people straight talk and a plan for the future. His plan proposed reforms and some tough medicine, but it did not sacrifice the future.

Regardless of party affiliation, I believe that all who have been elected to public office by Missouri citizens share an affinity with Truman. I don't know about you, but I find myself from time to time leafing through the David McCullough book, or the Merle Miller book, for a few minutes of inspiration and good old Missouri common sense.

Truman accomplished a great deal as president. Domestically, he established the federal Commission on Civil Rights and brought about the desegregation of our military. He created the first federal housing policy and expanded Social Security and its benefits. He was responsible for the development of the community college and fought for funding for research universities.

On the foreign policy side, he helped bring about the ending of World War II and established the Marshall Plan to supply the aid to rebuild war torn Europe. And he initiated the Truman Doctrine, which set the American diplomatic policy for the next forty years of supporting free people who are fighting off outside forces.

Truman certainly did not have the aspirations of ever being President. But as Vice President, the heavy responsibilities of the job fell on him when President Franklin Roosevelt died in office. He admitted to being scared and said he "felt like the moon, the stars, and all the planets had fallen" on him. And perhaps that is why we are so inspired by Truman. He was honest, humble, and straight talking. What most of us would call just a regular guy. He played the piano and he played poker. He sometimes drank whiskey and sometimes used colorful language. He was short and wore thick glasses.

But this ordinary man elevated by unique circumstances became an extraordinary president...one of the most admired and respected in history, even though people did not realize at the time what a great place in history he would hold. In fact, many of the decisions Truman made were politically unpopular in his day.

But Truman obviously was driven by a higher calling. He said what he thought and always stood up for what he believed to be right...no matter which way the political winds were blowing. He was willing to make political sacrifices to secure a better future for the world. We could have told them what an outstanding President Harry Truman would make.

Because we know Harry Truman came from that kind of hard working Missouri stock that gets the job done. And that's why we Missourians are extremely proud to call him our favorite son and wish him a happy birthday today.

On his 75th birthday, in an interview with a reporter, President Truman stated some personal convictions that are good advice at any time.

He said: "As for being seventy-five, I never look back. I look forward. I'm an optimist, you know. I have great faith. I've always said our problems will be solved by common sense and good will."

Not bad words for us to remember in these closing days of the legislative session. Thank you.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY, FRIDAY, MAY 9, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Betty Thompson.

I thank God for another day, a day that You and I have never seen before. But a day that will make us a little bit better. We ask the Lord to bless each legislator, our families and the people we serve. Dear God, help us to understand why we're here and that we may effectively help the people we serve.

As we vote on issues, Dear God, that effect all people, give us the courage, strength, hope, faith and right guidance. As this session nears an end, help us to be more kind and more loving toward each other. We ask at this dark hour to shower Your many blessings upon us and pray in Your name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Will Corrigan.

The Journal of the sixty-seventh day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-NINTH DAY, MONDAY, MAY 12, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God, Creative Spirit, we thanked You yesterday for our mothers. You are a God of all societies, families, and communities. We trust that You attend here in the body politic as well. Gather all of us here into Your midst, that these men and women discover again in their centers and souls energy, strength, and wisdom – gifts of Your making.

During this, the last week of this 2003 Legislative Session, we especially need Your ingenious and resourceful company in our words and work. May the fatigue of long hours, difficult judgments and decisions, and many votes not sway the hope that in the middle of our lives dwells the presence of the heart of all societies and nations, You who live with us and guide us forever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was lead by MarQuan Pennington.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: MarQuan Pennington.

The Journal of the sixty-eighth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

The ballot of submission shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall the (name of district) impose a sales tax of (insert rate) to fund the acquisition, construction, maintenance, operation, improvement, and promotion of an exhibition center and recreational facilities?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast favor the proposal, then the sales tax shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar quarter immediately following the election. If a majority of the votes cast oppose the proposal, then the district shall not impose the sales tax authorized in this section until after the district has submitted another such sales tax proposal and the proposal is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. However, if a sales tax proposal is not approved, the district shall not resubmit a proposal to the voters pursuant to this section sooner than twelve months from the date of the last proposal submitted pursuant to this section.

9. There is hereby created the "Exhibition Center and Recreational Facility District Sales Tax Trust Fund", which shall consist of all revenue collected pursuant to this section. The director of revenue shall be custodian of the trust fund, and moneys in the trust fund shall be used solely for the purposes authorized in this section. Moneys in the trust fund shall be considered nonstate funds pursuant to section 15, article IV, Constitution of Missouri. The director of revenue shall invest moneys in the trust fund in the same manner as other funds are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the trust fund. All sales taxes collected by the director of revenue pursuant to this section on behalf of the district, less one percent for the cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state's general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087, RSMo, shall be deposited in the trust fund. The director of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of moneys in the trust fund which was collected in the district imposing a sales tax pursuant to this section, and the records shall be open to the inspection of the officers of each district and the general public. Not later than the tenth day of each month, the director of revenue shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month to the district. The director of revenue may authorize refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to the district for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of the district.

10. The sales tax authorized by this section is in addition to all other sales taxes allowed by law. Except as modified in this section, all provisions of sections 32.085 and 32.087, RSMo, apply to the sales tax imposed pursuant to this section.

11. Any sales tax imposed pursuant to this section shall reduce to a rate of one-tenth of one percent twenty-five years from the effective date of the sales tax unless an extension of the sales tax is submitted to and approved by the qualified voters in each district in the manner provided in this section. Each extension of the sales tax shall be for a period not to exceed twenty years. The ballot of submission for the extension shall be in substantially the following form:

Shall the (name of district) extend the sales tax of (insert rate) for a period of (insert number of years) years to fund the acquisition, construction, maintenance, operation, improvement, and promotion of an exhibition center and recreational facilities?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast favor the extension, then the sales tax shall remain in effect at the rate and for the time period approved by the voters. If a majority of the votes cast oppose the extension, then the district shall reduce the sales tax rate to one-tenth of one percent. If a sales tax extension is not approved, the district may submit another sales tax proposal as authorized in this section, but the district shall not submit such a proposal to the voters sooner than twelve months from the date of the last extension submitted.

12. Once the sales tax authorized by this section is abolished or terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the trust fund shall be used solely for the purposes approved in the ballot question authorizing the sales tax. The sales tax shall not be abolished or terminated while the district has any financing or other obligations outstanding. Any funds in the trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures may be invested by the district in the securities described in subdivisions (1) to (12) of subsection 1 of section 30.270, RSMo, or repurchase agreements secured by such securities. If the district abolishes the sales tax, the district shall notify the director of revenue of the action at least ninety days before the effective date of the repeal, and the director of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the sales tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the sales tax in the district, the director of revenue shall remit the balance in the account to the district and close the account of the district. The director of revenue shall notify the district of each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the district.

13. In the event that the district is dissolved or terminated by any means, the governing bodies of the counties in the district shall appoint a person to act as trustee for the district so dissolved or terminated. Before beginning the discharge of duties, the trustee shall take and subscribe an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of the office, and shall give bond with sufficient security, approved by the governing bodies of the counties, to the use of the dissolved or terminated district, for the faithful discharge of duties. The trustee shall have and exercise all powers necessary to liquidate the district, and upon satisfaction of all remaining obligations of the district, shall pay over to the county treasurer of each county in the district and take receipt for all remaining moneys in amounts based on the ratio the levy of each county bears to the total levy for the district in the previous three years or since the establishment of the district, whichever time period is shorter. Upon payment to the county treasurers, the trustee shall deliver to the clerk of the governing body of any county in the district all books, papers, records, and deeds belonging to the dissolved district.

14. After August 28, 2003, any county of the first classification with more than one hundred thirty-five thousand four hundred but less than one hundred thirty-five thousand five hundred inhabitants may create a district in any unincorporated area of the county, or in any incorporated area of the county upon approval of the governing body of the incorporated area by ordinance, pursuant to this section upon the filing of the required petition signed by all of the owners of property within the proposed district with the governing body of the county and upon unanimous approval of all owners of property within the district of the order creating the district and the proposed sales tax ballot question. In the event that any county creates a district pursuant to this subsection, and no registered voters reside within the boundaries of the district, the proposed sales tax ballot question and the extension of the sales tax authorized by this section shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the county.

67.2015. 1. The governing body of any county of the third classification without a township form of government and with more than eight thousand three hundred but less than eight thousand four hundred inhabitants may impose, by ordinance or order, a surcharge on the sale of each ticket or other charge allowing admission to or participation in any private tourist attraction and on the daily rental of rooms or accommodations paid by transient guests of hotels, motels or campgrounds, as defined in section 94.802, RSMo, in such county, at a rate not to exceed five percent of such admission or amount. For purposes of this section, "private tourist attraction" means:

- (1) Organized trail rides; and
- (2) Canoe rentals.

Attractions operating on an occasional or intermittent basis for fund-raising purposes by nonprofit charitable organizations whose ordinary activities do not involve the operation of such attractions shall be exempt from the surcharge imposed by this section.

2. Every retailer, vendor, operator, and other person who sells goods and services subject to the surcharge imposed pursuant to this section shall be liable and responsible for the payment of surcharges due and shall make a return and remit such surcharges to the county, at such times and in such manner as the governing body of the county shall prescribe. The collection of the surcharges imposed by this section shall be computed in accordance with schedules or systems approved by the governing body of the county.

3. All surcharges authorized and collected under this section shall be deposited by the county in a special trust fund to be known as the "County Tourism Surcharge Trust Fund". The moneys in such fund shall not be commingled with any funds of the county. Moneys in the fund shall be used solely by the county for the promotion of tourism within the county. The surcharge authorized by this section shall be in addition to any and all other taxes allowed by law, but no order imposing a surcharge pursuant to this section shall be effective unless the governing body of the county submits to the voters of the county at a county or state general, primary, or special election a proposal to authorize the governing body of the county to impose such surcharge.

4. The ballot of submission shall contain, but need not be limited to:

Shall the county of (insert name of county) impose a surcharge of (insert rate of tax) percent on the sales, charges or admissions on all hotels, motels or campgrounds rented for thirty days or less, and on the sales, charges or admissions to all private tourist attractions in the county?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, then the order imposing the surcharge shall be effective. If a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters voting on the proposal are opposed to the proposal, then the governing body of the county shall have no power to impose the surcharge authorized in this section unless and until the governing body of the county again submits another proposal to authorize the governing body of the county to impose the surcharge authorized by this section, and such proposal is approved by the requisite majority of the qualified voters voting thereon.

5. The surcharge authorized by this section shall become effective within ninety days from the date such surcharges are approved by the voters of the county pursuant to this section. After the effective date of any surcharge imposed by this section, the county shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the surcharge. The surcharge imposed by this section shall be reported upon such forms as may be prescribed by the governing body of the county."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 20, Section 473.730, Line 3 of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“558.019. 1. This section shall not be construed to affect the powers of the governor under article IV, section 7, of the Missouri Constitution. This statute shall not affect those provisions of section 565.020, RSMo, section 558.018 or section 571.015, RSMo, which set minimum terms of sentences, or the provisions of section 559.115, RSMo, relating to probation.

2. The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all classes of felonies except those set forth in chapter 195, RSMo, and those otherwise excluded in subsection 1 of this section. For the purposes of this section, "prison commitment" means and is the receipt by the department of corrections of a defendant after sentencing. For purposes of this section, prior prison commitments to the department of corrections shall not include commitment to a regimented discipline program established pursuant to section 217.378, RSMo. Other provisions of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, any defendant who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of a felony other than a dangerous felony as defined in section 556.061, RSMo, and is committed to the department of corrections shall be required to serve the following minimum prison terms:

(1) If the defendant has one previous prison commitment to the department of corrections for a felony offense, the minimum prison term which the defendant must serve shall be forty percent of his sentence or until the defendant attains seventy years of age, and has served at least forty percent of the sentence imposed, whichever occurs first;

(2) If the defendant has two previous prison commitments to the department of corrections for felonies unrelated to the present offense, the minimum prison term which the defendant must serve shall be fifty percent of his sentence or until the defendant attains seventy years of age, and has served at least forty percent of the sentence imposed, whichever occurs first;

(3) If the defendant has three or more previous prison commitments to the department of corrections for felonies unrelated to the present offense, the minimum prison term which the defendant must serve shall be eighty percent of his sentence or until the defendant attains seventy years of age, and has served at least forty percent of the sentence imposed, whichever occurs first.

3. Other provisions of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, any defendant who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of a dangerous felony as defined in section 556.061, RSMo, and is committed to the department of corrections shall be required to serve a minimum prison term of eighty-five percent of the sentence imposed by the court or until the defendant attains seventy years of age, and has served at least forty percent of the sentence imposed, whichever occurs first.

4. For the purpose of determining the minimum prison term to be served, the following calculations shall apply:

(1) A sentence of life shall be calculated to be thirty years;

(2) Any sentence either alone or in the aggregate with other consecutive sentences for crimes committed at or near the same time which is over seventy-five years shall be calculated to be seventy-five years.

5. For purposes of this section, the term "minimum prison term" shall mean time required to be served by the defendant before he is eligible for parole, conditional release or other early release by the department of corrections. Except that the board of probation and parole, in the case of consecutive sentences imposed at the same time pursuant to a course of conduct constituting a common scheme or plan, shall be authorized to convert consecutive sentences to concurrent sentences, when the board finds, after hearing with notice to the prosecuting or circuit attorney, that the sum of the terms results in an unreasonably excessive total term, taking into consideration all factors related to the crime or crimes committed and the sentences received by others similarly situated.

6. (1) A sentencing advisory commission is hereby created to consist of eleven members. One member shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. One member shall be appointed by the president pro tem of the senate. One member shall be the director of the department of corrections. Six members shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the governor from among the following: the public defender commission; private citizens; a private member of the Missouri Bar; the board of probation and parole; and a prosecutor. Two members shall be appointed by the supreme court, one from a metropolitan area and one from a rural area. All members of the sentencing commission appointed prior to August 28, 1994, shall continue to serve on the sentencing advisory commission at the pleasure of the governor.

(2) The commission shall study sentencing practices in the circuit courts throughout the state for the purpose of determining whether and to what extent disparities exist among the various circuit courts with respect to the length of sentences imposed and the use of probation for defendants convicted of the same or similar crimes and with similar criminal histories. The commission shall also study and examine whether and to what extent sentencing disparity among economic and social classes exists in relation to the sentence of death and if so, the reasons therefor. It shall compile statistics, examine cases, draw conclusions, and perform other duties relevant to the research and investigation of disparities in death penalty sentencing among economic and social classes.

(3) The commission shall establish a system of recommended sentences, within the statutory minimum and maximum sentences provided by law for each felony committed under the laws of this state. This system of recommended sentences shall be distributed to all sentencing courts within the state of Missouri. The recommended sentence for each crime shall take into account, but not be limited to, the following factors:

(a) The nature and severity of each offense;

(b) The record of prior offenses by the offender;
(c) The data gathered by the commission showing the duration and nature of sentences imposed for each crime;
and

(d) The resources of the department of corrections and other authorities to carry out the punishments that are imposed.

(4) The commission shall publish and distribute its system of recommended sentences on or before July 1, 1995. The commission shall study the implementation and use of the system of recommended sentences until July 1, 1998, and return a final report to the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the president pro tem of the senate. Following the July 1, 1998, report, the commission may revise the recommended sentences every three years.

(5) The governor shall select a chairperson who shall call meetings of the commission as required or permitted pursuant to the purpose of the sentencing commission.

(6) The members of the commission shall not receive compensation for their duties on the commission, but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of these duties and for which they are not reimbursed by reason of their other paid positions.

(7) The circuit and associate circuit courts of this state, the office of the state courts administrator, the department of public safety, and the department of corrections shall cooperate with the commission by providing information or access to information needed by the commission. The office of the state courts administrator will provide needed staffing resources.

7. If the imposition or execution of a sentence is suspended, the court may consider ordering restorative justice methods pursuant to section 217.777, RSMo, including any or all of the following, or any other method that the court finds just or appropriate:

- (1) Restitution to any victim for costs incurred as a result of the offender's actions;
- (2) Offender treatment programs;
- (3) Mandatory community services;
- (4) Work release programs in local facilities; and
- (5) Community-based residential and nonresidential programs.

8. If the imposition or execution of a sentence is suspended, in addition to the provisions of subsection 7 of this section, the court may order the assessment and payment of a designated amount of money to a county crime reduction fund established by the county commission pursuant to section 50.565, RSMo. Such contribution shall not exceed one thousand dollars for any charged offense. Any money deposited into the county crime reduction fund pursuant to this section shall only be expended pursuant to the provisions of section 50.565, RSMo. County crime reduction funds shall be audited as are all other county funds.

[7.] 9. The provisions of this section shall apply only to offenses occurring on or after August 28, 1994.”; and “559.021. 1. The conditions of probation shall be such as the court in its discretion deems reasonably necessary to ensure that the defendant will not again violate the law. When a defendant is placed on probation he shall be given a certificate explicitly stating the conditions on which he is being released.

2. In addition to such other authority as exists to order conditions of probation, the court may order such conditions as the court believes will serve to compensate the victim, any dependent of the victim, or society. Such conditions may include, but shall not be limited to:

- (1) Restitution to the victim or any dependent of the victim, in an amount to be determined by the judge; and
- (2) The performance of a designated amount of free work for a public or charitable purpose, or purposes, as determined by the judge.

3. In addition to such other authority as exists to order conditions of probation, in the case of a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt, the court may order the assessment and payment of a designated amount of money to a county crime reduction fund established by the county commission pursuant to section 50.565, RSMo. Such contribution shall not exceed one thousand dollars for any charged offense. Any money deposited into the county crime reduction fund pursuant to this section shall only be expended pursuant to the provisions of section 50.565, RSMo. County crime reduction funds shall be audited as are all other county funds.

[3.] 4. The defendant may refuse probation conditioned on the performance of free work. If he does so, the court shall decide the extent or duration of sentence or other disposition to be imposed and render judgment accordingly. Any county, city, person, organization, or agency, or employee of a county, city, organization or agency charged with the supervision of such free work or who benefits from its performance shall be immune from any suit by the defendant or any person deriving a cause of action from him if such cause of action arises from such supervision of performance, except for an intentional tort or gross negligence. The services performed by the defendant shall not be deemed employment within the meaning of the provisions of chapter 288, RSMo. A defendant performing services pursuant to this section shall not be deemed an employee within the meaning of the provisions of chapter 287, RSMo.

[4.] 5. The court may modify or enlarge the conditions of probation at any time prior to the expiration or termination of the probation term.

6. The defendant may refuse probation conditioned on a payment to a county crime reduction fund. If he or she does so, the court shall decide the extent or duration of sentence or other disposition to be imposed and render judgment accordingly. A judge may order payment to a crime reduction fund only if such fund had been created prior to sentencing by ordinance or resolution of a county of the state of Missouri. A judge shall not have any direct supervisory authority or administrative control over any fund to which the judge is ordering the probationers to make payments. A defendant who fails to make a payment or payments to a county crime reduction fund may not have his probation revoked solely for failing to make such payment unless the judge, after evidentiary hearing, makes a finding supported by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant either willfully refused to make the payment or that the defendant willfully, intentionally, and purposefully failed to make sufficient bona fide efforts to acquire the resources to pay.”; and

[If a court order has not been previously entered or if a support order has been entered but is not entitled to recognition pursuant to sections 454.850 to 454.997,] the director may issue a notice and finding of financial responsibility to a parent who owes a state debt or who is responsible for the support of a child on whose behalf the custodian of that child is receiving support enforcement services from the division pursuant to section 454.425 if a court order has not been previously entered against that parent or if a support order from another state has been entered but is not entitled to recognition pursuant to sections 454.850 to 454.997. A copy of the notice and finding shall be mailed to the last known address of both parents and any person or agency having custody of the child within fourteen days of the issuance of such notice and finding. When appropriate to the circumstances of the individual action, the notice shall state:

(1) The name of the person or agency with custody of the dependent child and the name of the dependent child for whom support is to be paid;

(2) The monthly future support for which the parent shall be responsible;

(3) The state debt, if any, accrued and accruing, and the monthly payment to be made on the state debt which has accrued;

(4) A statement of the costs of collection, including attorney's fees, which may be assessed against the parent;

(5) That the parent shall be responsible for providing medical insurance for the dependent child;

(6) That if a parent desires to discuss the amount of support that should be paid, the parent or person having custody of the child may, within twenty days after being served, contact the division office which sent the notice and request a negotiation conference. The other parent or person having custody of the child shall be notified of the negotiated conference and may participate in the conference. If no agreement is reached on the monthly amount to be paid, the director may issue a new notice and finding of financial responsibility, which may be sent to the parent required to pay support by regular mail addressed to the parent's last known address or, if applicable, the parent's attorney's last known address. A copy of the new notice and finding shall be sent by regular mail to the other parent or person having custody of the child;

(7) That if a parent or person having custody of the child objects to all or any part of the notice and finding of financial responsibility and no negotiation conference is requested, within twenty days of the date of service the parent or person having custody of the child shall send to the division office which issued the notice a written response which sets forth any objections and requests a hearing; and, that if the director issues a new notice and finding of financial responsibility, the parent or person having custody of the child shall have twenty days from the date of issuance of the new notice to send a hearing request;

(8) That if such a timely response is received by the appropriate division office, and if such response raises factual questions requiring the submission of evidence, the parent or person having custody of the child shall have the right to a hearing before an impartial hearing officer who is an attorney licensed to practice law in Missouri and, that if no timely written response is received, the director may enter an order in accordance with the notice and finding of financial responsibility;

(9) That the parent has the right to be represented at the hearing by an attorney of the parent's own choosing;

(10) That the parent or person having custody of the child has the right to obtain evidence and examine witnesses as provided for in chapter 536, RSMo, together with an explanation of the procedure the parent or person having custody of the child shall follow in order to exercise such rights;

(11) That as soon as the order is entered, the property of the parent required to pay support shall be subject to collection actions, including, but not limited to, wage withholding, garnishment, liens, and execution thereon;

(12) A reference to sections 454.460 to 454.510;

(13) That the parent is responsible for notifying the division of any change of address or employment;

(14) That if the parent has any questions, the parent should telephone or visit the appropriate division office or consult an attorney; and

(15) Such other information as the director finds appropriate.

2. The statement of periodic future support required by subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of this section is to be computed as follows:

(1) If there is sufficient information available to the division regarding the parent's financial and living situation, the scale and formula provided for in section 454.480 shall be used; or

(2) If there is insufficient information available to use the scale and formula, an estimate of ability to pay shall be the basis of the statement.

3. Any time limits for notices or requests may be extended by the director, and such extension shall have no effect on the jurisdiction of the court, administrative body, or other entity having jurisdiction over the proceedings.

4. If a timely written response setting forth objections and requesting a hearing is received by the appropriate division office, and if such response raises a factual question requiring the submission of evidence, a hearing shall be held in the manner provided by section 454.475. If no timely written response and request for hearing is received by the appropriate division office, the director may enter an order in accordance with the notice, and shall specify:

(1) The amount of periodic support to be paid, with directions on the manner of payment;

(2) The amount of state debt, if any, accrued in favor of the department;

(3) The monthly payment to be made on state debt, if any;

(4) The amount of costs of collection, including attorney's fees, assessed against the parent;

(5) The name of the person or agency with custody of the dependent child and the name and birth date of the dependent child for whom support is to be paid;

(6) That the property of the parent is subject to collection actions, including, but not limited to, wage withholding, garnishment, liens, and execution thereon; and

(7) If appropriate, that the parent shall provide medical insurance for the dependent child, or shall pay the reasonable and necessary medical expenses of the dependent child.

5. The parent or person having custody of the child shall be sent a copy of the order by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the parent's last known address or, if applicable, the parent's attorney's last known address. The order is final, and action by the director to enforce and collect upon the order, including arrearages, may be taken from the date of issuance of the order. A copy of the order shall also be sent by regular mail to the person having custody of a child for whom an order is issued pursuant to this section.

6. Copies of the orders issued pursuant to this section shall be mailed within fourteen days of the issuance of the order.

7. Any parent or person having custody of the child who is aggrieved as a result of any allegation or issue of fact contained in the notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be afforded an opportunity for a hearing, upon the request in writing filed with the director not more than twenty days after service of the notice and finding is made upon such parent or person having custody of the child, and if in requesting such hearing, the aggrieved parent or person having custody of the child raises a factual issue requiring the submission of evidence.”; and on the registry” insert the words “unless the events which caused that person’s name to be placed on the registry are currently under investigation or an appeal of the division’s determination is currently pending”.

Senate Amendment No. 24

AMEND Senate Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 679 & 396, Page 70, Section 210.113, Line 18 of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“210.115. 1. When any physician, medical examiner, coroner, dentist, chiropractor, optometrist, podiatrist, resident, intern, nurse, hospital or clinic personnel that are engaged in the examination, care, treatment or research of persons, and any other health practitioner, psychologist, mental health professional, social worker, day care center worker or other child-care worker, juvenile officer, probation or parole officer, jail or detention center personnel, teacher, principal or other school official, minister as provided by section 352.400, RSMo, [Christian Science practitioner,] peace officer or law enforcement official, or other person with responsibility for the care of children has reasonable cause to suspect that a child has been or may be subjected to abuse or neglect or observes a child being subjected to conditions or circumstances which would reasonably result in abuse or neglect, that person shall immediately report or cause a report to be made to the division in accordance with the provisions of sections 210.109 to 210.183. As used in this section, the term “abuse” is not limited to abuse inflicted by a person responsible for the child’s care, custody and control as specified in section 210.110, but shall also include abuse inflicted by any other person.

2. Whenever such person is required to report pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183 in an official capacity as a staff member of a medical institution, school facility, or other agency, whether public or private, the person in charge or a designated agent shall be notified immediately. The person in charge or a designated agent shall then become responsible for immediately making or causing such report to be made to the division. Nothing in this section, however, is meant to preclude any person from reporting abuse or neglect.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 210.109 to 210.183, any child who does not receive specified medical treatment by reason of the legitimate practice of the religious belief of the child’s parents, guardian, or others legally responsible for the child, for that reason alone, shall not be found to be an abused or neglected child, and such parents, guardian or other persons legally responsible for the child shall not be entered into the central registry. However, the division may accept reports concerning such a child and may subsequently investigate or conduct a family assessment as a result of that report. Such an exception shall not limit the administrative or judicial authority of the state to ensure that medical services are provided to the child when the child’s health requires it.

4. In addition to those persons and officials required to report actual or suspected abuse or neglect, any other person may report in accordance with sections 210.109 to 210.183 if such person has reasonable cause to suspect that a child has been or may be subjected to abuse or neglect or observes a child being subjected to conditions or circumstances which would reasonably result in abuse or neglect.

5. Any person or official required to report pursuant to this section, including employees of the division, who has probable cause to suspect that a child who is or may be under the age of eighteen, who is eligible to receive a certificate of live birth, has died shall report that fact to the appropriate medical examiner or coroner. If, upon review of the circumstances and medical information, the medical examiner or coroner determines that the child died of natural causes while under medical care for an established natural disease, the coroner, medical examiner or physician shall notify the division of the child’s death and that the child’s attending physician shall be signing the death certificate. In all other cases, the medical examiner or coroner shall accept the report for investigation, shall immediately notify the division of the child’s death as required in section 58.452, RSMo, and shall report the findings to the child fatality review panel established pursuant to section 210.192.

6. Any person or individual required to report may also report the suspicion of abuse or neglect to any law enforcement agency or juvenile office. Such report shall not, however, take the place of reporting or causing a report to be made to the division.

7. If an individual required to report suspected instances of abuse or neglect pursuant to this section has reason to believe that the victim of such abuse or neglect is a resident of another state or was injured as a result of an act which occurred in another state, the person required to report such abuse or neglect may, in lieu of reporting to the Missouri division of family services, make such a report to the child protection agency of the other state with the authority to receive such reports pursuant to the laws of such other state. If such agency accepts the report, no report is required to be made, but may be made, to the Missouri division of family services.”; and

“352.400. 1. As used in this section, the following words and phrases shall mean:

(1) “Abuse”, any physical injury, sexual abuse, or emotional abuse, injury or harm to a child under circumstances required to be reported pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo;

(2) “Child”, any person regardless of physical or mental condition, under eighteen years of age;

(3) “Minister”, any person while practicing as a minister of the gospel, clergyperson, priest, rabbi, Christian Science practitioner, or other person serving in a similar capacity for any religious organization who is responsible for or who has supervisory authority over one who is responsible for the care, custody, and control of a child or has access to a child;

(4) “Neglect”, failure to provide the proper or necessary support or services by those responsible for the care, custody, and control of a child, under circumstances required to be reported pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo;

(5) “Religious organization”, any society, sect, persuasion, mission, church, parish, congregation, temple, convention or association of any of the foregoing, diocese or presbytery, or other organization, whether or not incorporated, that meets at more or less regular intervals for worship of a supreme being or higher power, or for mutual support or edification in piety or with respect to the idea that a minimum standard of behavior from the standpoint of overall morality is to be observed, or for the sharing of common religious bonds and convictions;

(6) “Report”, the communication of an allegation of abuse or neglect pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo.

2. When a minister or agent designated pursuant to subsection 3 of this section has reasonable cause to suspect that a child has been or may be subjected to abuse or neglect under circumstances required to be reported pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo, the minister or designated agent shall immediately report or cause a report to be made as provided in sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo, a minister shall not be required to report concerning a privileged communication made to him or her in his or her professional capacity.

3. A religious organization may designate an agent or agents required to report pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo, in an official capacity on behalf of the religious organization. In the event a minister, official or staff member of a religious organization has probable cause to believe that the child has been subjected to abuse or neglect under circumstances required to be reported pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo, and the minister, official or staff member of the religious organization does not personally make a report pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo, the designated agent of the religious organization shall be notified. The designated agent shall then become responsible for making or causing the report to be made pursuant to sections 210.109 to 210.183, RSMo. This section shall not preclude any person from reporting abuse or neglect as otherwise provided by law.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

AMEND Senate Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 679 & 396, Page 183, Section 3, Line 11 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“Section 4. For the purposes of proceedings and investigations conducted pursuant to chapter 211, RSMo, nonmarital children shall not be discriminated against because their biological parents are not married. Children shall be promptly returned to the care and custody of a non-offending biological parent without regard for marital status where:

(1) The unmarried parents have continuously maintained joint domicile for a period of at least six months prior to the alleged incident, or where the parents are maintaining separate households; and

(2) Where a preponderance of the evidence indicates that only one of the parents is the subject of an investigation of abuse or neglect; and

(3) The non-offending parent does not have a history of criminal behavior, drug or alcohol abuse, child abuse, or child neglect, within the past five years; and

(4) Where the biological parents are maintaining joint domicile and offending parent is removed from the home either voluntarily or involuntarily, or when the biological parents live separately and the child must be removed from the home of the custodial parent; and

(5) A non-offending parent requests custody of the child and agrees to cooperate with any orders of the court limiting contact or establishing visitation with the abusive parent and the non-offending parent complies with such orders; and

(6) When the biological parents maintain joint domicile, it shall be presumed that the offending parent has given permission for the non-offending parent to live in the household; and

(7) The court shall order either a temporary or permanent change of custody of the child if the non-offending parent does not have legal custody of the child, and shall order modifications to any welfare benefits which may be required to assure the well being of the child.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTIETH DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 13, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, we declare this truth from Your Word, "You have been my stronghold and a refuge in the day of my distress. Trust in Him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us." We take this moment to give thanks to You for never giving up on us as we sought to complete our part of Your plan for this state.

We acknowledge that there is more, so much more concerning that plan. We haven't completed it yet. Continue to speak through us and bring change to things that could not be changed any other way.

The plans of the heart belong to man, but we expectantly await Your answer. This we do know, we may plan all kinds of things, but only Your will is going to be done.

Now may the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Your sight this day and forever.

To You be the glory, both now and forever, in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Justice Butterfield, Tiffany Clark, Alex Puckett, Joel Stunz, Katey Thompson, Rose Anderson, Robert Schaaf, Renee Schaaf and Lance Uthe.

The Journal of the sixty-ninth day was approved as corrected.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 2, Page 48, Section 288.395, Line 13, by inserting after said line the following:

"288.500. 1. There is created under this section a voluntary "Shared Work Unemployment Compensation Program". In connection therewith, the division may adopt rules and establish procedures, not inconsistent with this section, which are necessary to administer this program.

2. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "Affected unit", a specified department, shift, or other unit of three or more employees which is designated by an employer to participate in a shared work plan;

(2) "Division", the division of employment security;

(3) "Fringe benefit", health insurance, a retirement benefit received under a pension plan, a paid vacation day, a paid holiday, sick leave, and any other analogous employee benefit that is provided by an employer;

(4) "Normal weekly hours of work", as to any individual, the lesser of forty hours or the average obtained by dividing the total number of hours worked per week in the preceding twelve-week period by the number twelve;

(5) "Participating employee", an employee who works a reduced number of hours under a shared work plan;

(6) "Participating employer", an employer who has a shared work plan in effect;

(7) "Shared work benefit", an unemployment compensation benefit that is payable to an individual in an affected unit because the individual works reduced hours under an approved shared work plan;

(8) "Shared work plan", a program for reducing unemployment under which employees who are members of an affected unit share the work remaining after a reduction in their normal weekly hours of work;

(9) "Shared work unemployment compensation program", a program designed to reduce unemployment and stabilize the work force by allowing certain employees to collect unemployment compensation benefits if the employees share the work remaining after a reduction in the total number of hours of work and a corresponding reduction in wages.

3. An employer who wishes to participate in the shared work unemployment compensation program established under this section shall submit a written shared work plan in a form acceptable to the division for approval. As a condition for approval by the division, a participating employer shall agree to furnish the division with reports relating to the operation of the shared work plan as requested by the division. The employer shall monitor and evaluate the operation of the established shared work plan as requested by the division and shall report the findings to the division.

4. The division may approve a shared work plan if:

(1) The employer has filed all reports required to be filed under this chapter for all past and current periods and has paid all contributions due for all past and current periods;

(2) The shared work plan applies to and identifies a specified affected unit;

(3) The employees in the affected unit are identified by name and Social Security number;

(4) The shared work plan reduces the normal weekly hours of work for an employee in the affected unit by not less than twenty percent and not more than forty percent;

(5) The shared work plan applies to at least ten percent of the employees in the affected unit;

(6) The shared work plan describes the manner in which the participating employer treats the fringe benefits of each employee in the affected unit; and

(7) The employer certifies that the implementation of a shared work plan and the resulting reduction in work hours is in lieu of temporary layoffs that would affect at least ten percent of the employees in the affected unit and that would result in an equivalent reduction in work hours.

5. If any of the employees who participate in a shared work plan under this section are covered by a collective bargaining agreement, the shared work plan shall be approved in writing by the collective bargaining agent.

6. No shared work plan which will subsidize seasonal employers during the off-season or subsidize employers, at least fifty percent of the employees of which have normal weekly hours of work equaling thirty-two hours or less, shall be approved by the division. No shared work plan benefits will be initiated for pay periods when the reduced hours reflect holiday earnings already committed to be paid by the employer.

7. The division shall approve or deny a shared work plan not later than the thirtieth day after the day on which the shared work plan is received by the division. The division shall approve or deny a plan in writing. If the division denies a plan, the division shall notify the employer of the reasons for the denial. Approval or denial of a plan by the division shall be final and such determination shall be subject to review in the manner otherwise provided by law. If approval of a plan is denied by the division, the employer may submit a new plan to the division for consideration no sooner than forty-five calendar days following the date on which the division disapproved the employer's previously submitted plan.

8. The division may revoke approval of a shared work plan and terminate the plan if it determines that the shared work plan is not being executed according to the terms and intent of the shared work unemployment compensation program, or if it is determined by the division that the approval of the shared work plan was based, in whole or in part, upon information contained in the plan which was either false or substantially misleading.

9. Each shared work plan approved by the division shall become effective on the first day of the week in which it is approved by the division or on a later date as specified in the shared work plan. Each shared work plan approved by the division shall expire on the last day of the twelfth full calendar month after the effective date of such shared work plan.

10. An employer may modify a shared work plan created under this section to meet changed conditions if the modification conforms to the basic provisions of the shared work plan as originally approved by the division. The employer shall report the changes made to the plan in writing to the division at least seven days before implementing such changes. The division shall reevaluate the shared work plan and may approve the modified shared work plan if it meets the requirements for approval under subsection 4 of this section. The approval of a modified shared work plan shall not, under any circumstances, affect the expiration date originally set for the shared work plan. If modifications cause the shared work plan to fail to meet the requirements for approval, the division shall deny approval of the modifications as provided in subsection 7 of this section.

11. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, an individual is unemployed for the purposes of this section in any week in which the individual, as an employee in an affected unit, works less than his normal weekly hours of work in accordance with an approved shared work plan in effect for that week.

12. An individual who is otherwise entitled to receive regular unemployment insurance benefits under this chapter shall be eligible to receive shared work benefits with respect to any week in which the division finds that:

(1) The individual is employed as a member of an affected unit subject to a shared work plan that was approved before the week in question and is in effect for that week;

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 288.040, the individual is able to work, available for work and works all available hours with the participating employer;

(3) The individual's normal weekly hours of work have been reduced by at least twenty percent but not more than forty percent, with a corresponding reduction in wages; and

(4) The individual has served a "waiting week" as defined in section 288.030.

13. A waiting week served under the provisions of subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 288.040 shall serve to meet the requirements of subdivision (4) of subsection 12 of this section and a waiting week served under the provisions of subdivision (4) of subsection 12 of this section shall serve to meet the requirements of section 288.040. If the waiting week becomes payable, it shall be paid according to the law governing the program under which it was served. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, an individual who files a new initial claim during the pendency of the twelve-month period in which a shared work plan is in effect shall serve a waiting week whether or not the individual has served a waiting week under this subsection.

14. The division shall not deny shared work benefits for any week to an otherwise eligible individual by reason of the application of any provision of this chapter that relates to availability for work, active search for work, or refusal to apply for or accept work with an employer other than the participating employer under the plan.

15. The division shall pay an individual who is eligible for shared work benefits under this section a weekly shared work benefit amount equal to the individual's regular weekly benefit amount for a period of total unemployment less any deductible amounts under this chapter except wages received from any employer, multiplied by the full percentage of reduction in the individual's hours as set forth in the employer's shared work plan. If the shared work benefit amount calculated under this subsection is not a multiple of one dollar, the division shall round the amount so calculated to the next lowest multiple of one dollar. An individual shall be ineligible for shared work benefits for any week in which the individual performs paid work for the participating employer in excess of the reduced hours established under the shared work plan.

16. An individual shall not be entitled to receive shared work benefits and regular unemployment compensation benefits in an aggregate amount which exceeds the maximum total amount of benefits payable to that individual in a benefit year as provided under section 288.038. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, an individual shall not be eligible to receive shared work benefits for more than twenty-six calendar weeks during the twelve-month period of the shared work plan. No week shall be counted as a week of unemployment for the purposes of this subsection unless it occurs within the twelve-month period of the shared work plan.

17. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, all benefits paid under a shared work plan, which are chargeable to the participating employer or any other base period employer of a participating employee shall be charged to the account of the participating employer under the plan.

18. An individual who has received all of the shared work benefits and regular unemployment compensation benefits available in a benefit year is an exhaustee under section 288.062 and is entitled to receive extended benefits under section 288.062 if the individual is otherwise eligible under that section.

Representative Purgason offered HS SS#2 SB 695, as amended.

Representative Bearden offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Bill 695, Section 208.015, Page 3, Lines 7-13 by deleting all of said lines; and

Further amend said bill, Section 208.151, Page 13, Line 10, by inserting after the word “level” on said line the following:

“Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if in any given fiscal year moneys are not appropriated for coverage of medical assistance for persons whose income, calculated using less restrictive income methodologies, as authorized in 452 U.S.C. section 1396 (r)(2), exceeds eighty percent of the federal poverty level, those persons will not be eligible for old age assistance benefits, permanent and total disability benefits, or aid to the blind benefits in that fiscal year.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 208.151, Pages 13 and 14, Lines 20 through 25 on Page 13, and Lines 1 through 3 on Page 14, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“disability benefits shall not be limited by age.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 208.152, Page 20, Lines 7-14, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(a) Effective July 1, 2003, any policy not already in existence imposing restrictions of payment for services authorized under subdivision 9 of subsection 1 of this section, including but not limited to prior authorization or preferred drug lists, shall only be implemented by rules and regulations pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo. Clinical edits and step therapy shall be considered a form of prior authorization for purposes of the rule making process.

(b) The department may conduct negotiations for supplemental rebates with individual manufacturers and such negotiations shall not have any predetermined discount levels.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, information disclosed by manufacturers or wholesalers pursuant to this chapter, or under an agreement with the division, is confidential and shall not be disclosed by the division or any other state agency or contractor therein in any form which discloses the identity of a specific manufacturer or wholesaler or the prices charged for drugs by such manufacturer or wholesaler, except to permit the state auditor to review the information provided in the division of medical services for rebate administration.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 208.152, Pages 29 and 30, Lines 17 through 25 on page 29, and Line 1 on Page 30, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“the state for goods or services described herein; except that, any payments made by recipients for nonemergency medically necessary transportation under this section shall be a credit against any payments owed by the state for such services. In the event a vendor of nonemergency medically necessary transportation does not receive co-payments pursuant to this section, then the vendor is not obligated to provide such services. If the vendor provides such services pursuant to orders of a court, or is mandated by the division of medical services or its successor, the vendor shall receive payments equal to the amounts of services rendered pursuant to the agreement with the division of medical services or its successor for such services.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 208.154, Pages 31 and 32, Lines 17 through 25 on page 31, and Lines 1 through 6 on Page 32, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“208.154 [If the funds at the disposal or which may be obtained by the division of family services] 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, [for the] payment of public assistance [money payment] benefits pursuant to section 208.015, RSMo, or the payment of medical assistance benefits pursuant to section 208.62, RSMo, may only be provided if appropriations are made available for such benefits.

2. If the funds available to the department of social services and its divisions for the payment of benefits pursuant to sections 208.015 and 208.162, RSMo [or to or on behalf of any person for medical assistance benefits] shall at any time become insufficient to pay the full amount thereof, the amount of any such [type of] payment [to or on behalf of each of such persons] shall be reduced pro rata [in proportion to such deficiency in the total amount available or to become available for such purpose].

3. If in any given fiscal year moneys are not appropriated to fund the benefits in sections 208.015 or 208.162, RSMo, such benefits shall not be provided and persons otherwise eligible for benefits will no longer be deemed eligible for such benefits during that fiscal year.

4. Resources available shall be documented by the moneys appropriated by law for the purposes described in this section, less actions by the governor pursuant to article IV, sections 26 and 27 of the Missouri constitution, and section 33.290, RSMo.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section 208.640, Page 40, Line 7, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“4. Any co-payments for which participants are responsible pursuant to this section shall be a credit against any payments owed by the state for such services, except that if such copayment is not paid by the participant, the state shall pay the amount of the credit to the provider if a claim is made to the division of medical services as outlined in subdivision c of subsection 5 of this section.

5. If a mandatory co-payment is not paid, the provider may:

a. Forego the co-payment; or

b. Make arrangements for future payments with the recipient; or

c. The provider shall make reasonable efforts to collect copays. After said efforts, the provider may file a claim with the division of medical services to report the non-payment and secure payment for the service from the division of medical services.

6. When the division of medical services receives a claim from a provider for non-payment of a mandatory co-payment, the division shall send a notice to the recipient. Such notice shall:

a. Request the recipient to reimburse the division of medical services for the mandatory co-payment made on the recipient's behalf;

b. Request information from the recipient to determine whether the mandatory co-payment was not made because of a change in the financial situation of the family; and

c. Advise the recipient of the possible loss of coverage under the program for up to six months if the recipient fails to provide three co-payments within a one-year period. The director of the department of social services shall apply to the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services for all waivers of requirements under federal law necessary to implement the provisions of this subdivision.”; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

The executive director shall determine those judges who indicate their desire to serve as special investigators and to investigate any and all complaints referred to them by the commission. The executive director shall maintain an updated list of those judges qualified and available for appointment to serve as special investigators. Such list shall be updated at least annually. The commission shall refer complaints to such special investigators on that list on a rotating schedule which ensures a random assignment of each special investigator. Each special investigator shall receive only one unrelated investigation at a time and shall not be assigned to a second or subsequent investigation until all other eligible investigators on the list have been assigned to an investigation. Such filing officers shall cooperate as necessary with the commission as reasonable and necessary to effectuate such purposes;

(4) Employ such personnel, including legal counsel, and contract for services including legal counsel, within the limits of its appropriation, as it deems necessary provided such legal counsel, either employed or contracted, represents the Missouri ethics commission before any state agency or before the courts at the request of the Missouri ethics commission. Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the Missouri ethics commission as provided for in subsection 2 of section 105.961; and

Committee on Small Business, Chairman St. Onge reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Small Business, to which was referred HR 887, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 887

WHEREAS, since many small businesses only have one choice for providing health care for their employees because they are unable to attract insurance carriers to provide them with less expensive and more flexible benefit options, small businesses in the United States are desperate to find more health insurance choices to provide affordable health care for their employees; and

WHEREAS, even though many small businesses have cut back on the health insurance coverage they provide and increased the costs to their employees, they are still finding it almost impossible to provide health insurance to their employees, which leaves employees uncovered and, therefore, increases the ranks of the employed but uninsured; and

WHEREAS, with small business creating up to 75% of net new jobs in the United States and with 56% of the 41.2 million uninsured in the country already either working a full-time, full-year job or depending upon a person who does, it is imperative that these individuals receive insurance through their employers; and

WHEREAS, currently only 61% of small businesses are offering health benefits, which is down from the 67% just three years ago, while more than two-thirds of Americans rely on their employer for health insurance; and

WHEREAS, the problem is especially acute for small businesses with less than fifty employees, where only 47% of employers currently provide health insurance benefits for their employees and only 24% of small businesses that employ "low wage" workers offer health plans; and

WHEREAS, volume purchasing of insurance is the key to reducing costs and improving benefit options for small employers, and by purchasing coverage through association health plans, small businesses can pool together nationally and prevent the isolation that drives up costs and reduces options; and

WHEREAS, on March 6, 2003, Senator Olympia Snowe introduced, with Senator Kit Bond and Senator Jim Talent of Missouri as co-sponsors, the "Small Business Health Fairness Act of 2003", or S.545, in the United States Senate; and

WHEREAS, this legislation amends Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 to improve access and choices for entrepreneurs with small businesses with respect to medical care for their employees, and will give small businesses the same market-based advantages and leverage that large employers and unions currently enjoy to provide health insurance for their employees by allowing small businesses to pool together nationally; and

WHEREAS, by permitting small businesses to purchase health insurance coverage for their employees through association health plans, small businesses will have the same advantages that large employers and unions currently have:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, hereby declare our support for and urge the 108th Congress of the United States to enact the "Small Business Health Fairness Act of 2003", S.545, introduced in the United States Senate by Senator Snowe and co-sponsored by both Senator Kit Bond and Senator Jim Talent of Missouri; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

Committee on Transportation and Motor Vehicles, Chairman Crawford reporting:

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Transportation and Motor Vehicles, to which was referred SB 598, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

COMMUNICATION

May 13, 2003

Steve Davis
Chief Clerk
Missouri House of Representatives
State Capitol Building
Jefferson City, MO 65101

I am writing to inform you, per RSMo 105.461, that my wife Jennifer Page has a contractual relationship with an entity that has a contract with St. Anthony's Hospital in St. Louis County to run their Acute Rehabilitation unit.

St. Anthony's Hospital currently receives inadequate reimbursement for Medicaid patients and it's survival as a trauma center for St. Louis County is at risk. Loss of trauma service would be devastating for our county. I intend to advocate for adequate reimbursement for St. Anthony's Hospital so that they may continue to serve my community.

Please contact me if you have any questions regarding my intentions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sam Page

HR 887 - St. Onge

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTY-FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Heavenly Father, You have said, "A truly wise person uses few words; a person with understanding is even-tempered." Help us to remain calm in the midst of adversity and those who would use fewer words with greater impact.

Lord God, in these final days of the session, we look to You for closure and pray a successful end. We pray that what was accomplished here this year would have long-term consequences for the restored health and prosperity of our state. Our hope is that we served well the people of this great state.

As we transition back to family and private life, may we be aware in the coming days and months, that what we say is tremendously powerful as well as what we don't say. May our greatest investment be in truth, wisdom, discipline and good sense, and may we never part with them.

Now may the grace of our Lord and the love of God be with us all. To You be the glory, both now and forever. In the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ashley Ledbetter, Brett McDonald, Chris Guzdial and Mary Cradick.

The Journal of the seventieth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

(1) “Appropriate pretax revenues”, the revenues necessary to produce net operating income equal to:

(a) The water corporation's weighted cost of capital multiplied by the net original cost of eligible infrastructure system replacements, including recognition of accumulated deferred income taxes and accumulated depreciation associated with eligible infrastructure system replacements which are included in a currently effective ISRS; and

(b) Recover state, federal, and local income or excise taxes applicable to such income; and

(c) Recover all other ISRS costs;

(2) “Commission”, the Missouri public service commission;

(3) “Eligible infrastructure system replacements”, water utility plant projects that:

(a) Replace or extend the useful life of existing infrastructure;

(b) Are in service and used and useful;

(c) Do not increase revenues by directly connecting the infrastructure replacement to new customers; and

(d) Were not included in the water corporation's rate base in its most recent general rate case;

(4) “ISRS”, infrastructure system replacement surcharge;

(5) “ISRS costs”, depreciation expenses, and property taxes that will be due within twelve months of the ISRS filing;

(6) “ISRS revenues”, revenues produced through an ISRS, exclusive of revenues from all other rates and charges;

(7) “Water corporation”, every corporation, company, association, joint stock company or association, partnership, and person, their lessees, trustees, or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling, or managing any plant or property, dam or water supply, canal, or power station, distributing or selling for distribution, or selling or supplying for gain any water to more than ten thousand customers;

(8) "Water utility plant projects", may consist only of the following:

- (a) Mains, and associated valves and hydrants, installed as replacements for existing facilities that have worn out or are in deteriorated condition;
- (b) Main cleaning and relining projects; and
- (c) Facilities relocations required due to construction or improvement of a highway, road, street, public way, or other public work by or on behalf of the United States, this state, a political subdivision of this state, or another entity having the power of eminent domain provided that the costs related to such projects have not been reimbursed to the water corporation.

393.1003. 1. Notwithstanding any provisions of chapter 386, RSMo, and this chapter to the contrary, as of August 28, 2003, a water corporation providing water service in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants may file a petition and proposed rate schedules with the commission to establish or change ISRS rate schedules that will allow for the adjustment of the water corporation's rates and charges to provide for the recovery of costs for eligible infrastructure system replacements made in such county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants; provided that an ISRS, on an annualized basis, must produce ISRS revenues of at least one million dollars but not in excess of ten percent of the water corporation's base revenue level approved by the commission in the water corporation's most recent general rate proceeding. An ISRS and any future changes thereto shall be calculated and implemented in accordance with the provisions of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006. ISRS revenues shall be subject to refund based upon a finding and order of the commission, to the extent provided in subsections 5 and 8 of section 393.1006.

2. The commission shall not approve an ISRS for a water corporation in a county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants that has not had a general rate proceeding decided or dismissed by issuance of a commission order within the past three years, unless the water corporation has filed for or is the subject of a new general rate proceeding.

3. In no event shall a water corporation collect an ISRS for a period exceeding three years unless the water corporation has filed for or is the subject of a new general rate proceeding; provided that the ISRS may be collected until the effective date of new rate schedules established as a result of the new general rate proceeding, or until the subject general rate proceeding is otherwise decided or dismissed by issuance of a commission order without new rates being established.

393.1006. 1. (1) At the time that a water corporation files a petition with the commission seeking to establish or change an ISRS, it shall submit proposed ISRS rate schedules and its supporting documentation regarding the calculation of the proposed ISRS with the petition, and shall serve the office of the public counsel with a copy of its petition, its proposed rate schedules and its supporting documentation.

(2) Upon the filing of a petition, and any associated rate schedules, seeking to establish or change an ISRS, the commission shall publish notice of the filing.

2. (1) When a petition, along with any associated proposed rate schedules, is filed pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006, the commission shall conduct an examination of the proposed ISRS.

(2) The staff of the commission may examine information of the water corporation to confirm that the underlying costs are in accordance with the provisions of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006, and to confirm proper calculation of the proposed charge, and may submit a report regarding its examination to the commission not later than sixty days after the petition is filed. No other revenue requirement or ratemaking issues shall be examined in consideration of the petition or associated proposed rate schedules filed pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006.

(3) The commission may hold a hearing on the petition and any associated rate schedules and shall issue an order to become effective not later than one hundred twenty days after the petition is filed.

(4) If the commission finds that a petition complies with the requirements of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006, the commission shall enter an order authorizing the water corporation to impose an ISRS that is sufficient to recover appropriate pretax revenues, as determined by the commission pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006.

3. A water corporation may effectuate a change in its rate pursuant to this section no more often than two times every twelve months.

4. In determining the appropriate pretax revenues, the commission shall consider only the following factors:

- (1) The current state, federal, and local income or excise tax rates;
- (2) The water corporation's actual regulatory capital structure as determined during the most recent general rate proceeding of the water corporation;
- (3) The actual cost rates for the water corporation's debt and preferred stock as determined during the most recent general rate proceeding of the water corporation;

(4) The water corporation's cost of common equity as determined during the most recent general rate proceeding of the water corporation;

(5) The current property tax rate or rates applicable to the eligible infrastructure system replacements;

(6) The current depreciation rates applicable to the eligible infrastructure system replacements;

(7) In the event information called for in subdivisions (2), (3), and (4) is unavailable and the commission is not provided with such information on an agreed-upon basis, the commission shall refer to the testimony submitted during the most recent general rate proceeding of the water corporation and use, in lieu of any such unavailable information, the recommended capital structure, recommended cost rates for debt and preferred stock, and recommended cost of common equity that would produce the average weighted cost of capital based upon the various recommendations contained in such testimony.

5. (1) An ISRS shall be calculated based upon the amount of ISRS costs that are eligible for recovery during the period in which the surcharge will be in effect and upon the applicable customer class billing determinants utilized in designing the water corporation's customer rates in its most recent general rate proceeding. The commission shall, however, only allow such surcharges to apply to classes of customers receiving a benefit from the subject water utility plant projects or shall prorate the surcharge according to the benefit received by each class of customers; provided that the ISRS shall be applied in a manner consistent with the customer class cost-of-service study recognized by the commission in the water corporation's most recent general rate proceeding, if applicable, and with the rate design methodology utilized to develop the water corporation's rates resulting from its most recent general rate proceeding.

(2) At the end of each twelve-month calendar period that an ISRS is in effect, the water corporation shall reconcile the differences between the revenues resulting from an ISRS and the appropriate pretax revenues as found by the commission for that period and shall submit the reconciliation and a proposed ISRS adjustment to the commission for approval to recover or refund the difference, as appropriate, through adjustment of an ISRS.

6. (1) A water corporation that has implemented an ISRS pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006 shall file revised rate schedules to reset the ISRS to zero when new base rates and charges become effective for the water corporation following a commission order establishing customer rates in a general rate proceeding that incorporates in the utility's base rates subject to subsections 8 and 9 of this section eligible costs previously reflected in an ISRS.

(2) Upon the inclusion in a water corporation's base rates subject to subsections 8 and 9 of this section of eligible costs previously reflected in an ISRS, the water corporation shall immediately thereafter reconcile any previously unreconciled ISRS revenues as necessary to ensure that revenues resulting from the ISRS match as closely as possible the appropriate pretax revenues as found by the commission for that period.

7. A water corporation's filing of a petition to establish or change an ISRS pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006 shall not be considered a request for a general increase in the water corporation's base rates and charges.

8. Commission approval of a petition, and any associated rate schedules, to establish or change an ISRS pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006 shall in no way be binding upon the commission in determining the ratemaking treatment to be applied to eligible infrastructure system replacements during a subsequent general rate proceeding when the commission may undertake to review the prudence of such costs. In the event the commission disallows, during a subsequent general rate proceeding, recovery of costs associated with eligible infrastructure system replacements previously included in an ISRS, the water corporation shall offset its ISRS in the future as necessary to recognize and account for any such overcollections.

9. Nothing contained in sections 393.1000 to 393.1006 shall be construed to impair in any way the authority of the commission to review the reasonableness of the rates or charges of a water corporation, including review of the prudence of eligible infrastructure system replacements made by a water corporation, pursuant to the provisions of section 386.390 RSMo.

10. The commission shall have authority to promulgate rules for the implementation of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006, but only to the extent such rules are consistent with, and do not delay the implementation of, the provisions of sections 393.1000 to 393.1006. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2003, shall be invalid and void.

- (1) "Appropriate pretax revenues", the revenues necessary to produce net operating income equal to:
 - (a) The gas corporation's weighted cost of capital multiplied by the net original cost of eligible infrastructure system replacements, including recognition of accumulated deferred income taxes and accumulated depreciation associated with eligible infrastructure system replacements which are included in a currently effective ISRS; and
 - (b) Recover state, federal, and local income or excise taxes applicable to such income; and
 - (c) Recover all other ISRS costs;
- (2) "Commission", the Missouri public service commission;
- (3) "Eligible infrastructure system replacements", gas utility plant projects that:
 - (a) Do not increase revenues by directly connecting the infrastructure replacement to new customers;
 - (b) Are in service and used and useful;
 - (c) Were not included in the gas corporation's rate base in its most recent general rate case; and
 - (d) Replace, or extend the useful life of an existing infrastructure;
- (4) "Gas corporation", every corporation, company, association, joint stock company or association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling, or managing any gas plant operating for public use under privilege, license, or franchise now or hereafter granted by the state or any political subdivision, county, or municipality thereof as defined in section 386.020, RSMo;
- (5) "Gas utility plant projects", may consist only of the following:
 - (a) Mains, valves, service lines, regulator stations, vaults, and other pipeline system components installed to comply with state or federal safety requirements as replacements for existing facilities that have worn out or are in deteriorated condition;
 - (b) Main relining projects, service line insertion projects, joint encapsulation projects, and other similar projects extending the useful life, or enhancing the integrity of pipeline system components undertaken to comply with state or federal safety requirements; and
 - (c) Facilities relocations required due to construction or improvement of a highway, road, street, public way, or other public work by or on behalf of the United States, this state, a political subdivision of this state, or another entity having the power of eminent domain provided that the costs related to such projects have not been reimbursed to the gas corporation;
- (6) "ISRS", infrastructure system replacement surcharge;
- (7) "ISRS costs", depreciation expense and property taxes that will be due within twelve months of the ISRS filing;
- (8) "ISRS revenues", revenues produced through an ISRS exclusive of revenues from all other rates and charges.

393.1012. 1. Notwithstanding any provisions of chapter 386, RSMo, and this chapter to the contrary, beginning August 28, 2003, a gas corporation providing gas service may file a petition and proposed rate schedules with the commission to establish or change ISRS rate schedules that will allow for the adjustment of the gas corporation's rates and charges to provide for the recovery of costs for eligible infrastructure system replacements. The commission may not approve an ISRS to the extent it would produce total annualized ISRS revenues below the lesser of one million dollars or one-half of one percent of the gas corporation's base revenue level approved by the commission in the gas corporation's most recent general rate proceeding. The commission may not approve an ISRS to the extent it would produce total annualized ISRS revenues exceeding ten percent of the gas corporation's base revenue level approved by the commission in the gas corporation's most recent general rate proceeding. An ISRS and any future changes thereto shall be calculated and implemented in accordance with the provisions of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015. ISRS revenues shall be subject to a refund based upon a finding and order of the commission to the extent provided in subsections 5 and 8 of section 393.1009.

2. The commission shall not approve an ISRS for any gas corporation that has not had a general rate proceeding decided or dismissed by issuance of a commission order within the past three years, unless the gas corporation has filed for or is the subject of a new general rate proceeding.

3. In no event shall a gas corporation collect an ISRS for a period exceeding three years unless the gas corporation has filed for or is the subject of a new general rate proceeding; provided that the ISRS may be collected until the effective date of new rate schedules established as a result of the new general rate proceeding, or until the subject general rate proceeding is otherwise decided or dismissed by issuance of a commission order without new rates being established.

393.1015. 1. (1) At the time that a gas corporation files a petition with the commission seeking the establish or change an ISRS, it shall submit proposed ISRS rate schedules and its supporting documentation regarding the calculation of the proposed ISRS with the petition, and shall serve the office of the public counsel with a copy of its petition, its proposed rate schedules, and its supporting documentation.

(2) Upon the filing of a petition, and any associated rate schedules, seeking to establish or change an ISRS, the commission shall publish notice of the filing.

2. (1) When a petition, along with any associated proposed rate schedules, is filed pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015, the commission shall conduct an examination of the proposed ISRS.

(2) The staff of the commission may examine information of the gas corporation to confirm that the underlying costs are in accordance with the provisions of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015, and to confirm proper calculation of the proposed charge, and may submit a report regarding its examination to the commission not later than sixty days after the petition is filed. No other revenue requirement or ratemaking issues may be examined in consideration of the petition or associated proposed rate schedules filed pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015.

(3) The commission may hold a hearing on the petition and any associated rate schedules and shall issue an order to become effective not later than one hundred twenty days after the petition is filed.

(4) If the commission finds that a petition complies with the requirements of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015, the commission shall enter an order authorizing the corporation to impose an ISRS that is sufficient to recover appropriate pretax revenue, as determined by the commission pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015.

3. A gas corporation may effectuate a change in its rate pursuant to the provisions of this section no more often than two times every twelve months.

4. In determining the appropriate pretax revenue, the commission shall consider only the following factors:

(1) The current state, federal, and local income tax or excise rates;

(2) The gas corporation's actual regulatory capital structure as determined during the most recent general rate proceeding of the gas corporation;

(3) The actual cost rates for the gas corporation's debt and preferred stock as determined during the most recent general rate proceeding of the gas corporation;

(4) The gas corporation's cost of common equity as determined during the most recent general rate proceeding of the gas corporation;

(5) The current property tax rate or rates applicable to the eligible infrastructure system replacements;

(6) The current depreciation rates applicable to the eligible infrastructure system replacements; and

(7) In the event information pursuant to subdivisions (2), (3), and (4) of this subsection is unavailable and the commission is not provided with such information on an agreed upon basis, the commission shall refer to the testimony submitted during the most recent general rate proceeding of the gas corporation and use, in lieu of any such unavailable information, the recommended capital structure, recommended cost rates for debt and preferred stock, and recommended cost of common equity that would produce the average weighted cost of capital based upon the various recommendations contained in such testimony.

5. (1) The monthly ISRS charge may be calculated based on a reasonable estimate of billing units in the period in which the charge will be in effect, which shall be conclusively established by dividing the appropriate pretax revenues by the customer numbers reported by the gas corporation in the annual report it most recently filed with the commission pursuant to subdivision (6) of section 393.140, and then further dividing this quotient by twelve. Provided, however, that the monthly ISRS may vary according to customer class and may be calculated based on customer numbers as determined during the most recent general rate proceeding of the gas corporation so long as the monthly ISRS for each customer class maintains a proportional relationship equivalent to the proportional relationship of the monthly customer charge for each customer class.

(2) At the end of each twelve month calendar period the ISRS is in effect, the gas corporation shall reconcile the differences between the revenues resulting from an ISRS and the appropriate pretax revenues as found by the commission for that period and shall submit the reconciliation and a proposed ISRS adjustment to the commission for approval to recover or refund the difference, as appropriate, through adjustments of an ISRS charge.

6. (1) A gas corporation that has implemented an ISRS pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015 shall file revised rate schedules to reset the ISRS to zero when new base rates and charges become effective for the gas corporation following a commission order establishing customer rates in a general rate proceeding that incorporates in the utility's base rates subject to subsections 8 and 9 of this section eligible costs previously reflected in an ISRS.

(2) Upon the inclusion in a gas corporation's base rates subject to subsections 8 and 9 of this section of eligible costs previously reflected in an ISRS, the gas corporation shall immediately thereafter reconcile any previously unreconciled ISRS revenues as necessary to ensure that revenues resulting from the ISRS match as closely as possible the appropriate pretax revenues as found by the commission for that period.

7. A gas corporation's filing of a petition or change an ISRS pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015 shall not be considered a request for a general increase in the gas corporation's base rates and charges.

8. Commission approval of a petition, and any associated rate schedules, to establish or change an ISRS pursuant to the provisions of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015 shall in no way be binding upon the commission in determining the ratemaking treatment to be applied to eligible infrastructure system replacements during a subsequent general rate proceeding when the commission may undertake to review the prudence of such costs. In the event the commission disallows, during a subsequent general rate proceeding, recovery of costs associated with eligible infrastructure system replacements previously included in an ISRS, the gas corporation shall offset its ISRS in the future as necessary to recognize and account for any such overcollections.

9. Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the authority of the commission to review and consider infrastructure system replacement costs along with other costs during any general rate proceeding of any gas corporation.

10. Nothing contained in sections 393.1009 to 393.1015 shall be construed to impair in any way the authority of the commission to review the reasonableness of the rates or charges of a gas corporation, including review of the prudence of eligible infrastructure system replacements made by a gas corporation, pursuant to the provisions of section 386.390, RSMo.

11. The commission shall have authority to promulgate rules for the implementation of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015, but only to the extent such rules are consistent with, and do not delay the implementation of, the provisions of sections 393.1009 to 393.1015. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2003, shall be invalid and void.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

4. A utility may not engage in or assist any affiliate or utility contractor in engaging in HVAC services in a manner which subsidizes the activities of such utility, affiliate or utility contractor to the extent of changing the rates or charges

The department shall, by regulation, establish eligibility criteria and inform the court of such criteria. The department shall notify the court as to the offender's eligibility and the availability of space in the program. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, except as provided for in section 558.019, RSMo, if an offender is eligible and there is adequate space, the court may sentence a person to the program which shall consist of institutional drug or alcohol treatment for a period of at least twelve and no more than twenty-four months, as well as a term of incarceration. The department shall determine the nature, intensity, duration, and completion criteria of the education, treatment, and aftercare portions of any program services provided. Execution of the offender's term of incarceration shall be suspended pending completion of said program. Allocation of space in the program may be distributed by the department in proportion to drug arrest patterns in the state. If the court is advised that an offender is not eligible or that there is no space available, the court shall consider other authorized dispositions.

3. [Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, upon successful completion of the program, the board of probation and parole may advise the sentencing court of the eligibility of the individual for probation. The original sentencing court shall hold a hearing to make a determination as to the fitness of the offender to be placed on probation. The court shall follow the recommendation of the board unless the court makes a determination that such a placement would be an abuse of discretion. If an offender successfully completes the program before the end of the twenty-four-month period, the department may petition the court and request that probation be granted immediately.] Upon successful completion of the program, the board of probation and parole shall advise the sentencing court of an offender's probationary release date thirty days prior to release. If the court determines that probation is not appropriate the court may order the execution of the offender's sentence.

4. If it is determined by the department that the offender has not successfully completed the program, or that the offender is not cooperatively participating in the program, the offender shall be removed from the program and the court shall be advised. Failure of an offender to complete the program shall cause the offender to serve the sentence prescribed by the court and void the right to be considered for probation on this sentence.

5. An offender's first incarceration in a department of corrections program pursuant to this section prior to release on probation shall not be considered a previous prison commitment for the purpose of determining a minimum prison term pursuant to the provisions of section 558.019, RSMo.”; and

The probation/parole officer may effect the arrest or may deputize any officer with the power of arrest to do so by giving the officer a copy of the warrant which shall outline the circumstances of the alleged violation. 2. When an offender on parole or conditional release, before the expiration of the term for which the offender was sentenced, has performed the obligation of his parole for such time as satisfies the board that his final release is not incompatible with the best interest of society and the welfare of the individual, the board may make a final order of discharge and issue a certificate of discharge to the offender. No such order of discharge shall be made in any case less than three years after the date on which the offender was paroled or conditionally released except where the sentence expires earlier.

3. Upon final discharge, persons shall be informed in writing on the process and procedure to register to vote.

2. The report of the presentence investigation or preparole investigation shall contain any prior criminal record of the defendant and such information about his or her characteristics, his or her financial condition, his or her social history [and], the circumstances affecting his or her behavior as may be helpful in imposing sentence or in granting probation or in the correctional treatment of the defendant, information concerning the impact of the crime upon the victim, the recommended sentence established by the sentencing advisory commission and available alternatives to incarceration including opportunities for restorative justice, as well as a recommendation by the probation and parole officer. The officer shall secure such other information as may be required by the court and, whenever it is practicable and needed, such investigation shall include a physical and mental examination of the defendant.”; and

557.036. 1. [Subject to the limitation provided in subsection 3 of this section,] Upon a finding of guilt upon verdict or plea, the court shall decide the extent or duration of sentence or other disposition to be imposed under all the circumstances, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and character of the defendant and render judgment accordingly.

2. [The court shall instruct the jury as to the range of punishment authorized by statute and upon a finding of guilt to assess and declare the punishment as a part of their verdict, unless:] Where an offense is submitted to the jury, the trial shall proceed in two stages. At the first stage, the jury shall decide only whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of any submitted offense. The issue of punishment shall not be submitted to the jury at the first stage.

3. If the jury at the first stage of a trial finds the defendant guilty of the submitted offense, the second stage of the trial shall proceed. The issue at the second stage of the trial shall be the punishment to be assessed and declared. Evidence supporting or mitigating punishment may be presented. Such evidence may include, within the discretion of the court, evidence concerning the impact of the crime upon the victim, the victim's family and others, the nature and circumstances of the offense, and the history and character of the defendant. Rebuttal and surrebuttal evidence may be presented. The state shall be the first to proceed. The court shall instruct the jury as to the range of punishment authorized by statute for each submitted offense. The attorneys may argue the issue of punishment to the jury, and the state shall have the right to open and close the argument. (1) The defendant requests in writing, prior to voir dire, that the court assess the punishment in case of a finding of guilt; or

(2) The state pleads and proves the defendant is a prior offender, persistent offender, dangerous offender, or persistent misdemeanor offender as defined in section 558.016, RSMo, a persistent sexual offender as defined in section 558.018, RSMo, or a predatory sexual offender as defined in section 558.018, RSMo.

If the jury [finds the defendant guilty but] cannot agree on the punishment to be assessed, the court shall proceed as provided in subsection 1 of this section. If [there be a trial by jury and the jury is to assess punishment and if], after due deliberation by the jury, the court finds the jury cannot agree on punishment, then the court may instruct the jury that if it cannot agree on punishment that [it may return its verdict without assessing punishment and] the court will assess punishment.

If the jury returns a verdict of guilty in the first stage and declares a term of imprisonment [as provided in subsection 2 of this section] in the second stage, the court shall proceed as provided in subsection 1 of this section except that any term of imprisonment imposed cannot exceed the term declared by the jury unless the term declared by the jury is less than the authorized lowest term for the offense, in which event the court cannot impose a term of imprisonment greater than the lowest term provided for the offense.

[4.] 6. If the defendant is found to be a prior offender, persistent offender, dangerous offender or persistent misdemeanor offender as defined in section 558.016, RSMo:

(1) If he has been found guilty of an offense, the court shall proceed as provided in section 558.016, RSMo; or

The court shall not seek an advisory verdict from the jury in cases of prior offenders, persistent offenders, dangerous offenders, persistent sexual offenders or predatory sexual offenders; if an advisory verdict is rendered, the court shall not deem it advisory, but shall consider it as mere surplusage.

558.011. 1. The authorized terms of imprisonment, including both prison and conditional release terms, are:

(1) For a class A felony, a term of years not less than ten years and not to exceed thirty years, or life imprisonment;

(3) For a class C felony, a term of years not to exceed seven years;

(4) For a class D felony, a term of years not to exceed [five] four years;

(5) For a class A misdemeanor, a term not to exceed one year;

(6) For a class B misdemeanor, a term not to exceed six months;

(7) For a class C misdemeanor, a term not to exceed fifteen days.

2. In cases of class C and D felonies, the court shall have discretion to imprison for a special term not to exceed one year in the county jail or other authorized penal institution, and the place of confinement shall be fixed by the court. If the court imposes a sentence of imprisonment for a term longer than one year upon a person convicted of a class C or D felony, it shall commit the person to the custody of the department of corrections for a term of years not less than two years and not exceeding the maximum authorized terms provided in subdivisions (3) and (4) of subsection 1 of this section.

3. (1) When a regular sentence of imprisonment for a felony is imposed, the court shall commit the [defendant] person to the custody of the department of corrections for the term imposed under section 557.036, RSMo, or until released under procedures established elsewhere by law.

(2) A sentence of imprisonment for a misdemeanor shall be for a definite term and the court shall commit the [defendant] person to the county jail or other authorized penal institution for the term of his or her sentence or until released under procedure established elsewhere by law.

4. (1) A sentence of imprisonment for a term of years for felonies other than dangerous felonies as defined in section 556.061, RSMo, and other than sentences of imprisonment which involve the individual's fourth or subsequent remand to the department of corrections shall consist of a prison term and a conditional release term. The conditional release term of any term imposed under section 557.036, RSMo, shall be:

(a) One-third for terms of nine years or less;

(b) Three years for terms between nine and fifteen years;

(c) Five years for terms more than fifteen years; and the prison term shall be the remainder of such term. The prison term may be extended by the board of probation and parole pursuant to subsection 5 of this section.

(2) "Conditional release" means the conditional discharge of an offender by the board of probation and parole, subject to conditions of release that the board deems reasonable to assist the offender to lead a law-abiding life, and subject to the supervision under the state board of probation and parole. The conditions of release shall include avoidance by the offender of any other crime, federal or state, and other conditions that the board in its discretion deems reasonably necessary to assist the releasee in avoiding further violation of the law.

5. The date of conditional release from the prison term may be extended up to a maximum of the entire sentence of imprisonment by the board of probation and parole. The director of any division of the department of corrections except the board of probation and parole may file with the board of probation and parole a petition to extend the conditional release date when an offender fails to follow the rules and regulations of the division or commits an act in violation of such rules. Within ten working days of receipt of the petition to extend the conditional release date, the board of probation and parole shall convene a hearing on the petition. The offender shall be present and may call witnesses in his or her behalf and cross-examine witnesses appearing against [him] the offender. The hearing shall be conducted as provided in section 217.670, RSMo. If the violation occurs in close proximity to the conditional release date, the conditional release may be held for a maximum of fifteen working days to permit necessary time for the division director to file a petition for an extension with the board and for the board to conduct a hearing, provided some affirmative manifestation of an intent to extend the conditional release has occurred prior to the conditional release date. If at the end of a fifteen-working-day period a board decision has not been reached, the offender shall be released conditionally. The decision of the board shall be final.

558.016. 1. The court may sentence a person who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of an offense to a term of imprisonment as authorized by section 558.011 or to a term of imprisonment authorized by a statute governing the offense, if it finds the defendant is a prior offender or a persistent misdemeanor offender, or to an extended term of imprisonment if it finds the defendant is a persistent offender or a dangerous offender.

2. A "prior offender" is one who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of one felony.

3. A "persistent offender" is one who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of two or more felonies committed at different times.

4. A "dangerous offender" is one who:

(1) Is being sentenced for a felony during the commission of which he knowingly murdered or endangered or threatened the life of another person or knowingly inflicted or attempted or threatened to inflict serious physical injury on another person; and

(2) Has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of a class A or B felony or a dangerous felony.

5. A "persistent misdemeanor offender" is one who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of two or more class A or B misdemeanors, committed at different times, which are defined as offenses under chapters 195, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, and 576, RSMo.

6. The pleas or findings of guilty shall be prior to the date of commission of the present offense.

7. The total authorized maximum terms of imprisonment for a persistent offender or a dangerous offender are:

(1) For a class A felony, any sentence authorized for a class A felony;

(2) For a class B felony, [a term of years not to exceed thirty years] any sentence authorized for a class A felony;

(3) For a class C felony, [a term of years not to exceed twenty years] any sentence authorized for a class B felony;

(4) For a class D felony, [a term of years not to exceed ten years] any sentence authorized for a class C felony.

8. An offender convicted of a nonviolent class C or class D felony with no prior prison commitments, after serving one hundred twenty days of his or her sentence, may, in writing, petition the court to serve the remainder of his or her sentence on probation, parole, or other court-approved alternative sentence. No hearing shall be conducted unless the court deems it necessary. Upon the offender petitioning the court, the department of corrections shall submit a report to the sentencing court which evaluates the conduct of the offender while in custody, alternative custodial methods available to the offender, and shall recommend whether the offender be released or remain in custody. If the report issued by the department is favorable and recommends probation, parole, or other alternative sentence, the court shall follow the recommendations of the department unless the court makes the determination that such placement may be an abuse of discretion. Any placement of an offender pursuant to section 559.115, RSMo, shall be excluded from the provisions of this subsection.

558.019. 1. This section shall not be construed to affect the powers of the governor under article IV, section 7, of the Missouri Constitution. This statute shall not affect those provisions of section 565.020, RSMo, section 558.018 or section 571.015, RSMo, which set minimum terms of sentences, or the provisions of section 559.115, RSMo, relating to probation.

2. The provisions of subsections 2 to 5 of this section shall be applicable to all classes of felonies except those set forth in chapter 195, RSMo, and those otherwise excluded in subsection 1 of this section. For the purposes of this section, "prison commitment" means and is the receipt by the department of corrections of a [defendant] offender after sentencing. For purposes of this section, prior prison commitments to the department of corrections shall not include commitment to a regimented discipline program established pursuant to section 217.378, RSMo. Other provisions of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, any [defendant] offender who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of a felony other than a dangerous felony as defined in section 556.061, RSMo, and is committed to the department of corrections shall be required to serve the following minimum prison terms:

(1) If the [defendant] offender has one previous prison commitment to the department of corrections for a felony offense, the minimum prison term which the [defendant] offender must serve shall be forty percent of his or her sentence or until the [defendant] offender attains seventy years of age, and has served at least [forty] thirty percent of the sentence imposed, whichever occurs first;

(2) If the [defendant] offender has two previous prison commitments to the department of corrections for felonies unrelated to the present offense, the minimum prison term which the [defendant] offender must serve shall be fifty percent of his or her sentence or until the [defendant] offender attains seventy years of age, and has served at least forty percent of the sentence imposed, whichever occurs first;

(3) If the [defendant] offender has three or more previous prison commitments to the department of corrections for felonies unrelated to the present offense, the minimum prison term which the [defendant] offender must serve shall be eighty percent of his or her sentence or until the [defendant] offender attains seventy years of age, and has served at least forty percent of the sentence imposed, whichever occurs first.

3. Other provisions of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, any [defendant] offender who has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of a dangerous felony as defined in section 556.061, RSMo, and is committed to the department of corrections shall be required to serve a minimum prison term of eighty-five percent of the sentence imposed by the court or until the [defendant] offender attains seventy years of age, and has served at least forty percent of the sentence imposed, whichever occurs first.

4. For the purpose of determining the minimum prison term to be served, the following calculations shall apply:

(1) A sentence of life shall be calculated to be thirty years;

(2) Any sentence either alone or in the aggregate with other consecutive sentences for crimes committed at or near the same time which is over seventy-five years shall be calculated to be seventy-five years.

5. For purposes of this section, the term "minimum prison term" shall mean time required to be served by the [defendant] offender before he or she is eligible for parole, conditional release or other early release by the department of corrections. Except that the board of probation and parole, in the case of consecutive sentences imposed at the same time pursuant to a course of conduct constituting a common scheme or plan, shall be authorized to convert consecutive sentences to concurrent sentences, when the board finds, after hearing with notice to the prosecuting or circuit attorney, that the sum of the terms results in an unreasonably excessive total term, taking into consideration all factors related to the crime or crimes committed and the sentences received by others similarly situated.

6. (1) A sentencing advisory commission is hereby created to consist of [eleven] thirteen members. One member shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. One member shall be appointed by the president pro tem of the senate. One member shall be the director of the department of corrections. [Six] Eight members shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the governor from among the following: the public defender commission; [private citizens] four private citizens, two from urban and two from rural areas of the state; a private member of the Missouri Bar; the board of probation and parole; and a prosecutor. Two members shall be appointed by the supreme court, one from a metropolitan area and one from a rural area. All members of the sentencing commission appointed prior to August 28, 1994, shall continue to serve on the sentencing advisory commission at the pleasure of the governor.

(2) The commission shall study sentencing practices in the circuit courts throughout the state for the purpose of determining whether and to what extent disparities exist among the various circuit courts with respect to the length of sentences imposed and the use of probation for [defendants] offenders convicted of the same or similar crimes and with similar criminal histories. The commission shall also study and examine whether and to what extent sentencing disparity among economic and social classes exists in relation to the sentence of death and if so, the reasons therefor sentences are comparable to other states, if the length of the sentence is appropriate, and the rate of rehabilitation based on sentence. It shall compile statistics, examine cases, draw conclusions, and perform other duties relevant to the research and investigation of disparities in death penalty sentencing among economic and social classes.

(3) The commission shall establish a system of recommended sentences, within the statutory minimum and maximum sentences provided by law for each felony committed under the laws of this state. This system of recommended sentences shall be distributed to all sentencing courts within the state of Missouri. The recommended sentence for each crime shall take into account, but not be limited to, the following factors:

- (a) The nature and severity of each offense;
- (b) The record of prior offenses by the offender;
- (c) The data gathered by the commission showing the duration and nature of sentences imposed for each crime; and
- (d) The resources of the department of corrections and other authorities to carry out the punishments that are imposed.

(4) The commission shall study alternative sentences, prison work programs, work release, home-based incarceration, probation and parole options, and any other programs and report the feasibility of these options in Missouri.

(5) The commission shall publish and distribute its [system of recommended sentences] recommendations on or before July 1, [1995] 2004. The commission shall study the implementation and use of the [system of recommended sentences] recommendations until July 1, [1998] 2005, and return a [final] report to the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the president pro tem of the senate. Following the July 1, [1998] 2005, report, the commission [may] shall revise the recommended sentences every [three] two years.

[(5)] (6) The governor shall select a chairperson who shall call meetings of the commission as required or permitted pursuant to the purpose of the sentencing commission.

[(6)] (7) The members of the commission shall not receive compensation for their duties on the commission, but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of these duties and for which they are not reimbursed by reason of their other paid positions.

[(7)] (8) The circuit and associate circuit courts of this state, the office of the state courts administrator, the department of public safety, and the department of corrections shall cooperate with the commission by providing information or access to information needed by the commission. The office of the state courts administrator will provide needed staffing resources.

7. Courts shall retain discretion to lower or exceed the sentence recommended by the commission as otherwise allowable by law, and to order restorative justice methods, when applicable.

8. In all cases involving class C and D felony violations of chapter 195, RSMo, where the department receives custody of an offender, the department of corrections shall make a report to the board of probation and parole within one hundred twenty days after receiving custody of the offender. The report shall contain a description of the circumstances of the offense, an evaluation of the offender's need for drug or alcohol treatment, an evaluation of the offender's conduct while in custody, and available options, if any, for punishing the offender in settings other than prison. The board of probation and parole shall have the authority for the duration of the sentence imposed by the court to place the offender in any combination of treatment, incarceration, supervised release, community service, and restorative justice.

9. If the imposition or execution of a sentence is suspended, the court may consider ordering any or all of the following restorative justice methods, or any other method that the court finds just or appropriate:

- (1) Restitution to any victim for costs incurred as a result of the offender's actions;
- (2) Offender treatment programs;
- (3) Mandatory community service;
- (4) Work release programs in local facilities; and
- (5) Community based residential and nonresidential programs.

10. The provisions of this section shall apply only to offenses occurring on or after August 28, [1994] 2003.

559.026. Except in infraction cases, when probation is granted, the court, in addition to conditions imposed [under] pursuant to section 559.021, may require as a condition of probation that the [defendant] offender submit to a period of detention up to forty-eight hours after the determination by a probation or parole officer that the offender violated a condition of continued probation or parole in an appropriate institution at whatever time or intervals within the period of probation, consecutive or nonconsecutive, the court shall designate, or the board of probation and parole shall direct. Any person placed on probation in a county of the first class or second class or in any city with a population of five hundred thousand or more and detained as herein provided shall be subject to all provisions of section 221.170, RSMo, even though he was not convicted and sentenced to a jail or workhouse.

559.115. 1. Neither probation nor parole shall be granted by the circuit court between the time the transcript on appeal from the [defendant's] offender's conviction has been filed in appellate court and the disposition of the appeal by such court.

2. Unless otherwise prohibited by subsection 5 of this section, a circuit court only upon its own motion and not that of the state or the [defendant] offender shall have the power to grant probation to a [defendant] offender anytime up to one hundred twenty days after such [defendant] offender has been delivered to [the custody of] the department of corrections but not thereafter. The court may request information and a recommendation from the department concerning the [defendant] offender and such [defendant's] offender's behavior during the period of incarceration. Except as provided in this section, the court may place the [defendant] offender on probation in a program created pursuant to section 217.777, RSMo, or may place the [defendant] offender on probation with any other conditions authorized by law.

Upon successful completion of a treatment program, the board of probation and parole shall advise the sentencing court of an offender's probationary release date thirty days prior to release. The court shall release the offender unless such release constitutes an abuse of discretion. If the court determined that there is an abuse of discretion, the court may order the execution of the offender's sentence only after conducting a hearing on the matter within ninety to one hundred twenty days of the offender's sentence. If the court does not respond when an offender successfully completes the program, the offender shall be released on probation. Upon successful completion of a shock incarceration program, the board of probation and parole shall advise the sentencing court of an offender's probationary release date thirty days prior to release. The court shall follow the recommendation of the department unless the court determines that probation is not appropriate. If the court determines that probation is not appropriate, the court may order the execution of the offender's sentence only after conducting a hearing on the matter within ninety to one hundred twenty days of the offender's sentence. If the department determines that an offender is not successful in a program, then after one hundred days of incarceration the circuit court shall receive from the department of corrections a report on the offender's participation in the program and department recommendations for terms and conditions of an offender's probation. The court shall then release the offender on probation or order the offender to remain in the department to serve the sentence imposed.

4. If the department of correction's one-hundred-twenty-day-program is full, the court may place the offender in a private program approved by the department of corrections or the court. If the offender is convicted of a class C or class D nonviolent felony, the court may order probation while awaiting appointment to treatment.

[3.] 5. Except when the [defendant] offender has been found to be a predatory sexual offender pursuant to section 558.018, RSMo, the court shall request that the [defendant] offender be [place] placed in the sexual offender assessment unit of the department of corrections if the defendant has pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty of sexual abuse when classified as a class B felony.

Unless the offender is being granted probation pursuant to successful completion of a one-hundred-twenty-day-program the circuit court shall notify the state in writing when the court intends to grant probation to the [defendant] offender pursuant to the provisions of this section. The state may, in writing, request a hearing within ten days of receipt of the court's notification that the court intends to grant probation. Upon the state's request for a hearing, the court shall grant a hearing as soon as reasonably possible. If the state does not respond to the court's notice in writing within ten days, the court may proceed upon its own motion to grant probation.

7. An offender's first incarceration for one hundred twenty days for participation in a department of corrections program prior to release on probation shall not be considered a previous prison commitment for the purpose of determining a minimum prison term under the provisions of section 558.019.

Senate Amendment No. 9

AMEND Senate Substitute for House Bill No. 198, Page 2, Section 537.046, Line 3, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“537.800. 1. Any action seeking money damages against a person for conduct or speech undertaken or made in connection with a public issue, or a public hearing or public meeting, in a quasi-judicial proceeding before a tribunal or decision-making body of any political subdivision of the state is subject to a special motion to dismiss, motion for judgment on the pleadings, or motion for summary judgment that shall be considered by the court on a priority or expedited basis to ensure the early consideration of the issues raised by the motion and to prevent the unnecessary expense of litigation. The court shall grant such special motion, unless the party against whom the motion is made shows by clear and convincing evidence that:

(a) The moving party’s conduct or speech was devoid of any reasonable factual support or any arguable basis in law; and

(b) The moving party’s acts caused actual injury to the responding party.

Upon the filing of any special motion described in this subsection, all discovery shall be suspended pending a decision on the motion by the court and the exhaustion of all appeals regarding the special motion.

2. If a court grants a motion to dismiss, a motion for judgment on the pleadings or a motion for summary judgment, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by the moving party in defending the action and may award punitive damages upon a demonstration that the action was primarily commenced or continued for the purpose of harassing, intimidating, punishing, or otherwise maliciously inhibiting the free exercise of speech, petition, or association rights. If the court finds that a special motion to dismiss or motion for judgment on the pleadings or motion for summary judgment is frivolous or solely intended to cause unnecessary delay, the court shall award costs and reasonable attorney fees to the party prevailing on the motion.

3. Any party shall have the right to an expedited appeal from a trial court order on the special motions described in subsection 2 of this section or from a trial court’s failure to rule on the motion on an expedited basis.

4. The state or any local governmental entity to which the moving party’s conduct or speech is made or directed or the attorney general may intervene to defend or otherwise support the moving party on any special motion.

5. As used in this section, a “public meeting in a quasi-judicial proceeding” means and includes any meeting established and held by state or local governmental entity, including without limitations, meetings or presentations before state, county, city, town or village councils, planning commissions, review boards or commissions.

6. Nothing in this section limits or prohibits the exercise of a right or remedy of a party granted pursuant to another constitutional, statutory, common law or administrative provision, including civil actions for defamation.

7. If any provision of this section or the application of any provision of this section to a person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this section that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 10

AMEND Senate Substitute for House Bill No. 198, Page 26, Section 478.610, Line 2, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“479.051. 1. Any city, county or township may provide by ordinance an administrative adjudication system for adjudicating parking and other non-moving municipal code violations to the extent permitted by court rules. The adoption by a city, county, or township of an administrative adjudication system does not preclude the city, county, or township from using other methods to enforce ordinances. This statute shall not affect the validity of other administrative adjudication systems authorized by state law and created prior to the effective date of this statute.

2. An ordinance establishing an administrative adjudication system shall provide for an administrative adjudication unit or alternative, which could include the municipal division of a circuit court, define the jurisdiction and role of that unit and describe the means by which the municipality shall provide suitable facilities and operating resources for operating the administrative adjudication system. The ordinance shall designate the types of municipal code violations deemed appropriate for administrative adjudication consistent with applicable state law. The administrative adjudication unit shall operate under the supervision of the circuit court.

3. The administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, shall establish and maintain a system for adjudicating parking violations and any other municipal code violations designated for administrative adjudication by ordinance. The administrative adjudication system shall include operating policies and procedures, including but not limited to, appeal criteria, documentation requirements, notification deadlines, and forms, subject to the approval of the circuit court. The administrative adjudication system shall afford parties due process of law.

4. The adjudication process may involve a one-step administrative hearing or a two-step administrative review and administrative hearing. If the city, county, or township adopts a one-step process, individuals must apply for an administrative hearing to contest a municipal code violation. If the city, county, or township adopts a two-step process, individuals must first apply for an administrative review to contest a municipal code violation and then, if dissatisfied with the results of the administrative review, may apply for an administrative hearing. Any failure to request an administrative review or hearing in accordance with the rules established by the administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, shall be considered an admission of liability.

5. The administrative reviews and hearings authorized pursuant to this section shall be designed to ensure a fair and impartial consideration of the contested code violation. The formal and technical rules of evidence shall not apply in any administrative review or hearing authorized pursuant to this section. Evidence, including hearsay, may be admitted only if it is the type of evidence commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs. The officer or person who issued the notice of municipal code violation shall not be required to participate in an administrative review or hearing. The agency that issued the municipal code violation need not produce any evidence other than the notice of municipal code violation or copy thereof and information received from an appropriate state or local agency identifying the property owner of record. Such documentation in proper form shall be prima facie evidence of the municipal code violation.

6. An administrative review shall entail an informal review process through which the individual may contest a municipal code violation by mail, in person or other means approved by the administrative adjudication unit, as provided in subsection 2 of this section. The individual's right to an administrative review shall expire if the city does not receive a documented challenge to the municipal code violation within seven calendar days of issuing the original violation or the time period prescribed by local ordinance, whichever is later. In a city, county, or township adopting the two-step administrative adjudication process, individuals who fail to exercise their right to an administrative review in accordance with the prescribed rules shall also lose their right to an administrative hearing. The administrative adjudication unit, as provided in subsection 2 of this section, shall appoint or contract with qualified individuals to conduct administrative reviews.

7. An administrative hearing shall entail a formal hearing through which the individual may contest a municipal code violation or, for a city, county, or township with a two-step appeal process, an administrative review finding in person before an administrative hearing officer. Administrative hearings shall be scheduled with reasonable promptness and any notice of an administrative hearing shall include the code violation type and nature, the administrative hearing date and location, the legal authority and jurisdiction of the administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, and the penalties for failing to appear at the hearing. The individual's right to an administrative hearing shall expire if the city does not receive a written challenge to the administrative review results within seven calendar days of notifying the individual of the results of the administrative review or, if the municipality has a one-step appeal process, fourteen calendar days of issuing the original violation.

8. The administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, shall appoint or contract with qualified administrative hearing officers to preside over administrative hearings. As impartial and independent fact finders, administrative hearing officers may:

- (1) Hear testimony and review relevant evidence;
- (2) Issue subpoenas directing witnesses to appear and give relevant testimony;
- (3) Preserve and authenticate hearing records and evidence;
- (4) Issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law, including the fine, penalty, or action with which the parties must comply; and
- (5) Impose penalties and assess costs consistent with applicable law.

An administrative hearing officer shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in the state of Missouri for at least three years and possess sufficient competence to adjudicate municipal code violations, including, but not limited to, experience in administrative law, familiarity with the rules of procedure for administrative hearings, and a working knowledge of each subject area of the municipal code violations that they will adjudicate. An administrative hearing officer's employment and compensation shall not, directly or indirectly, be linked to the amount of fines. The municipality may establish additional policies and procedures for ensuring that administrative hearing officers demonstrate the objectivity and qualifications necessary to conduct fair, impartial, and expeditious hearings.

9. An administrative adjudication unit may not impose a penalty of incarceration or a fine in excess of the amount allowed by state or local law. Any fine, other sanction, or costs imposed, or part of any fine, other sanction, or costs imposed, remaining unpaid after the exhaustion of or the failure to exhaust judicial review procedures pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, are a debt due and owing the municipality and may be collected in accordance with applicable law. Any fine, sanction, costs, or other charges assessed by the administrative adjudication unit shall be deposited into the municipal treasury in accordance with applicable state and local laws and rules for that particular municipality.

10. Any final decision by an administrative adjudication unit, as provided in this section, that a code violation does or does not exist shall constitute a final determination for purposes of judicial review and shall be subject to review pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo.

11. After expiration of the period in which judicial review pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, may be sought for a final determination of a municipal code violation, unless stayed by a court of competent jurisdiction, the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the administrative hearing officer may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment entered by a court of competent jurisdiction. If a defendant fails to comply with an order of the administrative hearing officer, any expenses incurred by the municipality to enforce the order, including, but not limited to, attorney, court, administrative, vehicle storage, and property demolition or foreclosure costs, after they are fixed by an administrative hearing officer or a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be a debt due the municipality and may be collected in accordance with applicable law. Upon being recorded in the manner required by state law or the uniform commercial code, a lien may be imposed on the real or personal property, or both, of the defendant in the amount of any debt due the municipality pursuant to this section. The lien may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment lien pursuant to a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Unless proof of financial responsibility is filed with the department of revenue, except as provided in subsection 2 of section 302.541, the revocation shall remain in effect for a period of two years from its effective date. The revocation period of any person whose license and driving privilege have been revoked a second time pursuant to this subsection and who has filed proof of financial responsibility with the department of revenue in accordance with section 303.173, RSMo, shall be terminated by a notice from the director of revenue after three years from the effective date of the revocation. 8. If, prior to conviction for an offense that would require suspension or revocation of a person's license under the provisions of this section, the person's total points accumulated are reduced, pursuant to the provisions of section 302.306, below the number of points required for suspension or revocation pursuant to the provisions of this section, then the person's license shall not be suspended or revoked until the necessary points are again obtained and accumulated.

It shall be the responsibility of such member of the armed forces to submit copies of official orders to the director of revenue to substantiate such overseas service. Any other provision of sections 302.010 to 302.540 to the contrary notwithstanding, the effective date of the four points remaining on the record upon reinstatement or termination shall be the date of the reinstatement or termination notice.

AMEND Senate Substitute for House Bill No. 198, Page 39, Section 544.170, Line 12, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“565.030. 1. Where murder in the first degree is charged but not submitted or where the state waives the death penalty, the submission to the trier and all subsequent proceedings in the case shall proceed as in all other criminal cases with a single stage trial in which guilt and punishment are submitted together.

2. Where murder in the first degree is submitted to the trier without a waiver of the death penalty, the trial shall proceed in two stages before the same trier. At the first stage the trier shall decide only whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of any submitted offense. The issue of punishment shall not be submitted to the trier at the first stage. If an offense is charged other than murder in the first degree in a count together with a count of murder in the first degree, the trial judge shall assess punishment on any such offense according to law, after the defendant is found guilty of such offense and after he finds the defendant to be a prior offender pursuant to chapter 558, RSMo.

3. If murder in the first degree is submitted and the death penalty was not waived but the trier finds the defendant guilty of a lesser homicide, a second stage of the trial shall proceed at which the only issue shall be the punishment to be assessed and declared. No further evidence shall be received. If the trier is a jury it shall be instructed on the law. The attorneys may then argue as in other criminal cases the issue of punishment, after which the trier shall assess and declare the punishment as in all other criminal cases.

4. If the trier at the first stage of a trial where the death penalty was not waived finds the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree, a second stage of the trial shall proceed at which the only issue shall be the punishment to be assessed and declared. Evidence in aggravation and mitigation of punishment, including but not limited to evidence supporting any of the aggravating or mitigating circumstances listed in subsection 2 or 3 of section 565.032, may be presented subject to the rules of evidence at criminal trials. Such evidence may include, within the discretion of the court, evidence concerning the murder victim and the impact of the crime upon the family of the victim and others. Rebuttal and surrebuttal evidence may be presented. The state shall be the first to proceed. If the trier is a jury it shall be instructed on the law. The attorneys may then argue the issue of punishment to the jury, and the state shall have the right to open and close the argument. The trier shall assess and declare the punishment at life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor:

(1) If the trier finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is mentally retarded; or

(2) If the trier does not find beyond a reasonable doubt at least one of the statutory aggravating circumstances set out in subsection 2 of section 565.032; or

(3) If the trier concludes that there is evidence in mitigation of punishment, including but not limited to evidence supporting the statutory mitigating circumstances listed in subsection 3 of section 565.032, which is sufficient to outweigh the evidence in aggravation of punishment found by the trier; or

1958 Journal of the House

(4) If the trier decides under all of the circumstances not to assess and declare the punishment at death. If the trier is a jury it shall be so instructed.

If the trier assesses and declares the punishment at death it shall, in its findings or verdict, set out in writing the aggravating circumstance or circumstances listed in subsection 2 of section 565.032 which it found beyond a reasonable doubt. If the trier is a jury [it shall be instructed before the case is submitted that if it] and is unable to unanimously decide or agree upon setting the punishment at death, the court shall assess and declare the punishment at life imprisonment without eligibility for probation, parole, or release except by act of the governor [or death]; and the jury shall be accordingly instructed before the case is submitted. The court shall follow the same procedure as set out in this section whenever it is required to determine punishment for murder in the first degree.

5. Upon written agreement of the parties and with leave of the court, the issue of the defendant's mental retardation may be taken up by the court and decided prior to trial without prejudicing the defendant's right to have the issue submitted to the trier of fact as provided in subsection 4 of this section.

6. As used in this section, the terms "mental retardation" or "mentally retarded" refer to a condition involving substantial limitations in general functioning characterized by significantly subaverage intellectual functioning with continual extensive related deficits and limitations in two or more adaptive behaviors such as communication, self-care, home living, social skills, community use, self-direction, health and safety, functional academics, leisure and work, which conditions are manifested and documented before eighteen years of age.

If the taxpayer desires that the limit be reflected in the records of the county, the taxpayer must request, subject to any rules adopted by the director, that the director cause a partial satisfaction of the lien to be recorded in the county. Upon receipt of such a request, the director shall cause a partial satisfaction, in the amount of the voluntary payment, to be so recorded. Nothing in this subsection shall affect the priority of the liens of the director, as originally created pursuant to subsections 1 and 4 of this section.

9. Nothing in this section shall affect any lien arising pursuant to sections 135.037 to 135.083 for taxes assessed before January 1, 2003.

135.059. Subject to section 135.063, all deferred property taxes, including accrued interest, become payable as provided in section 135.061 when:

(1) The taxpayer who claimed deferment of collection of property taxes on the homestead dies or, if there was more than one claimant, the survivor of the taxpayers who originally claimed deferment of collection of property taxes pursuant to section 135.039 dies;

(2) Except as provided in section 135.057, the property with respect to which deferment of collection of taxes is claimed is sold, or some person other than the taxpayer who claimed the deferment becomes the owner of the property;

(3) The tax-deferred property is no longer the homestead of the taxpayer who claimed the deferral, except in the case of a taxpayer required to be absent from such tax-deferred property by reason of health;

(4) The tax-deferred property, a manufactured structure or floating home, is moved out of the state.

135.061. 1. Whenever any of the circumstances listed in section 135.059 occurs:

(1) The deferral of taxes for the assessment year in which the circumstance occurs shall continue for such assessment year; and

(2) The amounts of deferred property taxes, including accrued interest, for all years shall be due and payable on the date of closing or the date of probate to the director of revenue, except as provided in subsection 3 of this section, section 135.063 and section 135.075.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section and section 135.075, when the circumstances occur listed in subsection 4 of section 135.059, the amount of deferred taxes shall be due and payable five days before the date of removal of the property from the state.

3. If the amounts falling due as provided in this section are not paid on the indicated due date, or as extended pursuant to section 135.075, such amounts shall be deemed delinquent as of that date and the property shall be subject to foreclosure as provided in section 135.053.

135.063. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 135.059, when one of the circumstances listed in section 135.059 occurs, the spouse who was not eligible to or did not file a claim jointly with the taxpayer may continue the property in its deferred tax status by filing a claim within the time and in the manner provided pursuant to section 135.039 if:

(1) The spouse of the taxpayer is or will be sixty years of age or older not later than six months from the day the circumstance listed in section 135.059 occurs; and

(2) The property is the homestead of the spouse of the taxpayer and meets the requirements of subsection 2 of section 135.041.

2. A spouse who does not meet the age requirements of subsection 1 of this section but is otherwise qualified to continue the property in its tax-deferred status pursuant to subsection 1 of this section may continue the deferral of property taxes deferred for previous years by filing a claim within the time and in the manner provided pursuant to section 135.039. If a spouse eligible for and continuing the deferral of taxes previously deferred pursuant to this subsection becomes sixty-two years of age prior to October fifteenth of any year, the spouse may elect to continue the deferral of previous years' taxes deferred pursuant to this subsection and may elect to defer the current assessment year's taxes on the homestead by filing a claim within the time and in the manner provided pursuant to section 135.039. Thereafter, payment of the taxes levied on the homestead and deferred pursuant to this subsection and payment of taxes levied on the homestead in the current assessment year and in future years may be deferred in the manner provided in and subject to sections 135.037 to 135.083.

3. Notwithstanding that section 135.039 requires that a claim be filed no later than October fifteenth, if the director of revenue determines that good and sufficient cause exists for the failure of a spouse to file a claim pursuant to this section on or before October fifteenth, the claim may be filed within one hundred eighty days after notice of taxes due and payable pursuant to section 135.037 is mailed or delivered by the director to the taxpayer or taxpayers.

135.065. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 135.039 or any other provision of sections 135.037 to 135.083, if the individual or, in the case of two or more individuals electing to defer property taxes jointly, all of the individuals together, or the spouse who has filed a claim pursuant to section 135.063, has household income that exceeds the maximum upper limit for the tax year that began in the previous calendar year, then for the tax year next beginning, the amount of taxes for which deferral is allowed shall be reduced by fifty cents for each dollar of household income in excess of the maximum upper limit or if that income exceeds the maximum upper limit by a factor of two, the property taxes shall not be deferred.

2. Prior to December first of each year, the director of revenue shall review returns filed pursuant to chapter 143, RSMo, to determine if subsection 1 of this section is applicable for a homestead for the tax year next beginning. If subsection 1 of this section is applicable, the director shall notify by mail the taxpayer or taxpayers electing deferral, and the taxes otherwise to be deferred for the tax year next beginning shall be reduced as provided in subsection 1 of this section or, if household income in excess of the maximum upper limit exceeds the maximum upper limit by a factor of two, the property taxes shall not be deferred.

3. If the taxpayer or taxpayers does not file a return for purposes of chapter 143, RSMo, and the director has reason to believe that the federal adjusted gross income of the taxpayer or taxpayers exceeds the maximum upper limit for the tax year that began in the previous calendar year, the director shall notify by mail the taxpayer or taxpayers electing deferral. If, within thirty days after the notice is mailed, the taxpayer or taxpayers does not file a return pursuant to chapter 143, RSMo, or otherwise satisfy the director that household income does not exceed the maximum upper limit, the director shall again notify the taxpayer or taxpayers, and the taxes otherwise to be deferred for the tax year next beginning shall not be deferred.

4. Nothing in this section shall affect the continued deferral of taxes that have been deferred for tax years beginning prior to the tax year next beginning or the right to deferral of taxes for a tax year beginning after the tax year next beginning if subsection 1 of this section is not applicable for that tax year for the homestead.

5. If, after an initial determination pursuant to this section has been made by the director, upon audit or examination or otherwise, it is discovered that the taxpayer or taxpayers had household income in excess of the limitation provided pursuant to subsection 1 of this section, the director shall determine the amount of taxes deferred that should not have been deferred and give notice to the taxpayer or taxpayers of the amount of taxes that should not have been deferred. The provisions of chapter 143, RSMo, shall apply to a determination of the director pursuant to this section in the same manner as those provisions are applicable to an income tax deficiency. The amount of deferred taxes that should not have been deferred shall bear interest from the date paid by the director until paid at the rate of six percent. A deficiency shall not be assessed pursuant to this section if notice required pursuant to this section is not given to the taxpayer or taxpayers within three years after the date that the director has paid the deferred taxes to the county. Upon payment of the amount assessed as deficiency, and interest, the department shall execute a release in the amount of the payment and the release shall be conclusive evidence of the removal and extinguishment of the lien pursuant to sections 135.037 to 135.083 to the extent of the payment.

6. If, after an initial determination pursuant to this section has been made by the director, upon claim for refund, audit or examination or otherwise, it is discovered that the taxpayer or taxpayers had household income in the amount of or less than the limitation provided pursuant to subsection 1 of this section, the director shall determine the amount of taxes deferred that should have been deferred and give notice to the taxpayer or taxpayers of the amount of taxes that should have been deferred. The provisions of chapter 143, RSMo, shall apply to a determination of the director pursuant to this section in the same manner as those provisions are applicable to an income tax refund. The amount of the taxes that should have been deferred shall bear interest from the date paid by the taxpayer to the county at the rate established by the director of the director of revenue for refunds until paid. Claim for refund pursuant to this subsection must be filed within three years after the earliest date that the taxpayer or taxpayers is notified by the director that the taxes are not deferred.

7. This section applies to all tax-deferred property, notwithstanding that election to defer taxes is made pursuant to sections 135.037 to 135.083 before or after January 1, 2003.

135.066. Any taxpayer or taxpayers who have a household income of up to twice the maximum upper limit who have been precluded from deferring any portion of their property tax due to their household income being in excess of the maximum upper limit, may qualify for a deferral of the amount of property tax which has increased on their homestead since January first in the base year. Pursuant to the provisions of this section, the term "base year" shall mean the year beginning January first after the sixty-second birthday of the person otherwise qualified to claim the deferral pursuant to sections 135.037 to 135.083, however, base year shall not mean any year prior to the year beginning January 1, 2003. Such deferral shall be subject to the provisions of sections 135.037 to 135.083 as if it were a deferral pursuant to section 135.039.

135.067. 1. All payments of deferred taxes shall be made to the director of revenue.

2. Subject to subsection 3 of this section, all or part of the deferred taxes and accrued interest may at any time be paid to the director by:

(1) The taxpayer or the spouse of the taxpayer;

(2) The next of kin of the taxpayer, heir at law of the taxpayer, child of the taxpayer or any person having or claiming a legal or equitable interest in the property.

3. A person listed in subdivision (2) of subsection 2 of this section may make such payments only if no objection is made by the taxpayer within thirty days after the director deposits in the mail notice to the taxpayer of the fact that such payment has been tendered.

4. Any payment made pursuant to this section shall be applied first against accrued interest and any remainder against the deferred taxes. Such payment does not affect the deferred tax status of the property. Unless otherwise provided by law, such payment does not give the person paying the taxes any interest in the property or any claim against the estate, in the absence of a valid agreement to the contrary.

5. The provisions of subsection 4 of this section notwithstanding, if any taxpayer in the deferral program pays part or all of the current year property tax liability in a timely manner, such payment shall be applied against the principal of the deferred taxes and then against any interest, if applicable.

6. When the deferred taxes and accrued interest are paid in full and the property is no longer subject to deferral, the director shall prepare and record in the county in which the property is located a satisfaction of deferred property tax lien.

135.073. 1. If the property on which taxes have been deferred is deeded over to the county at the conclusion of the foreclosure proceedings pursuant to chapter 141, RSMo, the county governing body shall order the county treasurer to pay to the director of revenue from the combined tax collections account the amount of deferred taxes and interest which were not collected by the director of revenue, which payment shall not exceed the amount collected by the foreclosure proceedings minus reasonable expenses incurred by the county as a result of the foreclosure process.

2. Immediately upon payment, the county treasurer shall notify the tax collector of the amount paid to the director for the property which has been deeded to the county.

135.075. 1. If the taxpayer who claimed homestead property tax deferral dies, or if a spouse who continued the deferral pursuant to section 135.063 dies, the director of revenue may extend the time for payment of the deferred taxes and interest accruing with respect to the taxes becoming due and payable pursuant to subsection 2 of section 135.061 where:

(1) The homestead property becomes property of an individual or individuals:

(a) By inheritance or devise; or

(b) If the individual or individuals are heirs or devisees, as defined pursuant to section 472.010, RSMo, in the course of settlement of the estate;

(2) The individual or individuals commence occupancy of the property as a principal residence on or before February fifteenth of the calendar year following the calendar year of death; and

(3) The individual or individuals make application to the director for an extension of time for payment of the deferred taxes and interest prior to February fifteenth of the calendar year following the calendar year of death.

2. (1) Subject to subdivision (2) of this subsection, an extension granted pursuant to this section shall be for a period not to exceed five years after February fifteenth of the calendar year following the calendar year of death. The terms and conditions under which the extension is granted shall be in accordance with a written agreement entered into by the director and the individual or individuals.

(2) An extension granted pursuant to this section shall terminate immediately if:

(a) The homestead property is sold or otherwise transferred by any party to the extension agreement;

(b) All of the heirs or devisees who are parties to the extension agreement cease to occupy the property as a principal residence; or

(c) The homestead property, a manufactured structure or floating home, is moved out of the state.

3. If the director has reason to believe that the homestead property is not sufficient security for the deferred taxes and interest, the director may require the individual or individuals to furnish a bond conditioned upon payment of the amount extended in accordance with the terms of the extension. The bond shall not exceed an amount double the taxes with respect to which tax extension is granted.

4. During the period of extension, and until paid, the deferred taxes shall continue to accrue interest in the same manner and at the same rate as provided pursuant to subsection 3 of section 135.045. No interest shall accrue upon interest.

5. When any taxpayer who claimed homestead property tax deferral dies, the spouse, heirs and devisees, as defined pursuant to section 472.010, RSMo, shall within sixty days notify in writing the director of the taxpayer's death. Notification of the director by one of the aforementioned parties shall satisfy the requirements of this subsection.

135.077. Nothing in section 135.037 to 135.083 is intended to or shall be construed to:

(1) Prevent the collection, by foreclosure, of property taxes which become a lien against tax-deferred property;

(2) Defer payment of special assessments to benefitted property which assessments do not appear on the assessment and tax roll;

(3) Affect any provision of any mortgage or other instrument relating to land requiring a person to pay property taxes.

135.079. After August 28, 2003, it shall be unlawful for any mortgage trust deed or land sale contract to contain a clause or statement which prohibits the owner from applying for the benefits of the deferral of homestead property taxes provided in sections 135.037 to 135.083. Any such clause or statement in a mortgage trust deed or land sale contract executed after August 28, 2003, shall be void.

135.083. 1. There is hereby established in the state treasury the "Senior Property Tax Deferral Revolving Account" to be used by the director of revenue for the purpose of making the payments to:

(1) County tax collectors of property taxes deferred for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2003, as required by section 135.049;

(2) The director for expenses to administer the property tax and special assessment senior deferral programs.

2. The funds necessary to make payments pursuant to subsection 1 of this section shall be advanced annually to the director.

3. The senior property tax deferral revolving account may include a reserve for payment of department administrative expenses.

4. All sums of money received by the director of revenue pursuant to sections 135.037 to 135.083 as repayments of deferred property taxes including the interest accrued pursuant to subsection 3 of section 135.045 shall, upon receipt, be credited to the revolving account for the purposes set forth in sections 135.037 to 135.083 subject to appropriations.

5. If there is not sufficient money in the revolving account to make the payments required by subsection 1 of this section, an amount sufficient to make the required payments may be transferred by appropriations from the general revenue fund to the revolving account.

6. When the department determines that moneys in sufficient amounts are available in the revolving account, the director shall repay to the general revenue fund the amounts advanced pursuant to subsection 2 of this section or if no such transfer is made by the director, the general assembly may transfer excess funds from the revolving account to the general revenue fund. The moneys used to repay the general revenue fund pursuant to this section shall not be considered as part of the calculation of total state revenue. The provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, to the contrary notwithstanding, moneys in the revolving account shall not lapse to general revenue.

7. If there are insufficient funds in the general revenue to provide the necessary funding to the revolving account established in this section, the commissioner of administration may issue revenue bonds pursuant to sections 1 to 6 of this act."; and

This section shall not apply to a company that was using any of the prohibited language in its name prior to August 28, 2003. However, a company using the prohibited language in its name shall conspicuously disclose in its service contract the following statement: "This agreement is not an insurance contract."

2. A provider or its representative shall not in its service contracts or literature make, permit, or cause to be made any false or misleading statement, or deliberately omit any material statement that would be considered misleading if omitted, in connection with the sale, offer to sell or advertisement of a service contract.

3. A person, such as a bank, savings and loan association, lending institution, manufacturer or seller of any product, shall not require the purchase of a service contract as a condition of a loan or a condition for the sale of any property.

407.1215. 1. An administrator, provider, or other intermediary shall keep accurate accounts, books, and records concerning transactions regulated by sections 407.1200 to 407.1227.

2. An administrator's, provider's, or other intermediary's accounts, books, and records shall include:

(1) Copies of each type of service contract issued;

(2) The name and address of each service contract holder to the extent that the name and address have been furnished by the service contract holder;

(3) A list of the provider locations where service contracts are marketed, sold, or offered for sale; and

(4) Claims files which shall contain at least the dates, amounts, and description of all receipts, claims, and expenditures related to the service contracts.

3. Except as provided in this section, an administrator shall retain all records pertaining to each service contract holder for at least three years after the specified period of coverage has expired.

4. An administrator, provider, or other intermediary may keep all records required pursuant to sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 on a computer disk or other similar technology. If an administrator maintains records in other than hard copy, records shall be accessible from a computer terminal available to the director and be capable of duplication to legible hard copy.

5. An administrator, provider, or other intermediary discontinuing business in this state shall maintain its records until it furnishes the commissioner satisfactory proof that it has discharged all obligations to contract holders in this state.

6. An administrator, provider, or other intermediary shall make all accounts, books, and records concerning transactions regulations pursuant to sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 or other pertinent laws available to the director upon request.

407.1218. As applicable, an insurer that issued a reimbursement insurance policy shall not terminate the policy until a notice of termination, in a form and time frame prescribed by the director, has been mailed or delivered to the director. The termination of a reimbursement insurance policy shall not reduce the issuer's responsibility for service contracts issued by providers prior to the date of the termination.

407.1221. 1. Providers are considered to be the agent of the insurer which issued the reimbursement insurance policy. In cases where a provider is acting as an administrator and enlists other providers, the provider acting as the administrator shall notify the insurer of the existence and identities of the other providers.

2. The provisions of sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 shall not prevent or limit the right of an insurer which issued a reimbursement insurance policy to seek indemnification or subrogation against a provider if the insurer pays or is obligated to pay the service contract holder sums that the provider was obligated to pay pursuant to the provisions of the service contract or under a contractual agreement.

407.1224. 1. The director may conduct investigations or examinations of providers, administrators, insurers, or other persons to enforce the provisions of sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 and protect service contract holders in this state.

2. The director may take action which is necessary or appropriate to enforce the provisions of sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 and the director's regulations and orders, and to protect service contract holders in this state.

3. The director may order a service contract provider to cease and desist from committing violations of sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 or the director's regulations or orders, may issue an order prohibiting a service contract provider from selling or offering for sale service contracts, or may issue an order imposing a civil penalty, or any combination of these, if the provider has violated the provisions of sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 or the director's regulations or orders.

4. A person aggrieved by an order pursuant to this section may request a hearing before the director. The hearing request shall be filed with the director within twenty days of the date the director's order is effective.

5. Pending the hearing and the decision by the director, the director shall suspend the effective date of the order. At the hearing, the burden shall be on the director to show why the order issued pursuant to this section is justified. Such hearing shall be held in accordance with the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo.

6. The director may bring an action in the circuit court of Cole county for an injunction or other appropriate relief to enjoin threatened or existing violations of sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 or of the director's orders or regulations. An action filed pursuant to this section may also seek restitution on behalf of persons aggrieved by a violation of sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 or orders or regulations of the director.

7. A person in violation of sections 407.1200 to 407.1227 or orders or regulation of the director may be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation.

8. The authority of the director pursuant to this section is in addition to other authority of the director.

407.1225. The director may promulgate rules to effectuate sections 407.1200 to 407.1224. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2003, shall be invalid and void.

407.1227. 1. The provisions of sections 407.1200 to 407.1224 shall not apply to:

- (1) Warranties;
- (2) Maintenance agreements;
- (3) Commercial transactions; and
- (4) Service contracts sold or offered for sale to persons other than consumers.

2. Manufacturer's contracts on the manufacturer's products need only comply with the provisions of sections 407.1209, 407.1212, and 407.1224.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 90, Section B, Line 16, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“Section C. The enactment of sections 407.1200, 407.1203, 407.1206, 407.1209, 407.1212, 407.1215, 407.1218, 407.1221, 407.1224, 407.1225, and 407.1227 shall become effective January 1, 2007.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 6

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 598, Page 31, Section 301.144, Line 19 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“301.147. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 301.020 to the contrary, beginning July 1, 2000, the director of revenue may provide owners of motor vehicles, other than commercial motor vehicles licensed in excess of twelve thousand pounds gross weight, the option of biennially registering motor vehicles. Any vehicle manufactured as an even-numbered model year vehicle shall be renewed each even-numbered calendar year and any such vehicle manufactured as an odd-numbered model year vehicle shall be renewed each odd-numbered calendar year, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The fee collected at the time of biennial registration shall include the annual registration fee plus a pro rata amount for the additional twelve months of the biennial registration;

(2) Presentation of all documentation otherwise required by law for vehicle registration including, but not limited to, a personal property tax receipt or certified statement for the preceding year that no such taxes were due as set forth in section 301.025, proof of a motor vehicle safety inspection and any applicable emission inspection conducted within sixty days prior to the date of application and proof of insurance as required by section 303.026, RSMo[;

(3) For those motor vehicles owned by a person who resides in a county of the first classification without a charter form of government with a population of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census who chooses biennial registration pursuant to this section and who does not submit proof of an emission inspection pursuant to section 643.315, RSMo, but instead submits proof of an emission inspection pursuant to section 307.366, RSMo, the director of the department of revenue shall issue a motor vehicle registration tab valid only for one year. The year following issuance to a person of a motor vehicle registration tab valid only for one year, the director or the director's authorized designee shall, upon notification of any such person's completed emission inspection pursuant to section 307.366, RSMo, by the department of natural resources or its designee, without further application or proof issue such person an additional motor vehicle registration tab valid for the remaining biennial period].

2. The director of revenue may prescribe rules and regulations for the effective administration of this section. The director is authorized to adopt those rules that are reasonable and necessary to accomplish the limited duties specifically delegated within this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is promulgated pursuant to the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after July 1, 2000, shall be invalid and void.

3. The director of revenue shall have the authority to stagger the registration period of motor vehicles other than commercial motor vehicles licensed in excess of twelve thousand pounds gross weight. Once the owner of a motor vehicle chooses the option of biennial registration, such registration must be maintained for the full twenty-four month period.”; and

“643.310. 1. The commission may, by rule, establish a motor vehicle emissions inspection program pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355 for any portion of a nonattainment area located within the area described in subsection 1 of section 643.305, except for any portion of the nonattainment area which is located in a county of the first classification without a charter form of government with a population of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census, except that the commission may establish a motor vehicle emissions inspection program pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355 in such county only for motor vehicles owned by residents of such county who have chosen to [have a biennial motor vehicle registration pursuant to section 301.147, RSMo, if the commission determines that such motor vehicle emissions inspection program is necessary in that area to comply with the requirements of subsection 1 of section 643.305] participate in such a program in lieu of the provisions of section 307.366, RSMo. The commission shall ensure that, for each nonattainment area, the state implementation plan established pursuant to subsection 1 of section 643.305 incorporates and receives all applicable credits allowed by the United States Environmental Protection Agency for emission reduction programs in other nonattainment areas of like designation in other states. The commission shall ensure that emission reduction amounts established pursuant to subsection 2 of section 643.305 shall be consistent with and not exceed the emissions reduction amounts required by the United States Environmental Protection Agency for other nonattainment areas of like designation in other states. No motor vehicle emissions inspection program shall be required to comply with subsection 1 of section 643.305 unless the plan established thereunder takes full advantage of any changes in requirements or any agreements made or entered into by the United States Environmental Protection Agency and any entity or entities on behalf of a nonattainment area concerning compliance with National Ambient Air Quality Standards of the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7401 et seq., and the regulations promulgated thereunder. The air conservation commission shall request and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to bring, in a court of competent jurisdiction, an action challenging the authority of the United States Environmental Protection Agency to impose sanctions for failure to attain National Ambient Air Quality Standards and failure to provide for required emission reductions under the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7401, et seq. The action shall seek to define the required emission reductions and the credits allowed for current and planned emission reductions measures. The air conservation commission shall request and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to bring an action to obtain injunctive relief to enjoin and restrain the imposition of sanctions on the state of Missouri under the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7401, et seq., until all actions initiated pursuant to this section have been decided. Provisions of section 307.366, RSMo, to the contrary notwithstanding, the requirements of sections 643.300 to 643.355 shall apply to those areas designated by the commission pursuant to this section in lieu of the provisions of section 307.366, RSMo.

2. No later than the effective date of this section, the department of natural resources and the Missouri highway patrol shall enter into an interagency agreement covering all aspects of the administration and enforcement of section 307.366, RSMo, and sections 643.300 to 643.355.

3. (1) The department, with the cooperation and approval of the commissioner of administration, shall select a person or persons to operate an inspection facility or inspection program pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355, under a bid procedure or under a negotiated process or a combination thereof based on criteria and expectations established by the department. This process may use either a licensing arrangement or contractual arrangement with the selected party or parties. The selection of persons to operate inspection facilities or inspection programs shall be exempt from the provisions of all site procurement laws. The number of locations shall be no less than the number needed to provide adequate service to customers and establish an emissions inspection program which satisfies the requirements of this section. Each person who is authorized to operate a station pursuant to this section shall be capable of providing adequate and cost-effective service to customers.

(2) Service management, coordination and data processing may be provided by the department or by another person, including a contractor or licensee, based upon the most cost-effective proposal for service.

(3) A license or contract shall be for a period of up to seven years, consistent with the provisions of article IV, section 28 of the Missouri Constitution, and licenses or contracts shall be annually reviewed. A license or contract may be suspended or revoked if the licensee or contractor is not meeting the conditions of sections 643.300 to 643.355, all applicable rules, the license agreement or contract as determined by the department. A licensee or contractor found to have violated sections 643.300 to 643.355, applicable rules or the conditions of the license agreement or contract shall be in violation of section 643.151 and subject to the penalties provided thereunder.

4. The inspection program shall satisfy the following criteria:

(1) There shall be an adequate number of stations to ensure that no more than twenty percent of all persons residing in an affected nonattainment area reside farther than five miles from the nearest inspection station, and consideration shall be given to employment, locations and commuting patterns when selecting the locations of the stations;

(2) There shall be an adequate number of inspection lanes at each facility so that no more than five percent of all persons having an inspection are required to wait more than fifteen minutes before the inspection begins;

(3) The days and daily hours of operation shall include at least those hours specified by the department, which shall include, at a minimum, twelve continuous hours of operation on all weekdays excepting federal holidays, and six continuous hours of operation on all Saturdays excepting federal holidays;

(4) The emissions inspection program shall include a simulated on-road emissions inspection component, including pressure and purge tests, which satisfies the requirements established by regulation of the United States Environmental Protection Agency and may include a visual inspection component;

(5) The inspection stations shall be test-only stations and shall not offer motor vehicle emissions repairs, parts or services of any kind;

(6) No person operating or employed by an emissions inspection station shall repair or maintain motor vehicle emission systems or pollution control devices for compensation of any kind.

5. The commission, the department of economic development and the office of administration shall, in cooperation with the minority business advocacy commission, select the contractor or contractors to provide an inspection program which satisfies the minimum requirements of this section in accordance with the requirements of section 33.752, RSMo, and chapter 34, RSMo. The commission, the office of administration and the department of economic development, in cooperation with the minority business advocacy commission shall ensure adequate minority business participation in the selection of the contractor or contractors to provide an inspection program pursuant to this section. The commission, the office of administration and the department of economic development shall ensure adequate participation of Missouri businesses in the selection of the contractor or contractors to provide an inspection program pursuant to this section.

6. With approval of the commission and pursuant to rules adopted by the commission, an organization whose members are motor vehicle dealers or leasing companies may establish one or more additional emissions inspection facilities, which may be either mobile or stationary, to be used solely to inspect motor vehicles owned and held for sale or lease by the members of the organization. With approval of the commission and pursuant to rules adopted by the commission, any person operating a fleet of five hundred or more motor vehicles may establish one or more additional emissions inspection facilities, which may be either mobile or stationary, to be used solely to inspect motor vehicles owned or leased and operated by the person establishing the facility. The inspections performed in facilities established pursuant to this subsection shall be performed by a contractor selected by the commission pursuant to this section and the contractor performing such inspections shall be responsible solely to the department and shall satisfy all applicable requirements of sections 643.300 to 643.355.

7. Any person who owns Missouri analyzer system emission inspection equipment as defined by rule, used to provide emissions inspections pursuant to section 307.366, RSMo, at a facility located in an area in which an emissions inspection program has been established pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355 may, within twelve months of the implementation of an emissions inspection program pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355, sell such equipment, to the department of natural resources at current market value as established by an independent appraisal provided that the equipment is fully functional and has been maintained according to all applicable manufacturer's specifications and procedures. The department shall purchase such equipment using funds appropriated for that purpose from the Missouri air emission reduction fund. Any person who, prior to January 1, 1992, contracted to lease or lease purchase, or purchased by borrowing a portion of the funds secured by a chattel mortgage, Missouri analyzer system emission inspection equipment used to provide emissions inspections pursuant to section 307.366, RSMo, at a facility located in an area in which an emissions inspection program has been established pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355, and has made all payments required under the contract, may, within twelve months of the implementation of an emissions inspection program pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355, request the department of natural resources to take possession of such equipment and assume all payment obligations owed on such equipment which obligations are not in excess of one hundred and twenty-five percent of the current market value as established by an independent appraisal, provided that the equipment is fully functional and has been maintained according to all applicable manufacturer's specifications and procedures. The department shall take possession of such equipment and pay such obligations using funds appropriated for that purpose from the Missouri air emission reduction fund.

8. If the governor applies to the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency to require federal reformulated gasoline in nonattainment areas, nothing in sections 643.300 to 643.355 shall prevent the storage of conventional gasoline in nonattainment areas which is intended for sale to agricultural, commercial or retail customers outside said nonattainment areas subject to reformulated gasoline.

9. The governor, the department of natural resources, and the commission shall work to ensure an orderly transition period in the nonattainment area for the introduction of reformulated gasoline. Priority shall be given to ensure the petroleum refiners ample time to organize, structure, and implement both the production and the delivery of reformulated gasoline to the nonattainment area, so that consumers will see an orderly, seamless market substitution.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senate Amendment No. 7

AMEND Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 598, Page 34, Section 301.463, Line 23 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“301.567. 1. For purposes of this section, a violation of any of the following advertising standards shall be deemed an attempt by the advertising dealer to obtain a fee or other compensation by fraud, deception or misrepresentation in violation of section 301.562:

(1) A motor vehicle shall not be advertised as new, either by express terms or implication, unless it is a “new motor vehicle” as defined in section 301.550;

(2) When advertising any motor vehicle which is not a new motor vehicle, such advertisement must expressly identify that the motor vehicle is a used motor vehicle by express use of the term “used”, or by such other term as is commonly understood to mean that the vehicle is used;

(3) Any terms, conditions, and disclaimers relating to the advertised motor vehicle's price or financing options shall be stated clearly and conspicuously. An asterisk or other reference symbol may be used to point to a disclaimer or other information, but not be used as a means of contradicting or changing the meaning of an advertised statement;

(4) The expiration date, if any, of an advertised sale or vehicle price shall be clearly and conspicuously disclosed. In the absence of such disclosure, the advertised sale or vehicle price shall be deemed effective so long as such vehicles remain in the advertising dealership's inventory;

(5) The terms “list price”, “sticker price”, or “suggested retail price” shall be used only in reference to the manufacturer's suggested retail price for new motor vehicles, and, if used, shall be accompanied by a clear and conspicuous disclosure that such terms represent the “manufacturer's suggested retail price” of the advertised vehicle;

(6) Terms such as “at cost”, “$..... above cost” shall not be used in advertisements because of the difficulty in determining a dealer's actual net cost at the time of the sale[. Terms such as “invoice price”, “$..... over invoice” may be used, provided that the invoice referred to is the manufacturer's factory invoice for a new motor vehicle and the invoice is available for customer inspection. For purposes of this section, "manufacturer's factory invoice" means that document supplied by the manufacturer to the dealer listing the manufacturer's charge to the dealer before any deduction for holdback, group advertising, factory incentives or rebates, or any governmental charges];

(7) When the price or financing terms of a motor vehicle are advertised, the vehicle shall be fully identified as to year, make, and model. In addition, in advertisements placed by individual dealers and not line-make marketing groups, the advertised price or credit terms shall include all charges which the buyer must pay to the dealer, except buyer-selected options and state and local taxes. If a processing fee or freight or destination charges are not included in the advertised price, the amount of any such processing fee and freight or destination charge must be clearly and conspicuously disclosed within the advertisement;

(8) [Advertisements which offer to match or better any competitors' prices shall not be used;

(9)] Advertisements of "dealer rebates" shall not be used, however, this shall not be deemed to prohibit the advertising of manufacturer rebates, so long as all material terms of such rebates are clearly and conspicuously disclosed;

[(10)] (9) "Free", "at no cost" shall not be used if any purchase is required to qualify for the "free" item, merchandise, or service;

[(11)] (10) "Bait advertising", in which an advertiser may have no intention to sell at the prices or terms advertised, shall not be used. Bait advertising shall include, but not be limited to, the following examples:

(a) Not having available for sale the advertised motor vehicles at the advertised prices. If a specific vehicle is advertised, the dealer shall be in possession of a reasonable supply of such vehicles, and they shall be available at the advertised price. If the advertised vehicle is available only in limited numbers or only by order, such limitations shall be stated in the advertisement;

(b) Advertising a motor vehicle at a specified price, including such terms as "as low as $.....", but having available for sale only vehicles equipped with dealer-added cost options which increase the selling price above the advertised price;

[(12)] (11) Any reference to monthly payments, down payments, or other reference to financing or leasing information shall be accompanied by a clear and conspicuous disclosure of the following:

(a) Whether the payment or other information relates to a financing or a lease transaction;

(b) If the payment or other information relates to a financing transaction, the minimum down payment, annual percentage interest rate, and number of payments necessary to obtain the advertised payment amount must be disclosed, in addition to any special qualifications required for obtaining the advertised terms including, but not limited to, "first-time buyer" discounts, "college graduate" discounts, and a statement concerning whether the advertised terms are subject to credit approval;

(c) If the payment or other information relates to a lease transaction, the total amount due from the purchaser at signing with such costs broken down and identified by category, lease term expressed in number of months, whether the lease is closed-end or open-end, and total cost to the lessee over the lease term in dollars;

[(13)] (12) Any advertisement which states or implies that the advertising dealer has a special arrangement or relationship with the distributor or manufacturer, as compared to similarly situated dealers, shall not be used;

[(14)] (13) Any advertisement which, in the circumstances under which it is made or applied, is false, deceptive, or misleading shall not be used;

[(15)] (14) No abbreviations for industry words or phrases shall be used in any advertisement unless such abbreviations are accompanied by the fully spelled or spoken words or phrases.

2. The requirements of this section shall apply regardless of whether a dealer advertises by means of print, broadcast, or electronic media, or direct mail.

3. Dealers shall clearly and conspicuously identify themselves in each advertisement by use of a dealership name which complies with subsection 6 of section 301.560."; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

HR 887 - St. Onge

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTY-SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 15, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

So much to do, God – so little time. Help us through this time, because what these women and men work for is people. Human persons attempting to live out life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Our representatives also embody this amazing state, Missouri, this gift of natural resources for our stewardship.

Despite the last minute rush during these final two days, we grasp this moment. We put ourselves in Your caring hands. We breathe You in, allowing You to fill our minds and hearts. Assist these men and women to echo the common wealth we all embrace as Your family. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the seventy-first day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

2. A taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability, in an amount equal to fifty percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a pregnancy resource center.

3. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state tax liability for the taxable year for which the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit in excess of fifty thousand dollars per taxable year. However, any tax credit that cannot be claimed in the taxable year the contribution was made may be carried over to the next four succeeding taxable years until the full credit has been claimed.

4. Except for any excess credit which is carried over pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, a taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit unless the total amount of such taxpayer's contribution or contributions to a pregnancy resource center or centers in such taxpayer's taxable year has a value of at least one hundred dollars.

The cumulative amount of tax credits which may be claimed by all the taxpayers contributing to pregnancy resource centers in any one fiscal year shall not exceed two million dollars. Tax credits shall be issued in the order contributions are received.

7. The director shall establish a procedure by which, from the beginning of the fiscal year until some point in time later in the fiscal year to be determined by the director, the cumulative amount of tax credits are equally apportioned among all facilities classified as pregnancy resource centers. If a pregnancy resource center fails to use all, or some percentage to be determined by the director, of its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the director may reapportion these unused tax credits to those pregnancy resource centers that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by the director, of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The director may establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year. To the maximum extent possible, the director shall establish the procedure described in this subsection in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim all the tax credits possible up to the cumulative amount of tax credits available for the fiscal year.

8. Each pregnancy resource center shall provide information to the director concerning the identity of each taxpayer making a contribution to the pregnancy resource center who is claiming a tax credit pursuant to this section and the amount of the contribution. The director shall provide the information to the director of revenue. The summons must also include instructions on how to dispose of the violation through court appearance or payment of the fine and costs.

“301.567. 1. For purposes of this section, a violation of any of the following advertising standards shall be deemed an attempt by the advertising dealer to obtain a fee or other compensation by fraud, deception or misrepresentation in violation of section 301.562:

(1) A motor vehicle shall not be advertised as new, either by express terms or implication, unless it is a “new motor vehicle” as defined in section 301.550;

(2) When advertising any motor vehicle which is not a new motor vehicle, such advertisement must expressly identify that the motor vehicle is a used motor vehicle by express use of the term “used”, or by such other term as is commonly understood to mean that the vehicle is used;

(3) Any terms, conditions, and disclaimers relating to the advertised motor vehicle's price or financing options shall be stated clearly and conspicuously. An asterisk or other reference symbol may be used to point to a disclaimer or other information, but not be used as a means of contradicting or changing the meaning of an advertised statement;

(4) The expiration date, if any, of an advertised sale or vehicle price shall be clearly and conspicuously disclosed. In the absence of such disclosure, the advertised sale or vehicle price shall be deemed effective so long as such vehicles remain in the advertising dealership's inventory;

(5) The terms "list price", "sticker price", or "suggested retail price" shall be used only in reference to the manufacturer's suggested retail price for new motor vehicles, and, if used, shall be accompanied by a clear and conspicuous disclosure that such terms represent the "manufacturer's suggested retail price" of the advertised vehicle;

(6) Terms such as "at cost", "$..... above cost" shall not be used in advertisements because of the difficulty in determining a dealer's actual net cost at the time of the sale[. Terms such as "invoice price", "$..... over invoice" may be used, provided that the invoice referred to is the manufacturer's factory invoice for a new motor vehicle and the invoice is available for customer inspection. For purposes of this section, "manufacturer's factory invoice" means that document supplied by the manufacturer to the dealer listing the manufacturer's charge to the dealer before any deduction for holdback, group advertising, factory incentives or rebates, or any governmental charges];

(7) When the price or financing terms of a motor vehicle are advertised, the vehicle shall be fully identified as to year, make, and model. In addition, in advertisements placed by individual dealers and not line-make marketing groups, the advertised price or credit terms shall include all charges which the buyer must pay to the dealer, except buyer-selected options and state and local taxes. If a processing fee or freight or destination charges are not included in the advertised price, the amount of any such processing fee and freight or destination charge must be clearly and conspicuously disclosed within the advertisement;

(8) [Advertisements which offer to match or better any competitors' prices shall not be used;

(9)] Advertisements of "dealer rebates" shall not be used, however, this shall not be deemed to prohibit the advertising of manufacturer rebates, so long as all material terms of such rebates are clearly and conspicuously disclosed;

[(10)] (9) "Free", "at no cost" shall not be used if any purchase is required to qualify for the "free" item, merchandise, or service;

[(11)] (10) "Bait advertising", in which an advertiser may have no intention to sell at the prices or terms advertised, shall not be used. Bait advertising shall include, but not be limited to, the following examples:

(a) Not having available for sale the advertised motor vehicles at the advertised prices. If a specific vehicle is advertised, the dealer shall be in possession of a reasonable supply of such vehicles, and they shall be available at the advertised price. If the advertised vehicle is available only in limited numbers or only by order, such limitations shall be stated in the advertisement;

(b) Advertising a motor vehicle at a specified price, including such terms as "as low as $.....", but having available for sale only vehicles equipped with dealer-added cost options which increase the selling price above the advertised price;

[(12)] (11) Any reference to monthly payments, down payments, or other reference to financing or leasing information shall be accompanied by a clear and conspicuous disclosure of the following:

(a) Whether the payment or other information relates to a financing or a lease transaction;

(b) If the payment or other information relates to a financing transaction, the minimum down payment, annual percentage interest rate, and number of payments necessary to obtain the advertised payment amount must be disclosed, in addition to any special qualifications required for obtaining the advertised terms including, but not limited to, "first-time buyer" discounts, "college graduate" discounts, and a statement concerning whether the advertised terms are subject to credit approval;

(c) If the payment or other information relates to a lease transaction, the total amount due from the purchaser at signing with such costs broken down and identified by category, lease term expressed in number of months, whether the lease is closed-end or open-end, and total cost to the lessee over the lease term in dollars;

[(13)] (12) Any advertisement which states or implies that the advertising dealer has a special arrangement or relationship with the distributor or manufacturer, as compared to similarly situated dealers, shall not be used;

[(14)] (13) Any advertisement which, in the circumstances under which it is made or applied, is false, deceptive, or misleading shall not be used;

[(15)] (14) No abbreviations for industry words or phrases shall be used in any advertisement unless such abbreviations are accompanied by the fully spelled or spoken words or phrases.

2. The requirements of this section shall apply regardless of whether a dealer advertises by means of print, broadcast, or electronic media, or direct mail.

644.625. 1. The owner or operator of any class IA liquified animal waste handling facility utilizing a flush system shall employ one or more persons who shall visually inspect the liquified animal waste handling facility for unauthorized discharge and structural integrity of any lagoon with a water level less than eighteen inches below the emergency spillway at least every twelve hours with a deviation of not to exceed three hours. The owner or operator of the facility shall keep records of each inspection. Such records shall be retained for three years. The department shall provide or approve a form provided by the owner or operator for each facility for such inspections.

2. All new construction permits for liquified animal waste handling facilities utilizing a flush system shall have an electronic or mechanical shutoff of the system in the event of pipe stoppage. As of July 1, 1997, all existing liquified animal waste handling facilities utilizing a flush system shall have, at a minimum, an electronic or mechanical shutoff of the system in the event of pipe stoppage or backflow.

644.630. 1. The owner or operator of every liquified animal waste handling facility utilizing a flush system that poses a risk as determined by the department to any public drinking water supply or any aquatic life, or lies within a drainage basin and is within three hundred feet of any adjacent landowner, shall have a failsafe containment structure or earthen dam that will contain, in the event of an unauthorized discharge, a minimum volume equal to the maximum capacity of flushing in any twenty-four hour period from all gravity outfall lines, recycle pump station and recycle force mains.

2. Construction of such structure or dam, as provided in subsection 1 of this section, shall commence within ninety days of June 25, 1996.

644.635. Within twenty-four hours, any unauthorized discharge by a class IA concentrated animal feeding operation that has crossed the property line of the facility or any unauthorized discharge by a class IA concentrated animal feeding operation that utilizes a flush system of which the failsafe containment structure or earthen dam has failed to contain and has crossed the property line of the facility, or enters waters of the state shall be reported to the department and to all adjoining property owners of the facility onto whose property the unauthorized discharge flowed.

644.640. There is hereby established in the state treasury the "Concentrated Animal Feeding Operation Indemnity Fund", to be known as the "fund" for the purposes of sections 644.640 to 644.647. All fees or other moneys payable pursuant to the provisions of section 644.645 or other moneys received including gifts, grants, appropriations, and bequests from federal, private, or other sources made for the purpose of the provisions of sections 644.600 to 644.655, shall be payable to and collected by the director of the department of natural resources and deposited in this fund. The money in this fund, upon appropriation, shall be expended to close class IA, class IB, class IC and class II concentrated animal feeding operations as defined in the department's rules, that have been placed in the control of the government due to bankruptcy or failure to pay property taxes, or if the class IA, class IB, class IC or class II concentrated animal feeding operation is abandoned property. "Abandoned property", for the purposes of this section, means real property previously used for, or which has the potential to be used for, agricultural purposes which has been placed in the control of the state, a county, or municipal government, or an agency thereof, through donation, purchase, tax delinquency, foreclosure, default or settlement, including conveyance by deed in lieu of foreclosure, and has been vacant for a period of not less than three years. Any portion of the fund not immediately needed for the purposes authorized shall be invested by the state treasurer as provided by the constitution and laws of this state. All income from such investments shall be deposited in the fund. Any unexpended balance in the fund at the end of any appropriation period shall not be transferred to the general revenue fund and, accordingly, shall be exempt from the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, relating to the transfer of funds to the general revenue funds of the state by the state treasurer.

644.645. 1. The owner or operator of each class IA concentrated animal feeding operation utilizing a liquified animal waste handling facility shall remit to the department of natural resources a fee of ten cents per animal unit permitted to be deposited in the fund. The fee is due and payable to the department on the first anniversary of issuance of each owner or operator permit to operate such a facility and for nine years thereafter on the same date. The department of natural resources shall provide forms which such owner or operator shall use to file and pay this fee.

2. The fund shall be administered by the department for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of sections 644.600 to 644.655, relating to closure of class IA, class IB, class IC and class II concentrated animal feeding operation wastewater lagoons.

3. The fund administrators may only expend moneys for animal waste lagoon closure activities on real property which:

(1) Has been placed in the control of the state, a county, or municipal government, or an agency thereof, through donation, purchase, tax delinquency, foreclosure, default or settlement, including conveyance by deed in lieu of foreclosure, and pose a threat to human health, the environment, or a threat to groundwater; and

(2) The state, county, or municipal government, or an agency thereof, has made reasonable and prudent efforts to sell said property to a qualifying purchaser.

4. The fund administrators shall expend no more than one hundred thousand dollars per lagoon for animal waste lagoon closure activities. The fund administrators shall only expend those moneys necessary to achieve a minimum level of closure and still protect human health and the environment. Closure activities shall include lagoon dewatering and removal of animal waste sludge, if any, both of which shall be land applied at a nutrient management application rate designed to minimize phosphorus and nitrogen transport from fields to surface waters in compliance with the technical standards for nutrient management established by the director or otherwise used or disposed of in a manner approved by the director. After dewatering, lagoons which are located in a drainage basin and are capable of meeting all applicable pond requirements of the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) with minimal additional expense should be maintained as a pond. Otherwise, the lagoon berms should be breached and graded in such a manner to reasonably conform to the surrounding land contours.

644.647. In the event the department determines that a class IA, class IB, class IC or class II concentrated animal feeding operation has been successfully closed by the owner or operator, all moneys paid by such operation into the concentrated animal feeding operation indemnity fund shall be returned to such operation.

644.650. The department shall conduct at least one on-site inspection of each facility quarterly.

644.655. 1. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated under the authority of sections 644.600 to 644.655 shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo.

2. Sections 644.600 to 644.655 shall be administered by the clean water commission pursuant to the provisions and requirements of this chapter.

3. The provisions of sections 644.600 to 644.655 shall not be construed to apply to any livestock market.

4. The department may, upon review of the information contained in the site plan including, but not limited to, the prevailing winds, topography and other local environmental factors, authorize a distance which is less than the distance prescribed in subsection 2 of this section. The department's recommendation shall be sent to the governing body of the county in which such site is proposed. The department's authorized buffer distance shall become effective unless the county governing body rejects the department's recommendation by a majority vote at the next meeting of the governing body after the recommendation is received.

5. Nothing in this section shall be construed as restricting local controls.]

- (2) The waste handling plan and general layout of the facility;
- (3) The location and number of acres of such facility;
- (4) Name, address, telephone number and registered agent for further information as it relates to subdivisions (1) to (3) of this subsection;

HR 887 - St. Onge

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY, FRIDAY, MAY 16, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

The "party's almost over", God, it's almost "time to call it a day". In these last hours, there will be furor and fuming, laughter and tears, politics and poetry, agony and ecstasy. Firstly, Almighty One, let these men and women attack this day with grace and good manners.

Secondly, if there can be such a thing in a body this diverse and numerous, at the end of this day we pray for good winners and good losers, such as they may be. We pray for a minimum of gloating and a maximum of recommitment to basic principles and sentiments.

Our way of governing is based on mutual respect, stalwart opinions strongly expressed, but in the end, moving forward sans rancor as one sovereign state. We pray, God of people and God of nations, that these men and women recommit themselves again to those who elected them, to this process which works, however haltingly at times, to the happiness and health of the people as the greatest law, and to their own honor which moved them in the first place to serve the people in this historic Chamber. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Connor Ehren Earleywine, Candace A. Beach, George M. Corcoran, III and Patrick K. Corcoran.

The Journal of the seventy-second day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

REFERRAL OF SENATE BILL

SCS SB 159 - Health Care Policy

Prayer by Father David Buescher

Almighty God, this state of Missouri asks a special blessing on these representatives and their staffs, on the leadership of both parties and their staffs, on all the ancillary services here in the Capitol, for all the effort that went into this session.

It has been difficult, in many ways. For those representatives not returning next session, we know You will bless them as they begin new chapters in their lives. For all, may this weekend refill all the sails with the breath of new energy and resolve. May we all go in Your peace. Amen.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Extraordinary Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIRST DAY, MONDAY, JUNE 2, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

You, God, surely You note today the various and sometimes contradictory emotions which fill this historical Chamber. These men and women must be here today. Yes, they were so ordered to so do. But they are here for more than just that. They took a solemn oath to uphold the Constitution of this state.

Even more, they're here because they own their responsibility to the people of this state, and perceive carrying out that charge as a serious undertaking. Please help them to begin this day and to work through this week with the advantage of some optimism, with salutary hope, and with a compelling desire to make these hours and days a fruitful enterprise. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following Proclamation was received from His Excellency, Governor Bob Holden.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Article III, Section 25 of the Constitution of the State of Missouri prohibits the General Assembly during its Regular Session from taking up for consideration any appropriation bill after 6:00 p.m. on the first Friday following the first Monday in May of each year; and

WHEREAS, May 9, 2003, was the first Friday following the first Monday in May of this year during the first Regular Session of this 92nd General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, the budget the General Assembly presented to the Governor on May 21, 2003, is significantly unbalanced and inadequate in that it fails to provide sufficient funds for education and those government services that protect all citizens, including children and the most vulnerable Missourians; and

WHEREAS, the 2004 fiscal year begins on July 1, 2003; and

WHEREAS, I vetoed Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 10 because:

This bill reduces services to our most vulnerable citizens. Under this bill treatment and services for more than 3,200 mentally ill adults, 800 emotionally disordered children and almost 6,000 persons with a developmental disability will be reduced or eliminated. Substance abuse and treatment services will also be reduced or eliminated for over 7,000 Missourians. In addition, it eliminates women's health services, which are often the only primary health care services provided to over 30,000 low-income women. We cannot pretend that by cutting these dollars that there is no longer the need to serve and protect these citizens; and

WHEREAS, I vetoed Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 3 because:

This bill reduces state aid to Missouri's two- and four-year colleges and universities to unacceptable levels. Under this bill, tuition and fees would increase at an average rate of approximately 10%, forcing a "tax increase" on low and middle income families. The reductions to various grant and scholarship programs will further reduce the availability of higher education opportunities. Families with lower and middle incomes may no longer be able to afford the cost of college. Due to the multiplier effect of these cuts to higher education institutions on their local and regional economies, the negative economic impact could result in additional reductions of $50-$150 million in these communities and regions; and

WHEREAS, I vetoed Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 11 because:

This bill reduces support and critical services to people who need it the most. About 13,000 low-income working adults will lose healthcare coverage due to reductions in the Medicaid program. This reduction could lead to an increase in more costly emergency room visits and unhealthy parents unable to care for their children. The CHOICES program, which assists over 1,000 foster care youth between the ages of 13 and 15 in becoming responsible adults, will be eliminated. Grandparents raising their grandchildren will have an additional financial burden due to lower reimbursement rates under the Grandparents as Foster Parents Program. The state's effort to help eliminate violence in the home will be hampered because of reductions in Domestic Violence grants. Reduced support for community services will hurt welfare recipient's ability to achieve self-sufficiency. Community Partnerships have been productive in leveraging local and federal funds to address the social problems of their communities. These essential services are necessary to protect our most vulnerable citizens. This bill also reduces funding for Medicaid programs that are not connected to any cost-savings policy or statutory change. These reductions are not sustainable and must be restored to achieve a balanced budget; and

WHEREAS, I vetoed Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 2 because:

This bill reduces state aid to our public schools to unacceptable levels. Since a significant percentage of the foundation program supports teacher salaries, such a cut is likely to result in the layoff of 3,400 school employees, including 2,038 teachers across the state. The elimination of the Science, Social Studies, and Health Education assessments is a step backwards in accountability of Missouri schools. The department and local school districts will be unable to determine how well students are performing in these important subject areas. Our children are our future. Reduced funding for education jeopardizes our commitment to provide quality public education to our children. It also jeopardizes the progress we've made improving test scores and drop out rates. We must protect the state's investment in education; and

WHEREAS, sufficient appropriations are still necessary for the budgets of the Departments of Elementary and Secondary Education, Health and Mental Health, Higher Education, Social Services and other governmental entities as specifically designated and limited below in paragraphs numbered as 1 through 4; and

WHEREAS, the failure to appropriate sufficient funds for the continued operations of the Departments of Elementary and Secondary Education, Health and Mental Health, Higher Education, Social Services and other governmental entities as specifically designated and limited below in paragraphs numbered as 1 through 4 would cause a serious disruption in the delivery of state and local governmental services to Missouri citizens, as the state would have insufficient funds to operate after June 30, 2003; and

WHEREAS, such a disruption in the delivery of state and local governmental services would constitute a serious threat to the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, such a disruption in the delivery of state and local governmental services would impede the Governor from carrying out his duties pursuant to Article IV, Section 2, of the Constitution of Missouri to “take care that the laws are distributed and faithfully executed;” and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 9, authorizes the Governor to “On extraordinary occasions....convene the General Assembly by proclamation, wherein he shall state specifically each matter on which action is deemed necessary;” and

WHEREAS, such failure to appropriate adequate funds as required by the Constitution of the State of Missouri is an extraordinary occasion as envisioned by Article IV, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Missouri.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the extraordinary occasion that exists in the State of Missouri:

I, BOB HOLDEN, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Governor by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Missouri, do, by this Proclamation, convene the Ninety Second General Assembly of the State of Missouri in the First Extra Session of the First Regular Session; and

I HEREBY call upon the Senators and Representatives of said General Assembly to meet in their respective chambers in the State Capitol in the City of Jefferson at the hour of 12:00 p.m., Central Daylight Time, June 2, 2003; and

I HEREBY state that the action of said General Assembly is deemed necessary concerning each matter specifically designated and limited hereinafter as follows:

1. To appropriate sufficient money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the Department of Mental Health, the Board of Public Buildings, the Department of Health and Senior Services, and the several divisions and programs thereof, the Missouri Health Facilities Review Committee and the Commission for the Missouri Senior RX Program, in an amount sufficient to protect the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Missouri, to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri; and

2. To appropriate sufficient money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the Department of Higher Education and the several divisions, programs, and institutions of higher education included therein, in an amount sufficient to protect the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Missouri, to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds; and

3. To appropriate sufficient money for the expenses, grants, and distributions of the Department of Social Services and the several divisions and programs thereof, in an amount sufficient to protect the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Missouri, to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri; and

4. To appropriate sufficient money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the State Board of Education and the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and the several divisions and programs thereof, in an amount sufficient to protect the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Missouri, to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds; and

5. To enact limited revenue enhancement proposals to be approved by the voters so that they may choose to authorize revenue in an amount sufficient to protect the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Missouri, including the necessary and essential services set forth above in paragraphs 1 through 4; and

6. To amend the dead line for notification to election authorities of matters intended to be submitted to the voters for elections and to enact such legislation, with an emergency clause, in order for the state to utilize the legislation passed during this extra session; and

7. Such additional and other matters as may be recommended by the Governor by special message to the General Assembly after it shall have been convened.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri in the City of Jefferson on this 30th day of May, 2003.

First Extraordinary Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRD DAY, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Heavenly God, around us we see plaques and windows impressed with high-souled words like "fellowship", "democracy", "progress", and so forth. Please help this fellowship of representatives invoke their sense of democracy that progress may be made here today and throughout this special session.

We fight wars with weapons of destruction to protect those values. Help these women and men fight with those equally potent weapons - like the arsenal of thought and common sense, discussion, openness, and compassion. And, God, may the successful and the rich, and the marginalized little people, the hopelessly poor, children, the weak, the mentally and physically infirm, be remembered and valued as decisions are made. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEM PETER KINDER

I wish to appeal to you first for some cooperation on three measures we passed that you have pledged to veto. First, you have pledged a veto of the right-to-carry bill we passed, yet again, with overwhelming bipartisan support. A few facts: This year saw three more states - Minnesota, Colorado and New Mexico - pass this bill. So we have now 22 states that have passed right-to-carry during the decade that leaders of your party have fought our efforts to extend this right to law-abiding Missourians, well-trained in handling firearms. With the action of these three states, we as Missourians now find ourselves isolated among only five states that stubbornly deny our citizens this natural right of self-defense.

In a remarkable op-ed piece published last month in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, a Democrat and former congressional candidate from St. Louis named John Ross addressed this issue. Ross comes from a remarkable lineage: His grandfather was Charlie Ross, who served as press secretary to President Harry Truman at a time when both of my grandfathers called themselves Harry Truman Democrats. John Ross' piece addressed your lack of cooperation and impending veto of right-to-carry. It is Ross' thesis that if you follow through on this veto, you will further accelerate the decline of the party of my grandfathers across this great state. A look at the electoral map, and the 104 counties that passed right-to-carry four years ago, is instructive.

My question to you, Governor, with all due respect sir, is simple: Why do you not trust law-abiding Missourians with a right that the vast majority of Americans already exercise safely and responsibly, day in and day out?

Governor, I ask for your cooperation and implore you not to veto, but to sign, the right-to-carry bill.

Second is the 24-hour waiting bill for abortions. A little research shows that 21 states already have this reasonable measure on their books. Year-in and year-out for three decades, Missourians have elected overwhelming pro-life majorities no matter which party controlled the General Assembly, a result re-confirmed and strengthened last November. Yet you seem determined to out-do your predecessor in not cooperating with our pro-life majority and fighting us at every turn.

Governor, I ask for your cooperation and implore you not to veto, but to sign the 24-hour wait bill.

Third is the vital issue of lawsuit reform. Here, your position is most interesting. You acknowledge that a problem amounting to a crisis exists, but seem to believe that it is limited to medical malpractice. Your stated position, released in a statement as we Senators approached our 30th hour of debate over three days and nights, was that you would sign a bill encompassing our work as it related to medical malpractice, leaving out all other Missourians. "Take out the docs, address the concerns of the medical providers," seems to your approach, and leave all other Missouri businesses and individuals to operate under a different system of civil justice.

Governor, let me tell you about my late father, a pediatrician who practiced for 52 years in Cape Girardeau. Three-and-a-half years before his death in an auto accident on July 1, 2000, he had closed his practice to move to the county health unit in the poorest part of South Cape Girardeau, there to see an exclusively Medicaid population, heavy with minorities, who had no one else to take care of them. He was a living, breathing lesson straight out of the 25th Chapter of the Gospel of Matthew, and this as he moved with energy and purpose into his ninth decade of life. Seeking nothing for himself, no man of words but rather a man of action and humility, he was a living exemplar of the wisdom etched into the walls outside the Senate chamber: "Not to be served, but to serve." Were Dr. Jim Kinder here today, I know what he would say: He would tell us that is just flat wrong to say that we should have one civil-justice system for doctors and another, more onerous one, for all other Missourians.

Governor, I ask for your cooperation and implore you not to veto, but to sign, the lawsuit-reform bill.

And now for the budget, the reason you have brought us back to the Capitol for this extraordinary session. I join with most Missourians in believing that this session is unnecessary, that we in the House and Senate did our darndest to put together a sound budget in very difficult times, and that at least in our chamber, it was a bipartisan compromise with a bipartisan result.

You have responded with a six-figure television and radio advertising campaign attacking us, and by flying around the state at taxpayer expense, holding staged media events to decry our work.

Governor, I join with other Missourians from all walks of life, who are asking of their elected leaders, when it comes to taxes: What part of “no” don’t you understand?

On the last afternoon of the session, May 16th, at my invitation you came to my office to discuss a Medicaid cost-containment measure that you had asked us to pass, in your state-of-the-state message in January. It was a Senate bill, a major piece of legislation. Unlike the norm when your party controlled the Senate and House, we had a key member of the minority party handling this major bill. This was a bill that you had asked us to pass, and on which your budget was predicated, as you had built in the cost-savings from its passage into your plan.

With four hours remaining in the session, I implored you to compromise with us and call off the dogs and help us pass the bill you had asked for. In response, I received a total lack of cooperation and was met with a stone wall from you and your aides. The bill failed of adoption as time ran out on an otherwise tremendously productive session.

It now appears clear that this refusal on your part was part of a well-planned strategy – do not cooperate, do not compromise – urged on you by political aides and decided on weeks if not months earlier, to deny us these and other savings, and then blame the resulting larger budget gap on us.

Governor, the people who sent us here expect better of us than this – another cynical version of the blame game.

We in the Legislature met our constitutional duty to pass a realistic budget plan authorizing expenditures by the state within the time allowed. Whether you like it or not, we produced a bipartisan budget compromise that was on-time and based on real revenue. You have taken our on-time budget and turned it into an over-time budget, with billions for education and healthcare hanging in the balance.

We in the Legislature reduced real spending to match the real revenue we expect our state to receive.

We have refused, and will continue to refuse, to write a budget plan based on the imaginary revenue you would like to send to a vote of the people in order to force Missourians to cough up more.

And yes, the difference between your budget and the budget we passed is the difference between real and imagined revenue:

You balanced your budget in January based on $700 million in imaginary revenue – money that is only possible as a figment of your imagination.

We passed a bipartisan budget compromise that was on-time and balanced on real revenue.

You vetoed $12 billion we approved as part of our bipartisan budget compromise for school children, college students, the poor and elderly, while demanding another $700 million from taxpayers.

Throughout this entire legislative session, our new majorities have cooperated with you and made serious efforts to compromise where we could.

Early in the session, we reached a compromise to address the fiscal year 2003 shortfall by issuing revenue bonds that saved taxpayers over $200 million dollars over the life of the bonds. Our efforts allowed us to keep over $200 million to go towards the pending crisis in fiscal year 2004.

In fact, we have cooperated and compromised on many of the proposals you asked us to consider. We met you more than half way on the tax loopholes you asked us to close, adopting six of your eleven recommendations.

We compromised by meeting you more than half way on new revenues, handing you $400 million in additional money even before consideration of the federal revenue that is now on its way.

The President and the Congress, led by our two United States Senators, have sent us nearly $400 million in help, but even this doesn't quench your thirst for higher taxes. Perhaps you can explain to us, and to thousands of listening Missourians, why it is that you just want MORE!

Governor, I don't understand how you can ask us for cooperation and compromise when you and your Democrat attack machine criticize us for a budget that is $12 MILLION out of balance, while creating a budget crisis that is $12 BILLION out of balance.

As sure as I know I am standing here today, I know we in the Legislature have cooperated with you and your administration as much as we possibly can.

But we cannot and will not compromise on sending any tax increase to a vote of the people.

Governor, your comments in recent days, together with those of your budget director, clearly point to still more vetoes of the budget bills that are moving toward your desk, a course that will take us to an unprecedented shutdown looming at the end of this month. If and when that day comes, let everyone in this great state fix that responsibility where it so clearly belongs: On your shoulders and yours alone.

I implore you, Governor, to turn back from this course before it is too late!

ESCORT COMMITTEE

The Speaker appointed the following committee to escort the Honorable Bob Holden, Governor of the State of Missouri to the dais: Representatives Goodman, Davis (19), Wilson (130), Ervin, Cooper (155), Emery, Harris (110), Burnett, Boykins and Graham.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Honorable Bob Holden. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais.

ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR BOB HOLDEN

Madam Speaker, Mr. President Pro Tem, First Lady Lori Hauser Holden, and Members of the 92nd General Assembly:

We are here today for one reason and one reason alone. I called for this special session of the legislature, because the work of the people remains unfinished. As all of you know, our state finds itself in the gravest of circumstances. How else can you describe a budgetary crisis where you, the state legislature, did not present a balanced budget as required by our constitution?

By your actions, you have now demonstrated it is not possible to balance Missouri's budget without devastating cuts to education and health care or new sources of revenue. And, even with a one-time infusion of federal funds, your budget is still severely out of balance ...which means that your work, and my work, is far from finished.

To claim that this federal money will solve our budget problems is like finding a ten-dollar bill and thinking you'll never have to pay for lunch again. You're either deceiving yourself ... or trying to deceive the people. The truth is, no one is going to rescue us from this imbalance. That's our responsibility as public servants.

It's not public service to pass an unbalanced budget ... and then wait for someone else to solve the problem. It's not public service to ignore fiscal reality and claim revenues that don't exist. It's not public service to apply one-time federal funds and claim that the problem is solved, when clearly it isn't. And it's not public service to protect the tobacco and gambling interests at the expense of our young, our sick, and our elderly.

Let me say this as clearly and as bluntly as I can ... you are not fooling anyone. Even with your severe cuts to education and health care, your budget still does not balance. And you've done nothing to solve the underlying problems that created this budget crisis in the first place. Which means that next year we'll be right back here in the same budget hole ... unless we rise to our duty, face reality, and solve this problem together.

Because Missouri deserves better than this. We can do better than a budget that throws thousands of working adults off of Medicaid. We can do better than a budget that eliminates mental health services for thousands of adults and troubled children. We can do better than a budget that forces mass layoffs of public school teachers. And we can do better than a budget that raises tuition and puts college out of reach for thousands of Missouri families. This is the budget you have presented ... and this is the budget I have vetoed.

Over the last two years, I've cut over one billion dollars in state spending ... more than any Governor in Missouri history. We've cut fat. Now you're cutting the bone. We can't allow that to happen.

Some of you have said that "people should be doing more for themselves." Well, tell that to the parents of an autistic child ... as if those parents weren't already doing all that they can in a difficult situation. Tell that to a child whose teacher has been laid off ... as if children could teach themselves how to read. Or tell that to a low-income worker stricken with pneumonia. Tell them to heal themselves, because there just isn't enough money to pay for health care.

We cannot balance this budget by pointing fingers at those in our society who fall short of perfection ... or by shredding the safety net that allows thousands of citizens to live their lives with dignity and good health. In Missouri, we're better than that.

I don't think all of you believe in survival of the fittest. I believe more thoughtful heads can prevail. You all know my proposed solution. By closing corporate tax loopholes ... raising cigarette and gambling taxes ... and by raising the income tax on those who make more than $200,000 per year, we can balance our budget without cutting education and health care.

As you are also aware, we are not a high-tax state. Missouri has a tradition of respecting the hard-earned dollars of working families ... That's why we're ranked 44th in the nation in total tax burden on our citizens. This proposal reflects the best of that tradition.

The undeniable truth is that the vast majority of Missouri taxpayers won't pay one penny more in taxes. Clearly, some of you agree ... and some of you disagree. For those who disagree, your solution is to rely only on devastating cuts to education and health care ... while protecting the tobacco and gambling companies. I'm not willing to trade teachers and doctors for cigarettes and poker chips.

And your solution rips the safety net out from under our most vulnerable while sheltering some of our biggest corporations from paying their fair share. I am not willing to sacrifice our mentally ill and disabled to protect a corporate tax loophole. To me, and to hundreds of thousands of Missouri families across this state, it's a clear choice. But for some reason, here in the State Capitol, we're at an impasse. I want to let the people decide.

That's why I'm asking for a public vote. Let's allow the voters of this state to make an informed decision. An increase in cigarette and gambling taxes ... or fewer teachers in the classroom. Corporate tax loopholes ... or health care for low-income children. Drastic cuts or sensible tax reform.

Ladies and gentlemen, the Missouri Constitution demands that we do something. And we can either close this gap the right way or the wrong way. I say let the people decide.

Here's another way to look at the question before you. By blocking a budget referendum, you are telling the voters that they need to be protected from themselves. I trust the people of this state. I trust their common sense, their fairness, and their values.

Abraham Lincoln once said: "I am a firm believer in the people. If given the truth, they can be depended upon to meet any crisis. The great point is to bring them the real facts."

Well, the facts are on the table. Your plan is on the table ... and so is mine. If you're certain that you're right, then you shouldn't be afraid of a public vote. And if you happen to be wrong ... then who gets hurt? The public will have spoken.

We as a people have to decide what's most important to us. And all of us as leaders have to remember who we're here to serve. This is a difficult time in Missouri history ... and a difficult time for our country. But I truly believe that we'll solve this budget crisis through the wisdom of our people and by the grace of God.

There are moments in our lives when there should be no shame in asking for guidance from a higher authority. At a time of great disagreement among good people, this is one of those moments. Today, the people of Missouri are a higher authority ... and we are their servants.

Pass the budget referendum ... and let the people decide.

Thank you very much and God bless the great state of Missouri.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER CATHERINE HANAWAY

Fellow members of the General Assembly, at the end of the day, when the debates and speeches have finished, when the arguing stops, when the reporters have written their stories and broadcast the news, when we have retired to our offices to continue our work, and when this chamber is quiet, the essential truth of this great debate over the state budget will remain.

Each and every member of the Missouri General Assembly, whether Republican or Democrat, pursues a course of action that he or she believes is best for the people of this state. And, while we spend most of the legislative session debating the intricacies of hundreds of bills, we are united in our desire to serve the best interests of our communities.

Today, we stand divided, not by facts and figures, programs and dollar amounts, dedication or strength of conviction, but by a difference in HOW TO SOLVE THESE PROBLEMS.

For 48 years, we have tried to serve the people by growing government and raising taxes.

And yet, government still cannot satisfy every need and the bureaucracy has grown too big too fast to be sustained by the taxes paid by Missourians.

Maybe, it is time to try another way. Maybe, it's time to trust that Missourians will use their hard earned dollars better than government, that instead of growing bureaucracy, Missourians will create jobs, take care of themselves and their families and increase our capacity to solve the state's problems.

Today, the Governor has asked the question: Should we solve our state problems by raising taxes or should the government live within its means? The answer is that the time has come for government to live within its means.

Make no mistake, We are not here as representatives of government; we are here as representatives of the people. The people elected us to come here and represent their interests in the government.

Representing them means living up to the greatness that lies within those Missourians. We stand with them, we stand for them and we stand on the shoulders of those who came before us. And, our fellow Missourians have had to live through much tougher times than these.

They pioneered this state, survived a Civil War, recessions and depressions and World Wars. They made sacrifices for us, for our freedoms and for the greatness of this state. They and we are a generous and compassionate people and a people who share some fundamental values:

Missourians value:

Hard work
Self reliance
Self sacrifice Education Freedom Family

And Missourians take responsibility:

For those who can't possibly provide for themselves.

For the quality of the public schools.

And, Missourians understand this fundamental truth, when anyone receives a benefit of any kind from state government the people of Missouri have to pay for it. Missourians capacity for love of their fellow man and desire for the best in public schools is boundless, but Missourians ability to pay for their fellow man and schools is bounded by the earnings of the working men and women of this state.

When Missourians work more and earn more, they can do more for themselves and their fellow man.

That's why during this legislative session the only litmus test applied to legislation was: will this proposal create jobs or kill jobs?

And make no mistake this litmus test was critical, the real crisis facing this state isn't that taxes are high enough; it is that the state has lost more jobs than any other state in the country. And, when Missourians lose their jobs or earn less money they pay less in taxes. Then, the government collects less money, and the government can't spend as much.

It is a very delicate balance. When I think about our state's budget problem, I try to put faces on that problem. First, I think about a child, maybe a child with Down's syndrome, or an elderly grandmother in a nursing home. Then, I think about the family, with a mom, a dad and three kids, where mom and dad are both working. I think about the sacrifices they are making to make ends meet, to take care of themselves, to pay for their health insurance and to pay their taxes to support our schools and those can't do for themselves.

Then, I look at the competing proposals for balancing this budget and the effect those proposals will have on all these people.

The Governor's approach would increase taxes on corporations, the rich, cigarettes and gaming. And, he says these aren't taxes on any working man or woman who doesn't want to pay them.

But that's where he is wrong, every one of the $700 million in taxes he would take for state government is money that could be spent to hire more people or to pay overtime or to make house payments or to buy school clothes.

Each of the last two years, tax collections for the state have declined, not because we have had a tax cut, but because Missourians are making less money. Consequently, each of the last two years, state government, like the citizens who pay for it, has been able to afford a little less. It is time to stop this downward slide.

Increasing taxes by $700 million may result in a momentary increase in state revenues, but it will also immediately mean a $700 million cut in what Missourians have to provide for their families and take care of themselves. All the jobs that could be created and purchases made with that money would mean more tax revenue to the state. Instead, if we tax more, all those dollars come to state government and don't increase productivity and ultimately result in a further decline in state revenues. In other words, a tax increase means we will hurt the child with Down's syndrome, the grandmother in the nursing home and the working family, because the people of this state will continue each year to be able to afford less and less for themselves, for their government and their fellow Missourians.

Nearly fifty years ago, one Missourian, a worker at McDonnell Douglas, named Earl Walker had an idea. He thought he could build a better bolt. So, he bought some tools and starting building that bolt in his garage on nights and weekends. He was right. He could build a better bolt, and soon, he needed help. So, he hired three of his friends, rented a warehouse and founded a company that now employs hundreds of people, making it possible for hundreds of families to provide for themselves and pay taxes that help others and support schools.

There are thousands of stories just like that of Missourians who started with nothing and ended up providing for many. But, what would have happened to Earl Walker, and to the thousands like him, if just as he started growing his business and employing more people we taxed him out of business?

The Governor began the legislative session saying that we must raise taxes by more than $700 million.

After months of difficult decisions, the legislature met the Governor halfway increasing revenues by more than $350 million. We did that by closing corporate loopholes, collecting from tax cheats and some bonding, and we closed the rest of the budget gap by reducing spending by more than $400 million.

Then, the Governor did something that no Governor has ever done, not through all those tough times faced by past Missouri Governors, not during the Depression, not during the World Wars, not during any of those much larger crises, HE VETOED THE APPROPRIATIONS BILLS FOR PUBLIC EDUCATION AND SOME OF THE STATE'S MOST VITAL SERVICES.

And, he said, I still need more than $700 million in new taxes.

Next, we received some very good news from President Bush. Missouri state government will receive a check from the federal government for almost $400 million – so now the Governor would have more new revenue than he had originally asked for.

Still, he said I need $700 more million in new taxes.

And, he wrote each of us this letter and asked us and I quote, “to turn our full attention to finding the revenue needed to prevent the devastating cuts to education and vital human services,” and he specified four areas where he believed we needed to restore reductions in spending.

Well, we have done that. The budget passed out of committee yesterday addresses each of the Governor's requests.

First, some of the additional federal money was used to add $72 million to spending for elementary and secondary schools, restoring schools to their current level of funding.

Second, higher education will receive a $14 million increase.

Third, reductions in spending for health and mental health were restored, and Finally, 13,000 people were put back on the Medicaid roles.

And, after all of that, the Governor said I still need $700 million in new taxes.

Governor, we have addressed your concerns, you have more new revenues than you asked for at the beginning of the year, and we have spared the people a tax increase. You should sign the budget. You should not shut down this government. You should end your fight to raise taxes. If you choose to continue this fight, it will be abundantly clear to all Missourians that you can only be satisfied with the largest tax increase in Missouri history and that you are far more interested in creating a crisis than in finding solutions.

The Governor has asked why not let the people decide. The answer is that the people have already decided. Three times since last August the people have said no to tax increases and they have elected a majority of representatives who oppose tax increases. If we ask them again, they'll say, "What part of NO don't you understand?"

It is time to listen to the people we represent. The history books are filled with accounts of Missourians rising to greatness. We don't shrink from hard times; we conquer them. And we will conquer this. Missourians are warm people, they're hard-working people; they are an ingenious and energetic people; and they're there for their families and neighbors during times of hardships. As representatives of these wonderful people, we should not ask for more when they are earning less. It is time to place our trust in our fellow Missourians and to know if we don't increase their burden now, they will make this an even greater state.

Now let's get back to work and put Missourians back to work.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Extraordinary Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTH DAY, THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Blessed be the Lord God our Father who gives us rain in its season, provision for every need, comfort for our soul, and wisdom for every occasion.

Father, may our words be fitly spoken in the right season, at the right time and for the right reason for the benefit of our state. As it has been rightly spoken: "God grant us the serenity to accept the things I can not change, the courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference."

May You, Lord, bless and safeguard each one of us. May You give us illumination and grace. May You look upon us daily and give us peace.

To You be the glory, both now and forever, in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Extraordinary Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Blessed be the Lord God our Father who gives us rest in weariness, demonstrates to us His unconditional love, hears us when we pray and responds according to His good will and pleasure.

We continue to look to You that we might know wisdom and instruction, to receive instruction in wise behavior, righteousness, justice and fairness, and to serve rather than seek to be served.

May we be not those who call evil good, and good evil; Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; Who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter! May we not be like those who are wise in their own eyes, and reckless in their own sight!

May You, Lord, bless us and safeguard us. May You make Yourself known and be gracious unto us. May You establish Your peace for us.

To You be the glory, both now and forever, in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

June 18, 2003

TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF
THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

I am enclosing a Special Message to all members of the General Assembly. Please read the enclosed message during the Special Session.

Sincerely,

/s/ Bob Holden
Governor

SPECIAL MESSAGE

WHEREAS, by my Proclamation dated May 30th, 2003, I convened the Ninety Second General Assembly of the State of Missouri in the First Extra Session of the First Regular Session; and

WHEREAS, in my Proclamation convening such special session I asked the General Assembly to appropriate money for the use of the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and the Department of Higher Education in an amount sufficient to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of Missouri, especially the children of the state; and

WHEREAS, the budget the General Assembly approved during the extra session is significantly unbalanced and inadequate in that it fails to provide sufficient funds for education and those government services that protect all citizens, including children and the most vulnerable Missourians; and

WHEREAS, I hereby express my intent to veto the appropriations bill for the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education sent to me by the General Assembly in the First Extra Session of the First Regular Session because:

This bill reduces state aid to our public schools to unacceptable levels. Since a significant percentage of the foundation program supports teacher salaries, such a cut is likely to result in the layoff of teachers across the state. The elimination of the Science, Social Studies, and Health Education assessments is a step backwards in accountability of Missouri schools. The department and local school districts will be unable to determine how well students are performing in these important subject areas. Our children are our future. Reduced funding for education jeopardizes our commitment and the progress we have made to provide quality education to our children. We must protect the state's investment in education; and

WHEREAS, I hereby express my intent to veto the appropriations bill for the Department of Higher Education sent to me by the General Assembly in the First Extra Session of the First Regular Session because:

This bill reduces state aid to Missouri's two- and four-year colleges and universities to unacceptable levels. Under this bill, tuition and fees would increase, forcing a "tax increase" on low- and middle-income families. The reductions to various grant and scholarship programs will further reduce the availability of higher education opportunities. Families with lower and middle incomes may no longer be able to afford the cost of college; and

WHEREAS, the failure of the General Assembly to pass and present to me a sufficient appropriation for the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and the Department of Higher Education has left those departments without operating funds for the duration of the new fiscal year that begins on July, 1, 2003; and

WHEREAS, it is critical that the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and the Department of Higher Education have funds to operate beginning on July 1, 2003, because without such funds these Departments would be unable to meet their many responsibilities to all of the citizens of the state of Missouri.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BOB HOLDEN, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Governor by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Missouri, do hereby amend the matters specifically designated and limited for consideration by the General Assembly in my May 30, 2003, Proclamation by deleting from said proclamation matters for the General Assembly's consideration one through six, and by renumbering the seventh matter for the General Assembly's consideration to one.

FURTHERMORE, I HEREBY amend the matters specifically designated and limited for consideration by the General Assembly in my May 30, 2003, Proclamation to add to those remaining matters the following additional specifically designated and limited matters. The additional specifically designated and limited matters on which the action of the General Assembly is deemed necessary are as follows:

2. To appropriate sufficient money on an emergency basis, pursuant to Article III, Section 25, and Article IV, Section 25, of the Missouri Constitution, for a limited term to end no earlier than September 15, 2003, and no later than September 30, 2003, for:
 - a. the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions for the continued operations of the State Board of Education and the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and the several divisions and programs thereof, in an amount sufficient to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of Missouri, to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28, of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds; and
 - b. the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions for the continued operations of the Department of Higher Education and the several divisions, programs, and institutions of higher education included therein, in an amount sufficient to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of Missouri, to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28, of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri, in the City of Jefferson, on this 18th day of June, 2003.

Governor

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Extraordinary Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TENTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

Blessed be the Lord God our Father from everlasting to everlasting, who grants us grace and mercy.

Father, God, it is written, "a wise one will hear and increase in learning, and one of understanding will acquire strategies." May we hear wisdom and increase in learning. May we be of understanding and obtain necessary strategies to overcome obstacles.

Give us an understanding heart to render proper decisions and discern between good and evil. May we not neglect wise counsel, but seek it diligently.

Now may the grace of God be with us all:

To You be the glory, both now and forever, in the name of Your Son we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: John J. Davis and Chas Wildberger.

The Journals of the seventh day and eighth day were approved as corrected and the Journal of the ninth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the budgets the General Assembly presented to the Governor pursuant to the Constitution of the State of Missouri on May 21, 2003, June 18, 2003, and June 27, 2003 were significantly unbalanced and inadequate in that they fail to provide sufficient funds for education and those government services that protect all citizens, including children and the most vulnerable Missourians; and

WHEREAS, the failure to appropriate sufficient funds for education and vital government services has caused a serious disruption in the delivery of state and local governmental services to Missouri citizens; and

WHEREAS, such a disruption in the delivery of state and local governmental services constitutes a serious threat to the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, such a disruption in the delivery of state and local governmental services impedes the Governor from carrying out his duties pursuant to Article IV, Section 2, of the Constitution of Missouri to "take care that the laws are distributed and faithfully executed;" and

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 9, authorizes the Governor to "On extraordinary occasions ... convene the General Assembly by proclamation, wherein he shall state specifically each matter on which action is deemed necessary;" and

WHEREAS, such failure to appropriate adequate funds for education and vital government services as required by the Constitution of the State of Missouri is an extraordinary occasion as envisioned by Article IV, Section 9, of said Constitution.

NOW, THEREFORE, on the extraordinary occasion that exists in the State of Missouri:

2 Journal of the House

I, BOB HOLDEN, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Governor by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Missouri, do, by this Proclamation, convene the Ninety Second General Assembly of the State of Missouri in the Second Extra Session of the First Regular Session; and

I HEREBY call upon the Senators and Representatives of said General Assembly to meet in their respective chambers in the State Capitol in the City of Jefferson at the hour of 12:00 p.m., Central Daylight Time, September 8, 2003; and

I HEREBY state that the action of said General Assembly is deemed necessary concerning each matter specifically designated and limited hereinafter as follows:

1. To enact limited revenue enhancement proposals in an amount sufficient to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of Missouri.

2. To allow the Senate to consider appointments to boards, commissions, departments, and divisions that require the advice and consent of the Senate.

3. Such additional and other matters as may be recommended by the Governor by special message to the General Assembly after it shall have been convened.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri in the City of Jefferson on this 3rd day of September, 2003.

ATTEST:

/s/ Matt Blunt
Secretary of State

September 8, 2003

TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE NINETY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF
THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

I am enclosing a Special Message to all members of the General Assembly. Please read the enclosed message during the Special Session.

/s/ Bob Holden
Governor

SPECIAL MESSAGE

WHEREAS, by my Proclamation dated September 3, 2003, I convened the Ninety Second General Assembly of the State of Missouri in the Second Extra Session of the First Regular Session; and

WHEREAS, SB 556 & SB 311 were enacted into law on June 16, 2003 and created hiring restrictions applicable to any person employed by a in-home service provider agency or a home health agency, where such person's name appeared on any of the background check lists in the state's family care safety registry; and

WHEREAS, SB 184 was enacted into law on July 11, 2003 and had the effect of expanding the family care safety registry to include all criminal history records for felonies and misdemeanors, including old and minor violations not affecting employees' trustworthiness or competency to provide in-home or home health services; and

WHEREAS, the unintended impact of these laws will be to require the termination of numerous current in-home services and home health employees because of a positive listing on the family care safety registry, even where such listing reflects an old or minor violation not affecting the employees' trustworthiness or competency to provide in-home or home health services; and

WHEREAS, the further unintended impact of these laws will be to require the termination of additional employees of in-home services provider agencies and home health agencies, even where such employees' job responsibilities do not involve the actual provision of in-home or home health services to any client or patient; and

WHEREAS, the needless termination of numerous qualified employees of in-home services provider agencies and home health agencies will result in further economic hardship to the State of Missouri.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BOB HOLDEN, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, pursuant to the authority vested in me as Governor by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Missouri, do hereby amend the matters specifically designated and limited for consideration by the General Assembly in my September 3, 2003 Proclamation by adding to those remaining matters the following additional specifically designated and limited matters. The additional specifically designated and limited matters on which the action of the General Assembly is deemed necessary are as follows:

4. To enact limited statutory amendments giving the Department of Health and Senior Services authority to immediately promulgate rules permitting waiver of certain hiring restrictions for employees of in-home services provider agencies and home health agencies, where such employees are listed on background check lists in the family care safety registry, and the department has determined that such employees do not present a risk to the health or safety of clients or patients.

5. To enact limited statutory amendments clarifying that certain hiring restrictions for employees of in-home services provider agencies and home health agencies are applicable only to employees actually engaged in the act of providing in-home or home health services as a part of their employment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Missouri, in the City of Jefferson, on this 8th day of September, 2003.

To You O Lord we cry out and may our prayers come before You this morning as an evening sacrifice.

SENATE BILL FOR THIRD READING

SCS SB 4, E.C. - Sutherland

ADJOURNMENT

Pursuant to the motion of Representative Crowell, the House stood adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Friday, September 12, 2003.

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Extraordinary Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTH DAY, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2003

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

O Lord, who shall sojourn in Your tent? Who shall dwell on Your holy mountain?

He who walks blamelessly and does justice; Who thinks the truth in his heart and slanders not with his tongue. Who harms not his fellow man, nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor; Who, though it be to his loss, changes not his pledged word. Who lends not his money at usury and accepts no bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things shall never be disturbed. (Psalm 15)

O Lord, we thank You for Your grace, which enables us to walk blamelessly by doing justice and thinking the truth in our hearts. We ask that Your Holy Spirit guide the men and women assembled here throughout this day that they may again do justice and think the truth in their hearts.

And whenever they consider the needs of the elderly, may they be guided by Your holy word from the Book of Sirach:

Take care of your father and your mother when they are old; grieve them not as long as they live. Even if their minds fail, be considerate of them; revile them not all the days of their lives. (Cf. Sirach 3:12-13)

Lord God, we thank You for the gifts of cool air and rainfall. We ask that the mantle of Your protection safeguard all the men and women of our state who are serving in the armed forces. We pray that understanding increase and distrust decrease between the United States of America and all other nations.

We pray in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fourth day was approved as printed.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
State of Missouri
Jefferson City, MO 65101

May 30, 2003

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 2 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the State Board of Education and of the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and the several divisions and programs thereof to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds the period beginning July 1, 2003 and ending June 30, 2004.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 2. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

This bill reduce state aid to our public schools in unacceptable levels. Since a significant percentage of the foundation program supports teacher salaries, such a cut is like to result in the layoff of 3,400 school employees, including 2,038 teachers across the state. The elimination of the Science, Social Studies, and Health Education assessments is a step backward in accountability of Missouri schools. Without these assessments, the department and local school districts will be unable to determine how well students are performing in these important subject areas. Our children are our future. Reduced funding for education jeopardizes our commitment to and the progress we have made toward providing quality education to our children. We must protect the state's investment in education.

For all of the above reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 2 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Bob Holden
Governor

May 30, 2003

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 3 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the Department of Higher Education and the several divisions, programs, and institutions of higher education included therein to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, and to transfer money among certain funds for the period beginning July 1, 2003 and ending June 30, 2004.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 3. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

This bill reduces state aid to Missouri's two- and four-year colleges and universities to unacceptable levels. Under this bill, tuition and fees would increase at an average rate of approximately 10%, forcing a "tax increase" on low- and middle-income families. The reductions to various grant and scholarship programs will further reduce the availability of higher education opportunities. Families with lower and middle incomes may no longer be able to afford the cost of college. Due to the multiplier effect of these cuts to higher education institutions on their local and regional economies, the negative economic impact could result in additional reductions of $50-$150 million in these communities and regions.

For all of the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 3 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Bob Holden
Governor

May 30, 2003

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 10 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, refunds, and distributions of the Department of Mental Health, the Board of Public Buildings, the Department of Health and Senior Services, and the several divisions and programs thereof, the Missouri Health Facilities Review Committee and the Commission for the Missouri SeniorRx Program to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, for the period beginning July 1, 2003 and ending June 30, 2004.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 10. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

This bill reduces services to our most vulnerable citizens. Under this bill, treatment and services for 3,200 mentally-ill adults, 800 emotionally-disordered children, and 5,800 persons with a development disability will be reduced or eliminated. Substance abuse and treatment services will also be reduced or eliminated for 7,200 Missourians. In addition, it eliminates women's health services, which are often the only primary health care services provided to over 30,000 low-income women. We cannot pretend that the need to serve and protect these citizens has disappeared merely because the dollars that filled the need have been cut.

For all of the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 10 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Bob Holden
Governor

May 30, 2003

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 11 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To appropriate money for the expenses, grants, and distributions of the Department of Social Services and the several divisions and programs thereof to be expended only as provided in Article IV, Section 28 of the Constitution of Missouri, for the period beginning July 1, 2003 and ending June 30, 2004.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 11. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

This bill reduces support and critical services the people who need it the most. About 13,000 low income working adults will lose healthcare coverage due to reductions in the Medicaid program. This reduction could lead to an increase in more costly emergency room visits and unhealthy parents who may become unable to care for their children. The CHOICES program, which assists 1, 020 foster care youth between the ages of 13 and 15 in becoming responsible adults, will be eliminated. Grandparents raising their grandchildren will have an additional financial burden due to lower reimbursement rates under the Grandparents as Foster Parents Program. The state's effort to help eliminate violence in the home will be hampered because of reductions in Domestic Violence grants. Reduced support for community services will hurt welfare recipients' ability to achieve self-sufficiency. Community Partnerships have been productive in leveraging local and federal funds to address the social problems of their communities. These essential services are necessary to protect our most vulnerable citizens. The bill also reduces funding for Medicaid programs that are not connected to any cost-savings policy or statutory change. These reductions are not sustainable and must be restored to achieve a balanced budget.

For all of the above state reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Substitute for House Bill No. 11 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

July 9, 2003

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 156, entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal section 188.039, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to a twenty-four hour waiting period for certain medical procedures, with an effective date for a certain section.

I disapprove of House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 156. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Missouri law already ensures that women who wish to receive an abortion give their informed consent to a physician prior to the procedure. See section 188.039, RSMo. There is no indication that current law is in any way ineffective or incomplete on this subject. This legislation, which rewrites the law concerning informed consent and forces women who make the informed choice to receive an abortion to wait 24 hours before having the abortion, does nothing more than restrict a woman's right to choose to have a legal, constitutionally-protected procedure.

Furthermore, the bill has the effect of limiting information that a woman should have before proceeding with an abortion. The bill deletes current sections of law that require a physician to inform a women of "material facts or opinions ... which, in the exercise of his best medical judgment is reasonably necessary to allow the woman to give her informed consent to the proposed abortion, with full knowledge of its nature and consequences." By prohibiting trained medical professionals from giving information to women that is thought to be medically necessary, this bill, contrary to its professed intent, limits a woman's ability to give true informed consent.

This legislation also confuses settled law. The bill deletes current law concerning informed consent for abortion and replaces it with vague and imprecise references to "indicators," "contra-indicators," and "situational factors," none of which are defined. The meaning of these terms, and therefore what is required of physicians, is totally unknown, and any change is particularly unnecessary given that informed consent is already required by state law.

This bill prohibits physicians from performing abortions unless they have proof of medical malpractice insurance in an amount of at least $500,000. Physicians who perform procedures that are as complex or more complex and dangerous as abortions are not required to have such proof. The bill requires women to wait 24 hours after giving informed consent before receiving an abortion. Women do not have to wait 24 hours before undergoing any other comparable procedure. These extra requirements in conjunction with the fact that the General Assembly recently cut all funding for family planning – a move that directly impacts the health of thousands of women in Missouri by denying them primary health care, including cancer screenings and tests for sexually-transmitted diseases – makes clear that this legislation is motivated by animus against the legal, constitutionally-protected choice of each woman rather than by interest in women's health.

Requiring women to wait 24 hours after giving informed consent to undergo an abortion procedure will negatively impact all women, but particularly women who are poor or young, who live in rural areas and have to travel longer distances to an abortion provider, who do not have access to cars and public transportation, and who do not have insurance or sick leave. There are only two licensed abortion facilities in the state, ensuring that the great majority of women in Missouri live a considerable distance away from such a facility. For this reason, requiring a 24-hour wait will ensure that the costs in time and money accrued in order to receive an abortion will rise, and also threatens the health of pregnant women who have to delay an abortion past the date allowed by current law. I refuse to sanction this impact on women, the potential danger to their health, or the demeaning implication that women currently do not make a choice without thinking of the consequences.

For all of the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 156 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Bob Holden

July 9, 2003

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill 257, entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal sections 143.121, 148.330, 340.216, 348.015, 348.430, 348.432, 430.030, 640.700, 640.703, 640.710, 640.715, 640.725, 640.730, 640.735, 640.740, 640.745, 640.747, 640.750, 640.755, 640.758, 644.016, and 644.051, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof forty new sections relating to agriculture, with penalty provisions.

I disapprove of Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill 257. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

HB 257 jeopardizes Missouri's delegation from EPA to administer part 122 of the National Pollution Discharge Elimination System Permit Program authorized under Act 33 U.S.C. (the Clean Water Act). In removing the current state statutory authority for regulation of Concentrated Animal Feeding Operations (CAFO), HB 257 fails to reestablish in new sections all of the necessary provisions of federal CAFO regulation, specifically excluding part 122.23 (c) (3) subsections (i and ii) which relate to the designation of an Animal Feeding Operation as a CAFO. Lack of inclusion of this provision in HB 257 places Missouri out of compliance with the minimum standards established by EPA.

HB 257 violates the Missouri Constitution by specifically delegating responsibility for inspections of ungulates to the Missouri Department of Agriculture. Under Article IV, Section 40(a) of the Missouri Constitution, “The control, management, restoration, conservation and regulation of the bird, fish, game, forestry and all wildlife resources of the state, including hatcheries, sanctuaries, refuges, reservations and all other property owned, acquired or used for such purposes and the acquisition and establishment thereof, and the administration of all laws pertaining thereto, shall be vested in a conservation commission”. The term ungulate refers to all hoofed animals, and thus includes animals within the scope of responsibility of the Missouri Conservation Commission. Because deer, which are a game animal and a native wildlife species within Missouri, are ungulates, the delegation of responsibility for the control and regulation of deer violates the Missouri Constitution.

HB 257 would pass public health related costs of animal agriculture to livestock producers by shifting the costs of inspections made by the Missouri Department of Agriculture for the health and management of domestic and exotic ungulates. Due to the broad definition of ungulates, inspections of animals such as horses and cattle for the benefit of public health, now accomplished with public funds, would be borne by private parties under HB 257. This consequence of the usage of the term ungulate will cost cattle, swine, horse, and other ungulate producers thousands of dollars annually. This provision would have a negative effect on the economics of livestock production for Missouri.

HB 257 fails to hold schools and local government harmless financially when tax credits authorized under Section RSMo 348.430 and 348.432 are used against premium tax liability by Domestic Insurance Companies. Annually, the Commissioner of Administration is directed to apportion funds in the County Stock Fund to the school district, county government and general revenue based upon the ratio of which the rates of levy for the same year for state purposes, for county purposes, and for all school district purposes, bear to each other. The bill states that when the credits are used, only the general revenue portion of the apportionment will be reduced. Historically, all funds from the County Stock Fund have been sent to either the school district or the county government in which the insurance company was domiciled. There has been no apportionment to general revenue from the County Stock Fund. If there is no general revenue apportionment from the county stock fund, and therefore no revenue to offset when credits are used, then the cost of the use of credits by insurance companies would be borne, in great part, by local schools.

While HB 257 contains provisions that could contribute to the general health of agriculture in Missouri, it’s lack of compliance with federal law, apparent unconstitutionality, imprecision and disregard for the larger welfare of livestock producers call for a veto.

For all of the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill 257 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

"AN ACT"

To authorize the conveyance of property along 321 Knaust Road to St. Charles County, Missouri.

I disapprove of said House Bill No. 278. My reason for disapproval is as follows:

The identical companion bill to House Bill No. 278, (SB No. 130) was already signed into law on July 1, 2003.

For the above stated reason for disapproval, I am returning House Bill No. 278 without my approval.

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 327, entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal sections 137.298, 144.062, 191.831, 226.525, 226.535, 227.120, 238.207, 238.210, 238.215, 238.220, 238.222, 238.235, 238.236, 292.602, 301.010, 301.069, 302.225, 302.272, 302.302, 302.304, 302.309, 302.540, 302.700, 302.725, 302.735, 302.740, 302.755, 302.756, 302.760, 302.775, 304.013, 304.015, 304.035, 304.580, 307.125, 307.127, 307.177, 307.400, 389.610, 390.020, 577.023, 577.041, 577.049, 577.054, and 577.520, RSMo, and section 304.157 as enacted by senate bill no. 17, ninetieth general assembly, first regular session, and to enact in lieu thereof fifty-four new sections relating to transportation, with penalty provisions, an emergency clause for certain sections, and an effective date for certain sections.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 327. My reason for disapproval is as follows:

CCS SS SCS HB 327 creates a sales tax exemption on materials purchased for use in Missouri Department of Transportation projects. This exemption reduces revenue to the state, most notably in the General Revenue and School District Trust Funds. These funds will experience considerable decreases in revenue (an estimated $7,950,000 and $2,650,000 respectively). At this time, it is not prudent fiscal management to enact measures reducing the amount of General Revenue available to support state programs, or to reduce distributions to schools provided by the School District Trust Fund. Reduced funding for education jeopardizes our commitment to and the progress we have made toward providing quality education to our children. We must protect the state's investment in education. In addition, many state services for elderly, poor, and disabled citizens have already been slashed because of inadequate funding. Additional decreases to the General Revenue Fund resulting from this sales tax exemption will only add to the amount of vital services that must be discontinued for lack of resources.

For the above-stated reason for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 327 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

July 3, 2003

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 349, 120, 136, & 328, entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal section 571.030, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to concealable weapons, with penalty provisions.

I disapprove of Senate Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 349, 120, 136, & 328. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

House Bill Nos. 349, 120, 136, & 328 violates federal law. 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(9) prohibits any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence from possessing or receiving firearms or ammunition. This legislation, however, allows a person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor domestic violence crime to apply for and receive a permit for a concealed weapon. As such, the bill violates a federal law meant to protect victims of domestic violence from their abusers and places concealed weapons into the hands of those who are known to have committed assault in the past.

House Bill Nos. 349, 120, 136, & 328, while allowing permit holders to carry concealed firearms, inadequately protects the public safety interests of other citizens because it allows concealed firearms to be carried into certain places and areas of the state that should be off limits to such weapons. These areas include restaurants and portions of airports, as well as stadiums and sports arenas seating less than 5,000 people such as little league baseball fields. Furthermore, if a person carries a concealed weapon into an area where such weapons are prohibited, this bill states that such unauthorized use of a concealed weapon "is not a criminal act." A person would have to carry an unauthorized concealed weapon into a child care facility and refuse to leave after being asked twice within six months before their permit could even be suspended.

House Bill Nos. 349, 120, 136, & 328 does not provide adequate notice to the public about which places within the state it is permissible to carry concealed weapons. Pursuant to the provisions of this bill, concealed weapons can be carried into police stations and highway patrol offices, bars that serve liquor, elementary and high schools, child care facilities, and churches if the relevant person or entity authorizes it, but the public is not notified of which of these areas allows the use of concealed weapons. Considering the variety of areas in which weapons may be carried, Missouri citizens will never know at any given time whether they are in an area that allows others to carry concealed weapons. Similarly, the bill would not provide notice to citizens with concealed weapon permits as to what areas have been opened to concealed weapons by the decision of the controlling entity.

Many citizens are concerned that this legislation will increase the number of concealed weapons in social areas, including restaurants and bars. Letters that I have received from the Missouri Restaurant Association Trust Fund and individual businesses make clear that those who dine, drink, and work in such establishments will be endangered by this bill.

The citizens of Missouri have already clearly decided that they do not wish to authorize the carrying of concealed weapons in this state. In April of 1999, voters in this state defeated a conceal and carry proposition despite the fact that the proposition would have mandated more firearms training than this bill (twelve hours as opposed to eight), limited reciprocity of the right to carry a concealed weapon to states that had equal requirements for the issuance of a permit (whereas this bill accepts permits from other states regardless of the permit requirements in those states), retained a criminal penalty for armed trespass (as opposed to this bill, which declares that it is not a criminal act to carry a concealed weapon into a prohibited area), and allowed sheriffs to consider juvenile court records when considering an application for a permit (as opposed to this bill, which does not). Despite the fact that the 1999 conceal and carry proposition was more protective of public safety than this legislation, the citizens of this state voted it down.

House Bill Nos. 349, 120, 136, & 328, while seeming to limit the eligible class of people who can receive a permit, fails to do so. The bill does not require sheriffs to make any inquiry into a person's fitness to have a permit other than inquiries "he or she deems necessary." Furthermore, the legislation allows a sheriff to refuse to issue a permit only if the sheriff meets the high standard of determining that the applicant is ineligible or having a "substantial and demonstrable" reason to believe the applicant has made a false statement. Finally, and most importantly, although the bill allows a sheriff to refuse a permit on the grounds that an applicant has been adjudged mentally incompetent five years prior to making the application or was ever committed to a mental health institution, there is no single database that contains such information that a sheriff can use to check. The bill presents a significant risk, therefore, of allowing people with substantial mental impairment to carry concealed weapons.

House Bill Nos. 349, 120, 136, & 328 requires first-time applicants to take and pass an eight-hour program on firearm safety, to complete a live fire exercise, and to submit to a criminal background fingerprint check. However, none of the same is required to renew a permit. The provisions of this bill, therefore, would allow a person to carry a concealed weapon without having any new firearm safety training, without having to show the ability to fire the weapon with any degree of proficiency, and without having received a background check for years on end.

Pursuant to current law, several groups of people are allowed to carry concealed weapons. These groups are trained to use firearms in defense of the safety of others or are at a heightened risk of attack due to their employment. They include state, county, and municipal law enforcement officers; members of the armed forces or national guard performing official duties; state and federal judges; probation and parole officers; and wardens, superintendents, and keepers of prisons. Current law regarding concealed weapons, therefore, strikes an optimal balance between arming those who are in particular danger and who are charged with keeping the peace in Missouri and limiting the number of concealed weapons so that those who protect us are not in greater danger.

House Bill Nos. 349, 120, 136, & 328 provides that "information regarding any holder of a certificate of qualification or a concealed carry endorsement is a closed record." There is absolutely no defensible public policy that justifies keeping this information – which otherwise would be open pursuant to the state's sunshine law – from the public and the press of this state. According to section 610.011, RSMo, "It is the public policy of this state that meetings, records, votes, actions, and deliberations of public bodies be open to the public unless otherwise provided by law." This legislation violates the spirit of that section of our sunshine law.

For all of the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 349, 120, 136, & 328 without my approval.

Herewith I return to you House Bill No. 375 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal section 58.451, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to coroners' reports.

I disapprove of House Bill No. 375. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

House Bill No. 375 makes a good faith attempt, yet fails, to clarify the rules for determining the place of death and designating responsibility for death investigations under Missouri law. For example, if an individual is transported from our sister state Illinois into Missouri and subsequently expires, neither state, according to the language of this bill, would have jurisdiction to investigate that death or to issue a death certificate.

In addition, House Bill No. 375 could generate unforeseen and burdensome costs to the counties as it requires small rural counties to both assume the responsibility for any and all death investigations, and to pay for a medical examiner to conduct an autopsy if needed pursuant to an investigation. Currently, these costs are frequently assumed by larger counties in which major trauma centers reside.

Finally, House Bill No. 375 is silent, and may likely create complications and delays, regarding organ donor programs.

For all of the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Bill No. 375 without my approval.

Herewith I return to you House Bill No. 376 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal section 58.096, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to deputy coroner compensation.

I disapprove of House Bill No. 376. My reason for disapproval is as follows:

The language contained in this bill is similar to the language contained in Senate Bill No. 376, which was also truly agreed to and finally passed during the 2003 regular session and which I signed into law on July 1, 2003. The two bills do not contain identical language, however. Indeed, this bill, unlike Senate Bill No. 376, erroneously deletes the phrase "by the provisions of" from subsection 2 of 58.095. I can effectuate the intent of both bills, however, by signing Senate Bill 376 into law, which I have done, and vetoing this bill on technical grounds.

For the above stated reason for disapproval, I am returning House Bill No. 376 without my approval.

Herewith I return to you House Bill No. 478 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To amend chapter 301, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to special license plates.

I disapprove of said House Bill No. 478. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

There are currently available over 100 specialty plates available from which the citizens of Missouri may choose. The fiscal note for this bill indicates that it would cost over $11,000 to the Department of Revenue for this additional plate alone, and yet the General Assembly appropriated no funds for these costs. Any revenue generated by plate fees would go to the State Highway Fund rather than the Department of Revenue and cannot be given a fair dependable estimate at this time.

Finally, the Missouri law enforcement community has expressed its continued disapproval of specialty plates and the challenges it presents to them in serving Missouri's public safety needs.

For all of the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Bill No. 478.

I disapprove of said House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 493. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

The fiscal note for this bill indicates that it would cost over $10,000 to the Department of Revenue for this additional plate alone, and yet the General Assembly appropriated no funds for these costs. TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you House Bill No. 594, entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal section 233.295, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to dissolution of road districts in certain counties.

I disapprove of House Bill No. 594. My reason for disapproval is as follows:

Several sections of law provide for the dissolution of road districts. One example is 233.295.2, a section of law that would immediately precede proposed new subsection 233.295.4 set out in this bill. In subsection 2, only registered voters residing within the road district may petition to dissolve the district. In new subsection 4, however, registered voters in the county could vote to dissolve the road district even if they do not live within its boundaries. This technical error may frustrate the right of self-determination for those that reside within a road district in the affected county, and this is particular problem with respect to Jasper county, which contains nine road districts.

For the above-stated reason for disapproval, I am returning House Bill No. 594 without my approval.

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 598 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal sections 301.010, 301.130, 301.132, 301.141, 301.142, 301.144, 301.147, 301.456, 301.463, 301.567, 301.3098, 301.4000, 304.013, 307.125, 307.127, 643.310, and 643.315, RSMo, section 307.366 as enacted by conference committee substitute for senate committee substitute for house committee substitute for house bills nos. 603, 722 & 783, ninetieth general assembly, first regular session, section 307.366 as enacted by conference committee substitute for house substitute for senate substitute for senate bill no. 19, ninetieth general assembly, first regular session, and sections 307.366 and 643.315 as truly agreed to and finally passed by senate bill no. 54, ninety-second general assembly, first regular session, and to enact in lieu thereof fifty-one new sections relating to motor vehicle registration, with penalty provisions and an effective date for certain sections.

I disapprove of said Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 598. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 598 creates 17 additional specialty plates. There are currently available over 100 specialty plates available from which the citizens of Missouri may choose. The fiscal note for this bill indicates that there would be a cost of over $125,000 to the Department of Revenue to implement the bill's specialty plate provisions, and yet the General Assembly appropriated no funds for these costs. Any revenue generated by plate fees would go to the State Highway Fund rather than the Department of Revenue and cannot be given a fair dependable estimate at this time.

The Missouri law enforcement community has expressed its continued disapproval of specialty plates and the challenges it presents to them in serving Missouri's public safety needs.

The language in Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 598 erroneously and unintentionally repeals critical provisions within Senate Bill No. 54, which I signed into law on June 19, 2003.

Some of the bill's most worthy provisions are included in bills I have previously signed into law, such as: modifications to inappropriate restrictions on US Veteran motorcycle plates, which is included in House Bill 187, and which I signed into law on June 24, 2003, and modifications to state regulations regarding disabled placards, which is included in Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 491, and which I signed into law on July 3, 2003.

Finally, because this bill originally started as one which merely increased the weight eligibility for motor vehicles for special personalized license plates, the great majority of the bill would be in constitutional peril if signed into law due to violations of the Missouri Constitution's Article III provisions regarding original purpose and single-subject mandates.

Respectfully submitted,

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI:

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 679 & 396 entitled:

"AN ACT"

To repeal sections 26.740, 43.500, 43.503, 43.506, 43.521, 43.527, 43.530, 43.540, 43.543, 135.327, 168.071, 192.016, 207.050, 207.060, 208.152, 208.204, 210.025, 210.109, 210.110, 210.115, 210.145, 210.152, 210.160, 210.183, 210.201, 210.211, 210.518, 210.565, 210.760, 210.903, 210.909, 210.922, 210.937, 211.031, 211.032, 211.059, 211.171, 211.181, 211.321, 302.272, 352.400, 402.199, 402.200, 402.205, 402.215, 402.217, 453.020, 453.060, 453.110, 475.024, 491.075, 492.304, 537.046, 630.140, 630.167, 630.170, 630.210, and 660.317, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof eighty-five new sections relating to the state foster care and protective services for children, with penalty provisions.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 679 & 396. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

With respect to de novo court reviews of agency determinations that a person abused or neglected a child, current law only prohibits the alleged abuser from subpoenaing the victim or the abuse reporter to give testimony. Proposed section 210.152.5 of this bill would also prohibit the division of family services from subpoenaing the victim or the abuse reporter. In many cases, the victim or reporter will have the best or only information regarding an alleged instance of abuse but will be unwilling to testify for a host of reasons, including intimidation by the abuser. If the division is unable to compel testimony, they may be unable to prove that abuse took place, leading to the grave possibility that child abusers may escape identification and continue living and working where children may be exposed to their continued patterns of abuse. This problem is particularly acute considering the new, higher standard of a "preponderance of the evidence" that the division must meet. Pursuant to this bill, the division is required to shoulder a greater burden of proof while losing one of its most useful tools, the subpoena.

In proposed section 210.025 of this bill, the standard by which a finding of abuse or neglect must be made before the division of family services may deny state or federal funding to an applicant is raised from “probable cause” to “preponderance of the evidence.” No provision denies potential funding to people who were found to have abused or neglected children under the previous standard of probable cause, however. If those who were previously found to have abused or neglected children make a new application for funding and the division of family services is unable to meet the new, higher standard, perhaps because evidence was not retained or because witnesses are no longer available, or because of the problem with section 210.152.5 mentioned above, people who were found to abuse or neglect children will receive state or federal funds. Allowing state and federal money to flow to such people violates the spirit of the bill.

This bill repeals and reenacts section 211.321. In doing so, language that allows a juvenile officer to communicate information important in abuse, neglect, truancy, and delinquency cases to school officials, law enforcement officials, prosecutors, and others who have an interest and can help with the case was deleted. Such communication is critical to the efficient and reasonable conclusion of such cases. Without the authorization to disclose this information to law enforcement, the juvenile officer becomes a silent witness, unable to assist in the apprehension and conviction of child abusers. They will be required to stand idly by while child molesters and abusers escape prosecution. In addition, the juvenile officers would be unable to share vital information with state or local agencies best able to provide or obtain treatment for abused children. This treatment is essential to the mental and physical recovery of the abused or neglected child.

Proposed section 211.059 requires that “[a]ny interrogation of or interview with a child taken into custody by a juvenile officer or law enforcement official based on allegations of child abuse or neglect shall, whenever possible, be audiotape, videotape, or digitally recorded...” Considerable concern has been raised that the required taping of victims who are already severely traumatized by their experiences will intimidate victims such that they will be unable or unwilling to testify. If testimony is chilled, it will directly impact the ability of law enforcement and the department of social service successfully to investigate, prevent, or prosecute abuse and neglect cases.

Proposed section 210.109.3(3) allows school reporters who are required by law to report child abuse and neglect to make anonymous reports. No other mandatory reporter is allowed to report anonymously. There is no public policy that justifies treating school mandatory reporters differently, and the interest of protecting children requires that all reports made by mandatory reporters contain as much information as possible.

For the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 679 & 396 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Bob Holden
